WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE...

#TEMPLETUFF

PJ WALKER QB

"#TempleTUFF is a mentality we carry on our shoulders when we step on the field. We know we are going to play harder and faster than our opponent for 60 minutes."

HAASON REDDICK LB

"#TempleTUFF is being physical, relentless, mentally TUFF, and doing whatever it takes to get the job done. It also means that you are elite and that you are the best of the best.

DL MATT IOANNIDIS

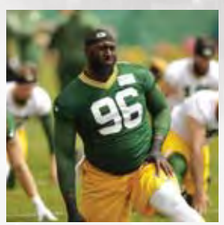
"#TempleTUFF is all about embracing the pain that goes into being great. We enjoy the fact that it is uncomfortable and hard. We attack everything even harder without folding under pressure. We keep our hands off our hips and never show weakness."

OL DION DAWKINS

"#TempleTUFF simply means embracing the underdog role even when we know we aren't the underdog. No one wants to play us for 60 minutes. The amount of blood, sweat, and tears that have been shed on that field will forever be a part of this brotherhood."

KYLE FRIEND OL

"Being #TempleTUFF doesn't happen overnight. It's developed through hard work, grit, and extreme accountability. Being #TUFF means you are at your best at all times. There are no excuses. You must be willing to sacrifice for the better of the program. You put the team first and everything else aside. That is how you become #TempleTUFF."



MUHAMMAD WILKERSON DE

"#TempleTUFF is being physical and mentally TUFF, and dominating your opponent for 60 minutes. It's a mindset you must earn because nothing is given, the grind and struggle is real and 10th and Diamond so ask yourself...are you #TempleTUFF?"

CB TAVON YOUNG

"When you step out on the field, there's no fear. You physically, mentally, and emotionally care about your teammates and you fight for your brothers. By doing that, you're going to have that #TempleTUFF respect."

LB TYLER MATAKEVICH

"#TempleTUFF is the most dominant, mentally tough, physical guys on the field. Someone who puts fear in his opponents and isn't going to stop until they quit. Someone who embraces the grind, holds himself and his teammates accountable. #TempleTUFF is someone who is willing to do whatever it takes to be great and leads by example."

COLIN THOMPSON TE

"#TempleTUFF is when you are unfazed by any opportunity. It's when you have laser focus on the task. You don't choose, you just do. It's knowing that your brothers believe in you. #TempleTUFF is the relentless pursuit of greatness."

MAYHEM IS HERE

Geoff Collins came to Temple with a reputation as a creative genius. His innovative strategies placed Alabama, Georgia Tech, and UCF, among the leaders in recruiting that they continue to benefit from. Now that he has his fingerprints on everything the Owls do, his creative mind has taken the football team's branding to heights never reached before. From innovative practices and workouts, to digital and social media presence, to facility and uniform redesign, Collins' vision reaches far beyond x's and o's. His desire to engage his players, student body, faculty, alumni, recruits, and fans alike keep him excited about staying ahead of the curve.

This past May, Geoff Collins was asked to travel to Japan and spearhead football coaching clinics on player safety, but the endeavor grew from there. Dr. Jeremy Jordan, associate dean of Temple's School of Sport, Tourism & Hospitality Management (STHM), enlisted Collins to participate in the clinics as part of a two-year, on-going effort by Temple University to support college athletics in Japan. The intended goal is to assist Japan's higher education to restructure its college athletics. Currently, many universities empower 30-40 sports to participate at the club level with no funding other than participants' entry fees.

The endeavor took on additional components which comprised a three-credit summer course for the selected group. "Sport, Culture, and Tourism in Japan." In addition to several football clinics at Hosei and Kansai Universities, the class took trips to three different cities – Tokyo, Osaka, and Kyoto – and visited the U.S. Embassy, University of Tokyo, a Tokyo Giants baseball game, a sumo wrestling tournament, several temples and shrines, and Dome Corporation Headquarters (exclusive licensee and distributor for Under Armour in Japan).

"I know we chose the right eight guys to go. The eight guys that went with us were picked for very specific reasons," Collins said. "They were engaging, they were positive the entire week...their level of excitement, their level of coaching, it was amazing to see those guys embrace the situation that they were in, the culture they were in and do an unbelievable job."

The trip was an overwhelming success and there's already a desire to go back and continue these trips in the future.

Asked if he would ever go back again, Collins responded, "We are an International University with campuses in Tokyo and Rome. Our incredible administration is looking into the possibilities for similar trips in the future."

FIRST PRIORITY

NORTHEAST BEAST

Since 2015, Temple has become the Beasts of the Northeast out-recruiting, winning, and producing more NFL talent than the other Power 6 schools north and east of Temple's campus. Temple's 27 wins is 10 better than the next closest school and the Owls' three bowl games is equal to the COMBINED total for all of the others in the northeast over the last three years.

Temple's eight total NFL draft selections since 2016 outpaces each of the other schools and the 20 Owls currently active in the NFL with three-or-fewer years of experience proves they learned to be professionals while at 10th and Diamond.

"Temple has PRODUCED more NFL talent than the other Power 6 schools north and east of Temple's campus."

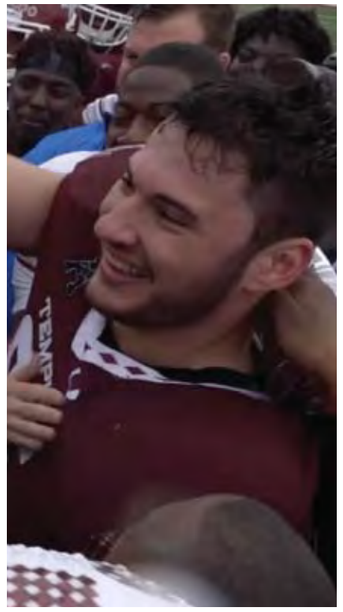
24 PLAYERS
in the NFL past 3 seasons!

"Reddick is also the embodiment of Temple as a developmental program. He came to campus as a walk-on cornerback as a freshman. In 2012. He moved to linebacker after one season."

DEVELOPMENTAL PROGRAM

#STACKdays #TempleTUFF

The most notable former walk-on in recent memory is Haason Reddick. Reddick is also the embodiment of Temple as a developmental program. He came to campus as a walk-on cornerback as a freshman. In 2012. He moved to linebacker after one season redshirting. By 2014 he transitioned to defensive end and was used as a situational pass rusher. By 2016, he led was among the nation's leaders in sacks and tackles-for-loss. He parlayed that growth and production and became the 13th selection in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.



WALK-ON LEGACY

Temple has had a long list of contributors who originally joined the program as a walk-on. The young kids who come to campus with a chip on their shoulder, personify the culture of the program. That's why Haason Reddick was able to go from walk-on to first round draft choice and why Geoff Collins continue to reward those such as Todd Jones, Chris Myarick and Rob Ritrovato with scholarships as they grow through the program.

TEMPLE FOOTBALL

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Temple Football team has always been among the most dependable activists in Philadelphia. With over 300 annual hours of service, the Owls have been a fixture within the Temple community, the North Philadelphia community and all over the Philadelphia landscape. The team has lent support to some of the most established charitable foundations as well as local schools and churches. Whether lending support to the Philadelphia Eagles Huddle Up for Autism event, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, “Be the Match” Bone Marrow Drive, Special Olympics, Habitat for Humanity, Read Across America Day, MLK Day of Service, and WalkTU, or attending local grade schools, shelters, and churches to serve as mentors, the Owls find time to be an integral part of the Philadelphia community.

BRANDING MATTERS.

ATHLETES ARE BRANDS TOO.

GEOFF COLLINS HEAD COACH

“Like any successful business you are identified by your Brand. We feel very strongly about what makes our University, Athletics Department and Football Program so unique. We are constantly looking for creative ways to showcase what makes going to school & playing football in North Philadelphia so special. Our student-athletes are fully engaged and promoted throughout this process of building their individual brands also.

"We want to connect with prospective recruits that want to be #OOU “One Of Us” & show them what being #TempleTUFF is all about."

SANTINO STANCATO BRAND MANAGER

“Today, anyone can build their brand through social media avenues. The resources are there for anyone to use wisely. No coach in the country uses social media as well as Coach Collins and gives his players more opportunities to build their own brand.”

DAVE GERSON SWAGCoordinator

“Whether through social media, digital graphics in meetings or displays hung throughout the practice facility, Coach Collins is able to communicate our culture like no other. Players are engaged, recognized, and rewarded on a consistent basis.”

WELCOME TO...
TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Temple University, a top-tier public research university based in Philadelphia, is experiencing incredible momentum powered by academic excellence and innovation in college access and affordability.

Our 17 schools and colleges, eight campuses, hundreds of degree programs and more than 40,000 students collectively create a comprehensive and diverse learning environment. Temple is also a leader in professional education. The university is among the nation's largest educators in the combined fields of dentistry, law, medicine, pharmacy and podiatry.

Founded in 1884 by Dr. Russell Conwell as an informal adult education outgrowth of his Baptist Temple ministry, Temple College was chartered in 1888. It was incorporated as Temple University in 1907.

The university's roots as a night school for ambitious young people led Temple to adopt the nocturnal owl as its mascot. In 1965, Temple became a member of Pennsylvania's Commonwealth System of Higher Education. The university and its health system play a vital role in the Philadelphia region and across the commonwealth, contributing billions to the state's economy each year. Temple's 115-acre Main Campus in Philadelphia is the site of continued renovation including the current construction of a state-of-the-art library that will span a city block.

The university's influence also extends around the globe, with longstanding campuses in Tokyo and Rome; programs in London, Beijing and many other locations; nearly 160 academic cooperations in 48 countries; and more than 324,000 alumni worldwide.

Temple's official motto -- Perseverantia Vincit, or Perseverance Conquers -- reflects its community's drive to make a difference and turn opportunities into accomplishments.

SINCE 2014, TEMPLE FOOTBALL HAS...

- Beaten an SEC team (Vanderbilt) for the first time in 76 years (Florida in 1938).
- Posted the largest margin of victory in 40 seasons – a 59-0 shutout over Delaware State.
- Beaten a ranked team at home for the first time ever (#21 ECU in 2014 and #21 Memphis in 2015) and just the third and fourth times ever beating a ranked team. Previous time was 16 years ago.
- Beaten a ranked team in three consecutive seasons (2014-16).
- Beat Penn State for the first time in 74 years and 40 tries.
- Beat Cincinnati in 2015 for the first time in 30 years and six tries - and have now won three straight in series.
- Won three consecutive games on the road for the first time in 45 years.
- Started a season 7-0 for the first time ever.
- Became ranked in the Top 25 for the first time since 1979 (36 years).
- Won a game as a ranked team (at ECU, at SMU, vs. UConn) for the first time in 74 years.
- Had ESPN's College Gameday broadcast a Temple football game for the first time ever....from Philadelphia, no less.
- Played in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked football games – vs. Notre Dame and at Houston.
- Ranked in the Top 25 for four consecutive weeks and for seven weeks total - both for the first time ever.
- Had a national award winner - Tyler Matakevich with the Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik Award - for the first time since 1974 (when Steve Joachim won the Maxwell Award).
- Had a player earn first-team All-American honors for the first time since 1986.
- Became bowl eligible for four consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.
- Posted back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925.
- Had three shutouts in a season for the first time since 1945.
- Won 20 games in a two-year span for the first time ever.
- Posted 10 wins for only the second and third times (1979, 2015, 2016).
- Won its first Conference Championship since 1967 and its first Conference Championship Game ever.
- Earned a bowl bid for three straight years for the first time in school history.
- Had a player (Isaiah Wright) return a kickoff and punt for a TD in the same season (has not happened for Temple dating back to 2000. He also rushed, caught and threw for a score becoming just the sixth player in 10 years to score those five separate ways.

During the 2018 Cherry & White Spring game, head coach Geoff Collins allowed his players to adorn the back of their jerseys with their Twitter handles. Those players with a GPA of 3.0-or-higher were given the chance to promote themselves by wearing their personalized jerseys. The promotion took on a life of its own as the Owls' spring game was trending on Twitter all weekend.

"He embodies the 'Temple TUFF' characteristic. He is a guy who has resiliency, continues to work, takes nothing for granted, and complains about nothing. He had a long-term goal to be a contributor. That was far-fetched in the preseason, far-fetched at times early in the season, but he has continued to work. He has made himself valuable on special teams and now at linebacker." - LB coach Andrew Thacker, 11/14/17

"We have given a scholarship to Nitro, it is a special moment, he is a special kid who plays fullback and running back and starts on two of our special teams. The special thing about Nitro, since [Ryquell Armstead] has been banged up most of the season there are weeks Rock hasn't been able to practice and Nitro has had to take a ton of the reps, and somehow Rock finds a way to get in on game days, which is great how unselfish [Ritrovato is] and ready to do anything for the team which is special. He also has a 3.7 grade point average." - HC Geoff Collins, 10/31/17

Personal: Born Isaiah Deshai Wright in Waterbury, Conn. ... parents are Nina Wright and Randy Smith ... has a brother Elijah (15) ... university studies major.

"Even though he is highly productive, makes a lot of plays for us — everybody recognizes him for the special plays he makes all year — but it is his work ethic, what he does every day in practice. We wear a catapult system, which measures the kids' effort, the distance traveled, their workload, their top speed, the number of times they hit their top speed every single day in practice. Since preseason camp, he has been one of the top three in every single category on a daily basis, so the kid who is going to wear #1 for us this week is Isaiah Wright." - HC Geoff Collins, 10/10/17

MINISTER OF MAYHEM

Geoff Collins accepted the head coaching position at Temple University on December 14, 2016, becoming the 27th head football coach in Owls' history. Armed with 23 years of coaching experience, Collins has proven to be a driven leader who is not bashful about the word love. He has demonstrated a love for his players and they have reciprocated that passion in their actions and words.

"I could not speak more highly of Coach Collins," said Houston Texans' LB Benardrick McKinney who played for Collins at Mississippi State. "He has done so much for shaping the player I am today. He coached aggressively with a tremendous amount of energy and fun. He loved his players. Coach Collins would do anything for us, on and off the field. Not only did he train us to be the best defensive players we could be on the field, but also the best men we would be off the field."

Collins' creative spirit has paid dividends on and off the field. Whether devising original game-plans, creating new methods to teach, or splashy ways to pursue recruits, Collins' ideas are mimicked throughout college football.

While Collins has gained notoriety for being innovative and energetic, his accomplishments in his first year as head coach can not be overlooked. Despite a roster that needed to start 42 different players due to injuries and youth, he led the Owls to bowl eligibility for the fourth consecutive season and seventh time in nine years.

Collins navigated through a midseason quarterback change that was brought on by injury but was kept based on performance. The old football adage is that you do not lose your job to injury, but when Logan Marchi went down with a foot injury and was replaced by "Frankie Juice" Nutile, the latter provided a spark to the offense. Collins saw fit to keep Nutile under center and the redshirt junior led the Owls to four wins in their last five games and the third bowl win in school history.

The defense took on Collins' identity and ranked among the conference leaders in yards per game (391.8 - 2nd), passing yards per game (210.0 - 1st), third down percentage (39.3 - 2nd), sacks (32 - 2nd), and tackles for loss (92 - 2nd).

For his performance, Collins was named ECAC Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Temple he had been widely recognized as the top defensive coordinator in college football and is the only coach to be a Broyles Award nominee, given to the nation's best assistant coach, at three schools [FIU (2010), MSU (2014) and Florida (2015)].

"The excitement over Temple football has been growing for years, and Geoff is going to ensure that Temple's reputation for quality on the field and in the classroom is going to continue," said President Richard M. Englert. "Our student-athletes are great representatives of this university and make me proud every time I see them play."

"Geoff Collins is an extraordinary leader, and it's clear he is the right person to take an already successful program and advance it to the next level," added the University's Board of Trustees Chairman Patrick J. O'Connor. "We are thrilled to have him join the Temple University community."

Collins is an alumnus of Western Carolina University, where he played defensive back and linebacker. Collins has coached all over, beginning at his alma mater, and most recently working in the SEC at both Florida, where he helped the Gators to back-to-back SEC East Division Titles, and Mississippi State in the role of defensive coordinator. Over the course of his career, Collins has helped guide 31 of his student-athletes to careers in the National Football League.

“As soon as I met with Geoff I knew right away that this was the right coach at the right time for Temple University,” said Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick M. Kraft. “Well beyond Geoff’s acumen as a coach of hard, physical football, he shares our values of embracing the student-athlete and demanding excellence in all that we do.”

Collins first began at Florida in 2015, hired by Jim McElwain to be on his initial staff. Collins’ opportunity to serve as defensive coordinator at Florida was his second defensive coordinator job in the SEC, as he held the same title at Mississippi State for two seasons.

The Florida defense was relentless under the guidance of Collins, finishing the season ranked eighth nationally in 2015. His Gators’ defense was also ranked third in the SEC during that time, only allowing 310.2 yards per game. Collins’ defense also set a number of other records during his time in Gainesville, including being one of only seven FBS teams in the last 20 years to not allow a touchdown against three FBS Power 5 schools on the road, in a single season.

In the 2015 season alone, Collins helped prepare three players who eventually earned first-team All-SEC honors, including CB

NFL LEGACY

“MOST INNOVATIVE COACH IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL”

Jalen “Teez” Tabor, DL Jon Bullard, and CB Vernon Hargreaves. Hargreaves was also a consensus first team All-American in 2015. In total, five of Collins’ defensive players were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft; two first round selections (CB Vernon Hargreaves and S Keanu Neal) along with DT Jonathan Bullard (3rd), LB Antonio Morrison (4th), and DE Alex McCalister (7th), along with Brian Poole who started for the Falcons in the Super Bowl after joining Atlanta as a rookie free agent.

The Florida team capitalized on the success of its defense in 2016, finishing 8-4 on the year and earning its second straight SEC East Division Title. The unit finished among the nation’s best in multiple categories - first in pass efficiency (92.87), second in pass defense (148.5), third in defensive scores (5), fourth in red zone defense (71.8), fifth in total defense (293.0), sixth in scoring defense (16.8 ppg), and seventh in first downs allowed (206). Collins also helped three of his players earn All-SEC selections in the 2016 season. Florida's defensive unit developed seven more draft picks in 2017, including four in the first two rounds.

Prior to his time at Florida, Collins was a member of the coaching staff at Mississippi State. Originally hired to serve as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator for the 2011 season, Collins was promoted to the position of defensive coordinator in 2013.

Mississippi State had tremendous success while he was on the coaching staff, most notably the 2014 season, when the Bulldogs when they were ranked #1 in the country for most of the season and finished with a 10-3 record. This 10-win season was the best finish at the school in 15 years, and concluded with a berth in the Orange Bowl. Collins’ defense was dominant that season, producing the most sacks in the SEC (37), as well as the #1 ranked red zone defense and ninth ranked scoring defense in the country.
The season prior, Mississippi State went 7-6 and defeated Rice in the Liberty Bowl, 44-7. Collins’ unit was one of the best in the SEC. In his first season as full-time defensive coordinator, his defense ranked among the SEC’s top five in a number of categories, including fourth in total defense (349.3 yards per game), fourth in rushing defense (144.2 yards per game) and fifth in passing defense (205.2 yards per game). He also held his last three opponents during the 2013 season to just 11.3 points per game.

In 2012, the Bulldogs finished the year 8-5 and made an appearance in the Gator Bowl. That year, Collins tutored DB Darius Slay, a second team All-SEC selection. Along with Slay, who was picked in the second round of the NFL Draft, Collins helped prepare a number of other Mississippi State players for careers in the NFL, including Jim Thorpe Award winner CB Jonathan Banks (2nd round), CB Will Redmond (3rd round), and DT Josh Boyd (5th round).

During his first season on the staff, Mississippi State finished the season 7-6 as the Bulldogs went to the Music City Bowl, defeating Wake Forest, 25-17. In Collins’ first season as a co-defensive coordinator for the Bulldogs, he helped mentor DT Fletcher Cox, a first team All-American and first team All-SEC selection in 2011. Cox was selected 12th overall in the first round of the NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, and earned All-Pro honors in 2014 and 2015.

Collins’ ability to mold a defense was evident well prior to his time in Mississippi State and Florida. Before coaching in the SEC, he sharpened his teeth as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International University in 2010. During that season, his defense was ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference in total defense, scoring defense, pass defense efficiency, and turnover margin. This, off of the prior year when the team was ranked 119th in total defense nationally. This dramatic turnaround led Collins to be named a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2010, an award for the top assistant in college football.

Before joining the staff at FIU, Collins was a linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach George O’Leary at UCF for two seasons. In 2009, he was part of a staff the led the Knights to an 8-5 record and a berth in the St. Petersburg Bowl. Even though UCF did not make a bowl game in 2008, he had the defense ranked second in Conference USA in total and scoring defense.

GEOFF COLLINS

Collins also spent some time working at both the University of Alabama and Georgia Tech. In 2007, he worked at Alabama as the director of player personnel under head coach Nick Saban and had the #1 recruiting class in the country. That class included Mark Ingram Jr., the 2008 Heisman Trophy winner and the first-ever by an Alabama player. He spent the 2006 season at Georgia Tech as director of player personnel. Georgia Tech secured their best recruiting class in team history that year as well.

Between the years of 2002 and 2005, Collins was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Western Carolina. Collins' defense was continually ranked near the top nationally at the FCS level while under his guidance. In 2005, the team was ranked first nationally in pass defense and 18th in total defense. The team also led the So-Con conference in rushing defense for the first time in program history in that season.

From 1999-2000, Collins served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech under O'Leary. During that time, the Yellow Jackets had a 25-12 record, including reaching three consecutive bowl games. In Collins' last season at Georgia Tech he was promoted to tight ends coach under current Houston Texans' head coach Bill O'Brien and the Yellow Jackets defeated the Stanford Cardinal in the 2001 Seattle Bowl, 25-12.

Collins got his chance at being a defensive coordinator at Albright College from 1997-1998. Before that, he was a linebackers coach for the Fordham Rams for the 1996 season. In 1995, he was an assistant coach for Franklin High School in North Carolina. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Carolina University, contributing as a student assistant during the 1993 and 1994 seasons.

Collins played college football at WCU as an outside linebacker and defensive back from 1989-1992. He totaled 194 career tackles during his four year career with the Catamounts. As a junior, he was the team's fifth-leading tackler (68), while registering 6.0 tackles-for-loss. As a senior, he helped Western Carolina to a 7-4 record, totaling 62 total tackles and 5.0 tackles-for-loss.

The Conyers, Ga., native was born April 10, 1971. He and his wife, Jennifer (formerly Haynes), have one daughter, Astrid (two).

Assistant Head Coach-Offense / Special Teams Coordinator / Tight Ends | Bucknell '89

Ed Foley is in his 11th season at Temple where he is the assistant head coach offense / special teams coordinator / tight ends coach. He was promoted to assistant head coach in 2018 but continues to lead the tight ends and special teams units.

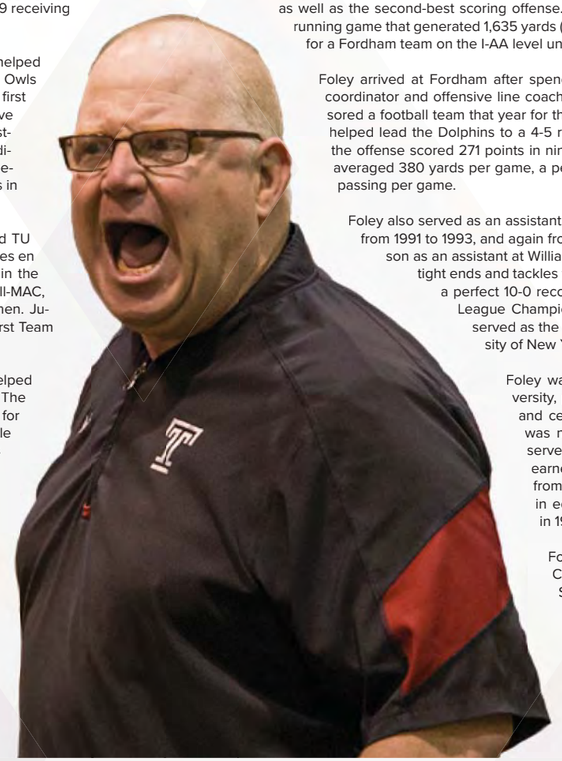
The longest tenured member of the staff, Foley has had numerous roles with the Owls including interim head coach for the 2016 Military Bowl presented by Northrup Grumman. He was one of two coaches retained by Geoff Collins making Collins the fourth Owls' head coach that Foley has worked under.

Special teams continued to build on its success in his third year at the helm. Since 2013, the Owls are tied for the most blocked kicks in the nation while Sharif Finch was the NCAA leader in career blocked kicks among active players with five before graduating.

In 2016, Foley helped mentor freshman kicker Aaron Boumerhi to second-team all-conference honors after being substituted for Austin Jones when he went down with an ACL injury at Memphis. With a combined 21-of-25 on the season for Jones and Boumerhi, Temple's kickers ranked at the top of the conference in FG percentage. Also, as a tight end coach, he helped Colin Thompson earn honorable mention all-conference.

In 2015, he made an immediate impact on special teams in his first year as the coordinator. Temple blocked an NCAA leading seven kicks, Jahad Thomas tied a team record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, and Austin Jones set the school record for field goals made (23) and points by a kicker (113).

In 2013, Foley helped develop former QB Chris Coyer into a tight end. That progress was hindered due to nagging injuries but Coyer closed out his senior campaign with 129 receiving yards and a TD in the season finale.



In 2010, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped Temple to its most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly touted recruiting class with Al Golden being the head coach.

A native of Cherry Hill, NJ, Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending two seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach from 2004-05. After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members on the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense, setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie (18) and Luke (11), and a daughter Sara (9). His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

Assistant Head Coach-Defense / Defensive Line / Run Game Coordinator | Maryland '93

Jim Panagos entered his first season at Temple University in 2017 as the defensive line coach under head coach Geoff Collins. He was promoted to assistant head coach-defense and added the title of run game coordinator in February, 2018.

Panagos inherited a unit that lost Haason Reddick to the Arizona Cardinals with the 13th overall selection, along with two others, Avery Ellis and Praise Martin-Oguike, who went on to the professional level. He took the remaining parts and created an 11-man rotation that helped the Owls to 32 sacks and 92 tackles for loss. In back-to-back weeks, the defense held Army and Navy, at the time the #2 and #1 rushing units, respectively, to nearly half of their average rushing yards.

His leadership helped two seniors, Sharif Finch (55 tackles, 15.5 TFLs, 8.5 sacks, 1 FF, 1 FR) and Jacob Martin (44 tackles, 11.0 TFLs, 8.0 sacks, 2 FF, 2 FR), to their best seasons, earning Panagos a nomination for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's best assistant coach.

Prior to joining Temple, Panagos gained over 10 years of experience in coaching defensive lines, first serving at UCF for five years (2007-2011) and then Rutgers for four years (2012-2015), and one year at Pittsburgh (2016).

At Rutgers in 2012, Panagos made an immediate impact on the Scarlet Knights as the defensive unit finished fourth in the nation in scoring defense (14.15 points allowed/game) and 10th in total defense. The defensive line played a huge part in the scheme by cumulating 7.3 tackles-for-loss (16th ranked in the country) and holding opponents to 97.2 rushing yards per game (sixth). He also tutored DT Scott Vallone, who had a career-high 52 tackles and first-team All-Big East honors.

Then in 2014, Panagos steered DT Darius Hamilton and DE Kemoko Turay to all-conference honors during the Knights transition from the Big East to the Big Ten. Hamilton led the defense with 11.5 tackles-for-loss, including a career-best six sacks. Turay picked up a team-high 7.5 sacks, ranking eighth among Big Ten players.

Prior to Rutgers, he spent five years with the UCF. There he helped the program to three bowl appearances, including a 10-6 victory over Georgia in the 2010 Liberty Bowl where the Knights were ranked 24th in the country.
His front four created havoc for QB Aaron Murray, forcing him into two interceptions, to go along with three sacks.

In his first season, the defense recorded 39 sacks (15th in the country). During the 2009 season, the defense erupted for 38 sacks (7th in the country), held opposing offenses to 82.5 rushing YPG (3rd in the nation) and finished 11th in the nation in TFLs.

FootballScoop.com named Panagos its National Defensive Line Coach of the Year in 2009. Bruce Miller (13) and Jarvis Geathers (11) both hit double-digits in sacks while tackle Torell Troup was a second round selection in the NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Miller earned conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2009 and again in 2010. Miller would eventually be drafted by the San Francisco 49ers after leading the Knights in TFLs and sacks in three seasons under Panagos guidance (2008-10).

Before hitting the Division I football landscape, Panagos spent four seasons in the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings. First as an offensive and defensive quality control assistant from 2002-03 before earning the role of assistant defensive line and special team coach during the 2004-05 season.

The Brooklyn native played defensive line at the University of Maryland and became a two-year letterman where he led the Terrapins with five sacks and 12 TFLs in his final season. There he graduated with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1993.

He remained at his alma mater for a year as a defensive assistant and eventually left to assume an assistant coaching job at C.R. James Alternative School in Tampa, Fla, where he also taught mathematics.

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks | Central Connecticut State '90

Dave Patenaude, who spent the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for Coastal Carolina, began the same role for the Owls on head coach Geoff Collins' new coaching staff in 2017.

In 2017, he was tasked with having to replace Phillip Walker, the school's all-time leading passer. Redshirt sophomore Logan Marchi earned the starting role and held the position down for seven weeks before being sidelined by injury. In stepped redshirt junior Frank Nutile who provided a spark and led the Owls to a 4-2 record, including a Gasparilla Bowl victory, down the stretch. Despite having two different starters, Temple passed for 3,273 yards, the second best total in school history.

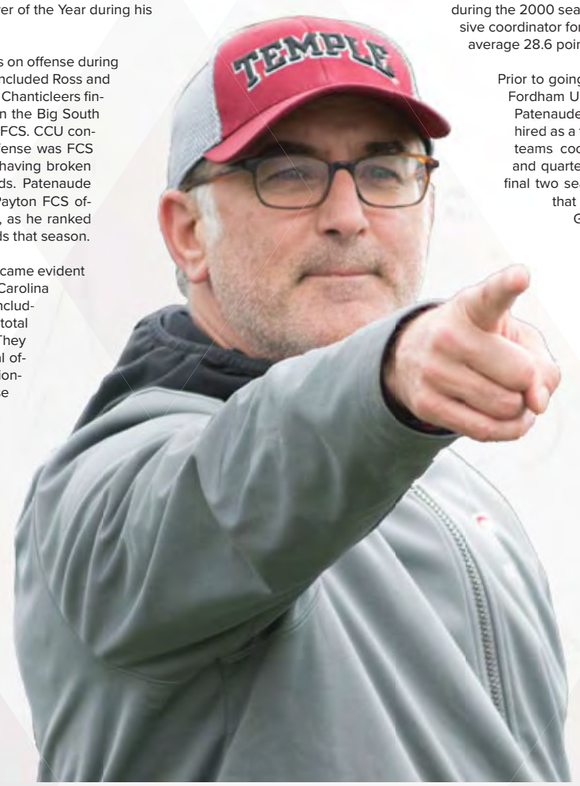
In 2016, Patenaude propelled the Chanticleers to a 10-2 record for their third 10-win season in the past five years. The offense averaged 37.3 PPG while finishing in the FCS top five for multiple offensive categories. That season, Patenaude mentored two All-Americans including De'Angelo Henderson, who left Coastal Carolina as the all-time leader in eight different rushing categories and was a finalist for the Walter Payton FCS offensive player of the year twice.

From 2013-15, Patenaude tutored quarterback Alex Ross, who became the most decorated quarterback in Coastal Carolina history. At the conclusion of his career, Ross became the first quarterback to be a three-time first team Big South selection and win the conference's offensive player of the year twice. Ross broke almost every single passing and total offensive record for the Chanticleer, while breaking multiple conference records as well. He set Big South career marks for total offense, touchdowns responsible for, and most rushing touchdowns by a quarterback. He was a 2015 finalist for the Walter Payton FCS Offensive Player of the Year during his senior season.

Coastal Carolina had seven All Big South players on offense during the 2014 season and two All-Americans, which included Ross and offensive lineman Chad Hamilton. That year, the Chanticleers finished first in nine different offense categories in the Big South and had the 13th highest scoring offense in the FCS. CCU continued building from its 2013 season as the offense was FCS top five in five different categories along with having broken 25 of the school's single-season offensive records. Patenaude also produced another finalist for the Walter Payton FCS offensive player of the year in Lorenzo Taliaferro, as he ranked third in the FCS in rushing touchdowns and yards that season.

Patenaude's ability to run an efficient offense became evident in his first season with CCU. In 2012, Coastal Carolina came close to breaking many program highs including rushing for 2,590 yards -- then second-best total in program history and passing for 3,101 yards. They posted a then school-record 5,691 yards of total offense, ranking first in the Big South and 18th nationally with an average of 437.8 yards of total offense per game.

Prior to CCU, Patenaude spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Georgetown. In 2011, the Hoyas went 8-3, which was a four-game improvement over the previous year, and ended up being a runner-up in the Patriot League behind Lehigh. In his first year at Georgetown, Patenaude helped the Hoyas achieve one of the team's most productive offense seasons in the previous decade with 3,230 yards.



Patenaude arrived at Georgetown after spending three years on Hofstra's coaching staff. When he initially joined the Pride, Patenaude served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator during the 2007 season under current Temple coach Ed Foley, who was offensive coordinator at the time. The following season, Patenaude was promoted to offensive coordinator and stayed in that role from 2008-09, until the program shut down. During the 2008, the Pride ranked top five in the conference for rushing and was ranked seventh in total offense. In 2007, he mentored senior Brian Savage (Houston Texans' QB Tom Savage's brother) to fourth in the conference and 15th in the FCS in total offensive yards.

For three years, Patenaude served as a part of Holy Cross coaching staff. During the 2004-05 season, he was the team's running back coach and tutored RB Steve Silva, who was a two time All-American RB during those years and led the nation in all-purpose yards during the 2005 season. The 2006 season saw Patenaude switch to wide receivers coach and he added special team's coordinator to his decorated resume.

Patenaude served as the head coach of the University of New Haven during the 2002-03 season before the program was dropped. During his time there, he led the Chargers to five wins and helped mentor OL Phil Bogle to reach the NFL, the school's first player to go pro since 1996.

Prior to reaching a head coaching position, Patenaude spent four years on Columbia's coaching staff. He served as the wide receivers coach from 1998-2000 and added coaching the quarterbacks during the 2000 season. In 2001, he was promoted to offensive coordinator for the Lions, where he helped the offense average 28.6 points over its last four games.

Prior to going to Columbia, he spent four seasons at Fordham University. During his time with the Rams, Patenaude served many different roles as he was hired as a tight ends coach (1994), became special teams coordinator and wide receivers (1995-97) and quarterback coach as an extra role during his final two seasons (1996-97). It was during this time that he first worked with Temple head coach Geoff Collins.

Patenaude began his collegiate coaching career in 1991 as running backs coach at the United States Coast Guard Academy. After one season at the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn., he moved on to Springfield (Mass.) College, where he served as wide receivers and running backs coach in 1992 and 1993. While at Springfield, he completed a master's degree in physical education and sports management.

A 1990 graduate of Central Connecticut State University, Patenaude was a three-year starting quarterback and free safety for the Blue Devils. He and his wife, Christine, have two daughters, Eva (15) and Estelle (9).

Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers | Furman '07

Andrew Thacker was named Temple's linebacker coach in January 2017. He was promoted to the role of defensive coordinator / linebackers a year later.

In 2017, he inherited a unit that graduated all three starters from the previous year. He groomed three sophomores - Shaun Bradley, Chapelle Russell, and Sam Franklin - and one redshirt freshman - Isaiah Graham-Mobley - into a fast, ball-hungry group.

Following the 2017 regular season, Thacker was tabbed for the American Football Coaches Foundation annual 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute. The program is "aimed at identifying and developing premier, future leaders in the football coaching profession."

Thacker came from Kennesaw State, were he served as a linebackers coach during the 2016 season. He helped guide the team to an 8-3 record, which was the program's best in their short history. That season, linebackers Anthony Gore and Izzy Sam led the Owls in tackles and were both second-team All-Big South selections. He was also a big part of a defense that ranked first in Big South in scoring (27.1) and rushing defense (130.3) and second in total defense (321.8).

Prior to Kennesaw State, Thacker was the safeties coach at UCF in 2015, returning to the Knights' program after previously serving as a defensive graduate assistant from 2008-09. While coaching the safeties, Thacker was also responsible for recruiting the Northern Florida area.

Thacker returned to the Knights following one season as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons. In 2014, he helped Atlanta rank 12th in the NFL in interceptions and assisted LB Paul Worrilow to pick up 142 tackles, which ranked fifth in the league that year. In 2013, Thacker was the safeties coach at the University of Southern Mississippi. During that season, three of his safeties were top five on the team in tackles, including DeBarriaus Miller who led the team with 92 tackles.

He previously served as the defensive graduate assistant from 2010-12 at Oklahoma State where he was mainly responsible for the linebackers. The Cowboys went 11-2 in 2010 and defeated Arizona in the Alamo Bowl. The 2011 season followed with more success, as they were the Big 12 Champions finishing with a 12-1 record and No. 3 final AP ranking after a win over Stanford in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In 2012, Oklahoma State was 8-5 including a win over Purdue in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. He helped OSU's linebackers Caleb Lavey and Shaun Lewis achieve All-Big 12 honorable mention status in 2012.

While Thacker was a graduate assistant at UCF, he worked closely with current Temple head coach Geoff Collins who was the Knights' linebackers coach from 2008-09. In 2008, the Knights' defense allowed just 333.8 yards per game, led by All-Conference USA first team defensive backs Sha'reff Rashad and Joe Burnett. UCF recorded an 8-5 record in 2009 that included an appearance in the St. Petersburg Bowl. Defensive end Bruce Miller claimed the C-USA Defensive Player of the Year award, and he was joined by defensive mates Jarvis Geathers and Cory Hogue on the all-league first team.

Thacker played at Furman from (2004-07) where he started at safety for the Paladins. He was the 2004 Southern Conference Freshman of the Year and the 35-15 during Thackers four year career, including making three NCAA FCS Playoff appearances.

The Cartersville, Ga., native received his bachelor's degree from Furman in political science and Spanish in 2007. He is married to the former Liza Calhoun and the couple have a daughter, Caroline Brooks, and a son, Bear.

CHRIS WIESEHAN

TWITTER: @CoachWiesehan

Chris Wiesehan (pronounced WEEZ-uh-han) enters his fifth season with the Owls and second consecutive with the offensive line / run game coordinator. During his 24-year coaching career, Wiesehan has coached four of the five offensive positions producing NFL draft picks at each spot along the way. In his four seasons at Temple, he has sent eight players to the NFL, including 2017 second round pick, Dion Dawkins.

In 2017, Wiesehan returned to coach the offensive line in a season that tested the depth and development of the unit. In all, Wiesehan started 10 different players and used five different line combinations. At Army in week 8, the unit featured four players making their first career start, not to mention QB Frank Nutile also making his starting debut, and the Owls rushed for 217 yards. The success resulted in two players signing NFL free agent contracts – Cole Boozer (Buccaneers) and Leon Johnson (Broncos) – and Brian Carter earning second team all-conference honors.

During the 2016 season, Wiesehan helped develop the running back duo of second-team all-conference selection Jahad Thomas and sophomore Ryquell Armstead. The two rushed for a combined 1,836 yards while scoring 27 rushing TDs. They were the only pair of RBs in the nation to each rush for 900+ yards and 13 TDs that season.

The 2015 offensive unit for the Owls had three All-American Athletic Conference players in Kyle Friend, Eric Lofton, and Dion Dawkins. The O-line paved the way for running back Jahad Thomas, also an all-conference selection, to rush for over 1,000 yards and 17 touchdowns that year.

In his first season at Temple, Wiesehan oversaw an offensive line that cut its sack total by over 33% from the previous year. The line allowed just 21 sacks (down from 32) which was the third lowest total in 29 seasons. In fact, Temple quarterbacks were sacked just once every 19.2 pass attempts - the best mark in school history. The line performed admirably considering a mid-season stretch of six games with six different line combinations.

Wiesehan's methods seemed to impact junior center Kyle Friend the most. Working with his third position coach in as many seasons, Friend earned recognition on every all-conference list as well as the Rimington Watch List. Friend has since spent time with the NY Jets, Pittsburgh, and Carolina in the NFL.

Wiesehan came to Philadelphia from the University of Hawaii where he began as an offensive line/run game coordinator. He helped coach freshman center Ben Clarke, who received All-Mountain West honorable mention honors and received the team's Offensive Player of the Year award. After coaching the offensive line in 2012, Wiesehan moved to running backs/run game coordinator in 2013 and produced Joey Iosefa as a draft choice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He also held the title of offensive recruiting coordinator.

Wiesehan traveled to UH after serving as wide receivers coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. In 2011, he helped Winnipeg to the Grey Cup. In his first year, he coached a group which boasted the second leading receiver in the league, Terrence Edwards, who finished with 1,372 yards and 12 touchdowns. He was named offensive coordinator following the Grey Cup.

Wiesehan spent the 2009 season at UCLA as tight ends coach. The Bruins participated in the Eagle Bank Bowl (against Temple) and tight ends Ryan Moya and Logan Paulsen signed with the Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins, respectively.

From 2007-08, Wiesehan served as the offensive line coach at Syracuse. During his tenure, the Orange had their first 1,000-yard rusher in five seasons and two of his players were either drafted or signed by NFL teams, including Ryan Durant who was an All-Big East performer and signed with the Tennessee Titans. In addition, his offensive line cut the number of sacks allowed in half during his second year.

Prior to Syracuse, Wiesehan served as the offensive line coach at James Madison in 2006. In his only season, the Dukes won the Atlantic 10 South Division and led the conference in rushing. JMU also ranked 11th nationally in rushing and qualified for NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. JMU's tackle, Corey Davis, signed as a free agent with the New York Giants.

Wiesehan gained NFL experience by working as an offensive assistant for Tampa Bay in 2005, when the Buccaneers posted an 11-5 record and were NFC South Champions. Prior to that, he coached at Northern Arizona from 2001-04, where he was the assistant head coach and spent two seasons each as wide receivers coach and offensive line coach. His top pupil was receiver Clarence Moore who was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens. At NAU, the line allowed the fewest sacks in the Big Sky while helping produce a 1,000-yard rusher, and six linemen earned all-conference honors. NAU also won the 2003 Big Sky Championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 and '03. Wiesehan was named offensive coordinator following the 2004 season but moved on to the NFL.

Wiesehan spent two seasons at Buffalo from 1999-2000, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends during his first season and offensive line in his second year. Those two seasons produced three NFL players under Wiesehan – receivers Andre Forde (Chicago) and Drew Haddad (Buffalo) and tackle David Pruce (Baltimore).

During 1997-98, he was on staff at Notre Dame as the tight ends coach where the Irish participated in the Independence Bowl and the Gator Bowl. Jabari Holloway (New England) and Dan O'Leary (Buffalo) were drafted into the NFL. He spent the 1996 season coaching the tight ends at Purdue and mentored three-time Super Bowl champion New England Patriot Matt Light.

He began his coaching career at Fort Hays State from 1994-95 as the receivers coach, where he coached two All-Americans and four all-conference players. The school won the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and participated in the Division II National Playoffs.

As a player, Wiesehan was a wide receiver and kick returner at Wabash College (1990-93). As a senior, he served as team captain and earned All-America honors while being named his team's Receiver of the Year for the third time. He still holds the national record for all-purpose yards per play.

Inducted into the Wabash Hall of Fame in 2014, Wiesehan has coached five players who have earned similar honors – Matt Light (New England Patriots HOF), Terence Edwards (Winnipeg Blue Bombers HOF), Clarence Moore (NAU HOF), Drew Haddad (University of Buffalo HOF), and Lance Schwindt (Fort Hays State HOF).

Wiesehan and his wife, Renee, have one son, Colton.

TEMPLE

OL DION DAWKINS - Was a four-year letterwinner and a team captain during his senior year. He was a pivotal part of the Owls' offensive line as he compiled 40 starts during his illustrious career. In 2015, Dawkins was given fourth-team Phil Steele All-American honors while in 2016 he was a unanimous first team all-conference selection.

OL KYLE FRIEND - The first three-time captain in school history and one of the most respected players ever to wear the Cherry and White. A starter since his freshman year, he was a staple at the center position despite having three position coaches and two head coaches in his four seasons. Friend was recognized for his on field play – first-team All-Amercian Athletic Conference, Rimington and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists.

RB JAHAD THOMAS - Three-year letterwinner and a team captain during his senior year. He was a two-time all-conference running back and scored 38 touchdowns over the last two seasons. In 2016, Thomas scored two touchdowns in nine out of his twelve games including his first six which was the longest streak in the nation last season and the longest streak in Owls' history. He left Temple third all-time in touchdowns (39), third in rushing touchdowns (30), sixth in rushing yards (2,599), and third in all-purpose yards (4,744).

HAWAII

RB JOE IOSEFA - Averaged better than 100 rushing yards per game, finishing the year with eight touchdowns.

UCLA

OL NATE CHANDLER – Multi-position player who began his college career at offensive line and was moved to tight end, but spent the majority of his career on the defensive line and finished with 38 tackles, two sacks and two pass deflections. Signed by Carolina Panthers as a free agent in 2012.

TE CORY HARKEY – Played every game of his college career, totaling 213 yards on 28 receptions at tight end. Awarded Jerry Long "Heart" Award and Kenneth S. Washington Award for Outstanding Senior of the Year. Signed as a free agent by St. Louis in 2012.

TE RYAN MOYA - UCLA's outstanding senior in 2009. Placed on the 2009 John Mackey Award Watch List. Finished career as #3 UCLA all-time TE.

TE LOGAN PAULSEN - Teamed with Ryan Moya to form a dynamic duo at TE. A late bloomer who was signed by the Redskins and is a 5-year NFL veteran.

JAMES MADISON

OL DORIAN BROOKS – Started all 38 games in his last three seasons after transitioning from D-line to O-line. Second-team All-CAA and all-state. Signed as a free agent with Pittsburgh in 2010 and was a member of the Super Bowl XLV team.

NORTHERN ARIZONA

WR CLARENCE MOORE - Two-time first team All-Big Sky selection (2002 and 2003) and NAU's career receiving yards leader with 3,042 yards. Ranked 11th in Big Sky history, and one of 13 players ever in the Big Sky to top 3,000 career receiving yards. His 28 receptions for touchdowns rank #1 in NAU history and 10th all-time in conference history. Caught 182 passes for NAU, third all-time in Lumberjack history.

BUFFALO

WR DREW HADDAD – Holds school career record for receptions (240) and receiving yards (3,409) and single-season records in yards (1,158) and catches (85). Drafted in the 7th round of the 2000 draft by Buffalo Bills and also played with Indianapolis, San Diego, and Frankfurt Galaxy (NFL Europe).

WR ANDRE FORDE – Four-year letterwinner amassing 1,775 yards and 13 touchdowns on 125 receptions. Spent time with Chicago, Indianapolis, and Amsterdam Admirals (NFL Europe), as well as two seasons with Tulsa Talons (AFL).

NOTRE DAME

OL LUKE PETITGOUT – Drafted in the first round (19th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. Spent eight years with the Giants and one season with Tampa Bay.

OL MIKE ROSENTHAL – A Walter Camp Foundation All-American. Fifth-round draft pick in the 1999 draft by the Giants, which launched an eight-year playing career.

TE JABARI HOLLOWAY – Drafted in the fourth round of the 2001 NFL Draft by New England, where he won one Super Bowl (2001); also played for Houston.

PURDUE

Defensive Backs | Georgia Tech '05

Nathan Burton joined Temple head coach Geoff Collins' staff in February, 2018, as defensive backs coach. Burton and Collins were reunited after initially becoming connected in 2000 when Collins was a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech and Burton was a freshman walk-on.

Burton came to Philadelphia after one season at NC State. He joined the Wolfpack staff in 2017 as the quality control assistant for the defense.

Prior to his time at NC State, Burton served as the defensive coordinator at West Alabama for three seasons. In 2016 at UWA, he coached first-team All-Gulf South Conference BANDIT Darius Ellis, while punt returner Donta Armstrong, through Burton's punt return schemes, was a Harlon Hill Award finalist, averaging 17.1 yards per return. In 2015, the Tigers led the GSC in rushing defense, ranked No. 17 nationally (Div. II) in third-down defense and No. 32 in tackles-for-loss. Burton mentored 2015 first-team All-Americans Quinton Harton (LB) and Jared Washington (DL) when that duo won first-team All-GSC honors. His 2014 squad led the GSC in total defense, pass defense, and interceptions, while LB Fred Barnes was a first-team all-conference performer and Dee Virgin landed with the Houston Texans.

Prior to his stint at UWA, Burton served as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Shorter University in 2012-13. In 2012, the Shorter defense ranked second in the GSC in total defense, allowing 336.0 yards per game while recording 26 sacks and 79 tackles for loss.

Over his two seasons with the program, the Hawks averaged 18.5 sacks and 70 tackles for loss per season. LB Demery Hawkins was named to the 2012 All-NCCAA squad after tallying a Shorter school-record 18 tackles for loss, while Laynce Sanders, a true freshman, broke the school's single-season sack record with 8.5. In 2012, he helped guide Shorter to a 6-5 record during the transitional Division II year.

In two years as a linebackers and secondary coach at Tennessee-Martin, Burton helped direct a Skyhawk defense that led the Ohio Valley Conference in total defense in 2010 and was second in 2011. UTM punt returner CJ Estelle was a 2011 All-American, posting a 17.7 yards per return average, and LB Josh Bey earned first-team All-OVC honors. He also helped the Skyhawks win their first Sgt. York Trophy in program history (best OVC team in Tennessee).

After earning his B.S. in applied biology from Georgia Tech in 2005, Burton served as a graduate assistant coach for the Yellow Jackets before joining the staff at Oklahoma State.

A native of Lilburn, Ga., Burton earned a spot on Georgia Tech's roster as a walk-on freshman and earned a scholarship. "The Admiral" went on to become a four-year letterwinner as a Yellow Jackets' safety and was named the team's Lifter of the Year in 2004.

Burton and his wife Britney have four sons: Charlie (8), Grady (5), Isaac (3) and William (16 months).

WEST ALABAMA

BANDIT DARIUS ELLIS - Named a 2016 first-team Don Hansen NCAA Division II All-American as a sophomore. That same year he led the Gulf South Conference with 18 solo TFLs. Also earned two different first-team all-region honors and first-team All-GSC.

PR DONTA ARMSTRONG - Armstrong returned punts within Burton's scheme, allowing him to have a historic all-around 2016 season. Armstrong was an All-Gulf South Conference, all-region and All-American selection that season and led UWA with 1,195 all-purpose yards. He also returned 14 punts for 17.47 yards per return and two touchdowns returned.

LB FRED BARNES - As a senior, led the team in total tackles (60), tackles for loss (11), interceptions (3), and fumble recoveries (2).
LB - QUINTON HARTON - As a junior in 2014, was second on the team in tackles and started all 11 games. As a senior, Harton reach first-team All-GSC and led the GSC in tackles with 97.

DL JARED WASHINGTON - Earned 2015 Don Hansen NCAA Division II All-American selection, a first team Don Hansen All-Super Region Two selection, first team All-Gulf South Conference honor, and a USA Football Division II All-American team selection. He made 53 total tackles, including 12.5 for loss and fives sacks.

CB DEE VIRGIN - Played one season at West Alabama and started 11 games with three interceptions and 7 pass breakups. Parlayed that performance into a free agent contract with the Houston Texans.

SHORTER

LB DEMERY HAWKINS - Ended senior season with an All-NCAA honor, NAIA All-America Team, All-Mid-South Conference, and 2011 Mid-South Conference West Division Player of the Year honors.

DL LAYNCE SANDERS - Set a single-season team record with 8.5 sacks that also tied him for the lead in the Gulf South. He also adding 36 tackles and 12 tackles for losses in that 2012 season.

TENNESSEE-MARTIN

PR C.J. ESTELLE - Ranks among Tennessee-Martin all-time leaders in pass breakups in a season (t-7th; 10 in 2011) and most career pass breakups (t-3rd; 17). Led NCAA in interception return yards.

LB JOSH BEY - Had a career-high 127 total tackles as a senior, which led the team for the third straight year. Ended his career ranked among Tennessee-Martin all-time career leaders in total tackles (8th; 324) and sacks (t-7th; 13.0).

Quarterbacks / Inside Receivers / Recruiting Coordinator-Offense | Temple '09

DiMichele will now hold the title of quarterbacks/inside receivers/recruiting coordinator-offense. He will enter his sixth year as a part of the Owls' staff. He also served as quality control offense / recruiting assistant (2017), director of player development (2015-16), wide receiver coach (2014) and graduate assistant (2013).

In 2014, DiMichele was named wide receivers coach. As such, he became the 17th Temple football player to serve as a full-time coach and the first in over 25 seasons.

Since graduation, DiMichele has played professional football, including stints in the NFL and CFL. During the 2012 season, he played with the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

Named the 2011 Southern Indoor Football League MVP, DiMichele led the Erie Explosion to a 9-3 record en route to a division title. He led the league in passing yards per game (270.6), team points per game (70.2), and total yards per game (260.0), while completing 235-of-427 passes (55%) for over 3,200 yards and a league-best 91 touchdowns to just seven interceptions.

DiMichele has also spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles (2009), the Calgary Stampeders (2009), and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2009).

Temple's team two-time MVP and team captain in 2007 and 2008, DiMichele finished his career ranked fourth in school history with 5,024 passing yards, adding 40 passing touchdowns and five rushing scores. During his first season as the Owls' signal caller (2006), DiMichele played in all 11 games with nine starts as a sophomore. In 2007, he started the first eight games before suffering a season-ending injury. In one of Temple's biggest comebacks in school history, DiMichele threw three fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead TU to a come-from-behind win at Akron during their first season of Mid-American Conference play. In 2008, he overcame intense rehabilitation and started nine games as a senior. In the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan, DiMichele threw for a school record six touchdowns and passed for a career-high 370 yards. He broke school records for passing touchdowns in a game (six) and set a career-high for passing yards in game (370). His 370 yards marked his 10th 200-plus passing yardage games, which rank him third on the Temple's career list for 200-yard passers. It also marked his fourth 300-plus passing game, which tied the school record with Henry Burris.

DiMichele finished the 2008 season at 134-of-231 (58.0 percent) for 1,911 yards and 18 touchdowns in nine games also rushed 61 times for 91 yards and three touchdowns. His passing efficiency (148.02) ranked #19 in the final NCAA statistics.

One of the most accomplished prep athletes in the history of Pennsylvania, DiMichele was a three-sport all-state selection as a senior in football, basketball and baseball at Sto-Rox High School. The McKees Rocks, Pa., native had one of the best high school careers in the history of Pennsylvania as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer, which includes breaking records set by former NFL greats and Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Dan Marino, and Joe Namath. He earned first-team All-State honors in all three sports, and was cited as the state Player of the Year in both football and basketball.

DiMichele was inducted into the WPIAL Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the Owls, DiMichele attended Okaloosa-Walton College (FL) for two years to play baseball. He was selected in the 38th round of the 2005 Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

DiMichele received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009.

One of seven children, DiMichele's younger brother Alex played football at Temple before transferring to Robert Morris. His brother Anthony played football at Holy Cross. Both brothers were I-AA All-Americans.

Temple Football Player/Coaches

Adam DiMichele became the 17th former Temple Owl football player to also serve the team as a coach. He was the first to join this special group in 25 years (since Joe Famille in 1988)

Wide Receivers | Iowa State '79

Stan Hixon joined the Temple Owls in March 2017 as wide receivers coach. A 37-year coaching veteran with 10 seasons in the NFL where he helped both Houston and Washington reach the playoffs, he spent the 2016 season consulting at both the professional and college ranks.

Hixon is reunited with Temple head coach Geoff Collins. Hixon was the Georgia Tech wide receivers coach in 1999 while Collins was a graduate assistant. Hixon has spent many years under Bill O'Brien and Chan Gailey, two of Collins' mentors.

Hixon spent four seasons under O'Brien including two with the Houston Texans after following him from Penn State.

In 2014, Hixon coached one of the top wide receiver duos in the NFL in DeAndre Hopkins and Andre Johnson. Under Hixon, Hopkins had a breakout second season in the pros, setting career highs with 76 receptions for 1,210 yards and six touchdowns. He also managed to eclipse 2,000 yards receiving for his career and became the second-youngest player in NFL history to do so. Additionally, veteran Andre Johnson led the team with 86 receptions and had 936 yards receiving in his 12th season in the league. Johnson and Hopkins had the third-most combined yards receiving of any teammates in the AFC with 2,146 in 2014. Johnson departed in 2015 as a free agent but Hopkins continued to develop setting team records in receptions (111), receiving yards (1,521) and touchdowns (11) en route to the playoffs and his first Pro Bowl berth.

In his time at Penn State (2012-13), Hixon coached Allen Robinson to two of the most prolific seasons for a wide receiver in PSU history as Robinson set school records with 97 receptions and 1,432 yards during the 2013 season. Robinson finished his three-year career at Penn State ranked second in career receptions (177) and third in receiving yardage (2,474) despite only having three catches for 29 yards in the season prior to Hixon's arrival.

Hixon spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as wide receivers coach of the Buffalo Bills under Gailey. In 2010, he helped Stevie Johnson breakout on the NFL scene, posting career highs and leading the Bills in receptions (82), receiving yards (1,073), and touchdowns (10) and was only the fourth wide receiver to post 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns in a season in team history.

From 2004-09 Hixon was with the Washington Redskins where he guided a veteran unit, led by Santana Moss and Antwaan Randle El. Under Hixon's tutelage in 2008, WR Moss had 79 receptions for 1,044 yards and six touchdowns. This marked the third 1,000-yard receiving season of Moss's career, and his second with 75 or more catches. Additionally in 2008, Randle El recorded 53 receptions for 593 yards and four touchdowns. Hixon guided Moss to a breakout season in 2005 that ended with his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Moss set a new Redskins' franchise record with 1,483 receiving yards on the season finishing second in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Hixon coached four years at LSU (2000-03), where he coached eight players at the college level that went on to careers in the NFL. He served as associate head coach in addition to wide receivers coach and was part of the Tigers' 2003 NCAA National Championship team. Under Hixon's guidance, three Tigers had 1,000-yard receiving seasons and he had a player named All-SEC three times.

In 2001, Hixon coached Josh Reed to one of the most dominating seasons ever by a receiver in SEC history. Reed caught a school-record 94 passes for an SEC-record 1,740 yards and seven touchdowns. He was named an All-American and won the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to college football's top wide receiver. Reed completed his three-year college career, two of which were coached by Hixon, with a then-SEC record 3,001 receiving yards on 167 receptions.

Prior to LSU, Hixon coached wide receivers at Georgia Tech (1995-99), developing a pair of All-ACC receivers in Kelly Campbell and Dez White. He previously coached running backs for two seasons at Wake Forest (1993-94).

Hixon served as wide receivers coach at South Carolina (1989-92), producing All-American Robert Brooks and Eddie Miller, and at Appalachian State (1983-88). He began his college coaching career overseeing running backs at Morehead State (1980-82).

Hixon was a standout receiver at Iowa State. He starred in the Peach Bowl in 1977 and the Hall of Fame Bowl in 1978. A native of Lakeland, Fla., he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Iowa State and earned his master's degree at Morehead State. Hixon and his wife, Rebecca, have three children - son Drew and daughters Adele and Avis - and seven grandchildren.

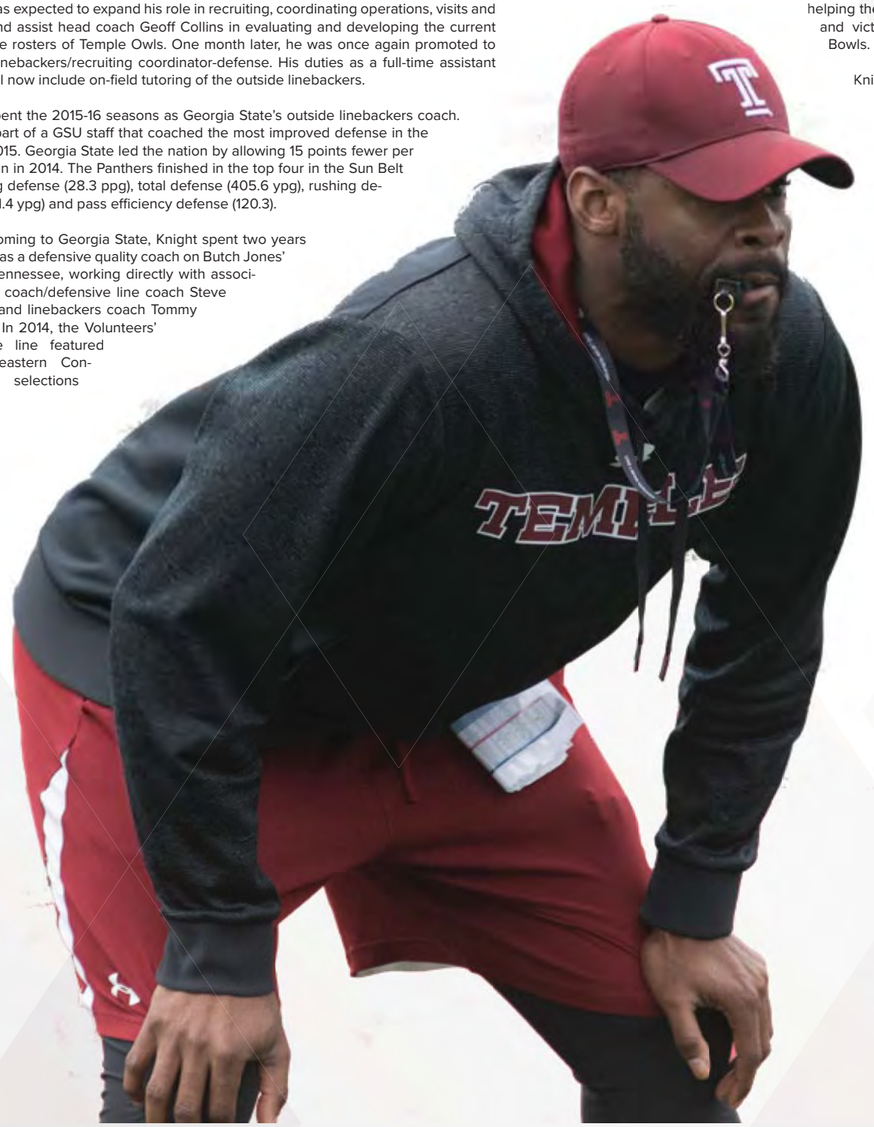
Outside Linebackers / Recruiting Coordinator-Defense | Central Michigan '10

Larry Knight joined the Temple football staff in February, 2017, as quality control for defense & recruiting. In that role he worked with the defensive staff breaking down film as well as assisted with the program's recruiting efforts.

In February, 2018, he was elevated to the position of director of player personnel. Knight was expected to expand his role in recruiting, coordinating operations, visits and camps and assist head coach Geoff Collins in evaluating and developing the current and future rosters of Temple Owls. One month later, he was once again promoted to outside linebackers/recruiting coordinator-defense. His duties as a full-time assistant coach will now include on-field tutoring of the outside linebackers.

Knight spent the 2015-16 seasons as Georgia State's outside linebackers coach. He was part of a GSU staff that coached the most improved defense in the FBS in 2015. Georgia State led the nation by allowing 15 points fewer per game than in 2014. The Panthers finished in the top four in the Sun Belt in scoring defense (28.3 ppg), total defense (405.6 ypg), rushing defense (181.4 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (120.3).

Before coming to Georgia State, Knight spent two years (2013-14) as a defensive quality coach on Butch Jones' staff at Tennessee, working directly with associate head coach/defensive line coach Steve Stripling and linebackers coach Tommy Thigpen. In 2014, the Volunteers' defensive line featured All-Southeastern Conference selections Derek Barnett and Curt Maggitt, who combined for 21 sacks, third-most by any duo in the nation.



Knight also served two seasons as a graduate assistant for Jones at Cincinnati in 2011-12, helping the Bearcats to two Big East titles and victories in the Liberty and Belk Bowls.

Knight was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter as a defensive end under Jones at Central Michigan, including all-conference honors as a senior. He participated in four bowl games, winning two, and helped CMU win three Mid-American Conference championships and a #23 ranking in 2009.

A native of Augusta, Ga., Knight earned his degree in entrepreneurship and marketing from Central Michigan in 2010.

Running Backs | Columbia '03

Lucas spent the previous four seasons (2013-16) at Delaware in the same position (2013-2016), where he turned the Blue Hens into a top-five rushing attack in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA).

In his first year at Delaware, the offense ranked fourth in the CAA in rushing, which helped the offense finish second in the conference in scoring. He mentored RB Andrew Pierce, who was named second-team All-CAA, and put on the Walter Payton Award Watch List during his senior season.

In 2014, the unit was led by the dynamic duo of Jalen Randolph and Wes Hills who kept the Blue Hens' ground game among the top five in rushing average in the CAA and sixth in total offense. The pair combined for 15 TDs and 1,603 rushing yards.

During the 2015 season, Lucas helped mentor the young running back tandem of redshirt freshman Thomas Jefferson and sophomore Kareem Williams. The two kept the Blue Hens' running game ranked second in the CAA and 17th in the NCAA (219.4 yards per game).

A balanced attack was established from the Blue Hens' rushing game in 2016, where Hills, Jefferson and Randolph each compiled over 600 yards on the ground and combined for 20 touchdowns. The trio propelled the rushing offense finish second in the CAA for the second-straight year.

Under Lucas' mentoring, Randolph became a three-time COSIDA District 2 first-team All-Academic (2014, 2015, and 2016) and three-time CAA All-Academic selection (2013, 2014, and 2015). Hills was a third-team CAA all-conference in 2016, while Jefferson earned CAA co-rookie of the year honors and was put on the CFPA FCS National Freshman Performer of the Year Watch List in 2015.

Prior to Delaware, Lucas spent two seasons (2011-12) at Georgetown University, where he was part of Temple offensive coordinator Dave Patenaude's staff. In Lucas' first season as the running backs coach, the Hoyas went 8-3 behind the second ranked rushing offense (147.5) and scoring offense (27.0) in the Patriot League. The following year, the running attack continued its stellar play, finishing as the third ranked rushing offense in the conference (146.1).

During his time with the Hoyas, Lucas guided Nick Campanella to back-to-back second-team All-Patriot League honors after he led the team in rushing in consecutive years.

Lucas started his coaching journey as a graduate assistant and outside linebackers coach at Division III Trinity College in 2008. He remained there for two seasons, while he completed his masters in economics in 2010. Later that year, he left to become the defensive quality control coach and assistant academic coordinator at Bowling Green.

The Bloomfield, Conn. native's roots stem from the Ivy league where he played defensive back for Columbia University. He majored in economics and received his bachelor's degree in 2003.

While playing at Columbia, Lucas was given the Maniatty-Remmer Unsung Hero Award. This award is given to a player whose role is not always obvious to the outside observer, but without his contributions, the team would not be as successful. The recipient is one who strives to be a leader and performs his assignments to the best of his ability without expecting or requiring any public recognition.

Lucas married his wife, Natasha, in the spring of 2018.

STAFF - GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

JOE BATTAGLIA

Graduate Assistant - Offense
Coastal Carolina '14
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachJBattaglia

Joe Battaglia was hired as a graduate assistant in January 2017. He works with the offense.

Battaglia came from Coastal Carolina where he spent the previous five seasons working as an offensive analyst with the quarterbacks and receivers under current Owls offensive coordinator Dave Patenaude. In 2016, he assisted the Chanticleers to a 10-2 record that saw 6 different quarterbacks start by the end of the season due to injury.

Battaglia helped mentor quarterback Alex Ross to All-American and National Player of the Year finalist honors while shattering numerous school and conference records. In the span of five seasons Coastal went 51-14 while being ranked first in the FCS for most of the 2015 season. Consecutive 10 win seasons ended with quarterfinal losses to perennial power North Dakota State in back-to-back seasons.

Prior to serving as an offensive analyst, Battaglia served as an undergraduate assistant with the Chanticleers the previous four seasons while also being responsible for opponent breakdowns and weekly scouting reports (2011-14).

Battaglia played at Hartwick College (NY) in 2010 before becoming injured and transferring to Coastal Carolina. The Syracuse, N.Y., native, earned his bachelor of science degree in business administration from Coastal Carolina University in 2014.

ERIC CHURCH

Graduate Assistant - Defense
Coastal Carolina '16
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @COACHE_TU

Eric Church joined the Temple football staff in March, 2018, as a defensive graduate assistant.

Church attended Coastal Carolina where he lettered for three years as a safety playing in 29 games for the Catamounts. He was an exceptional student, earning President's List (4.0 GPA) and Sun Belt Conference Commissioner's List in fall of 2016, and was a two-time Big South Presidential Honor Roll recipient (2104-15). Church graduated from CCU in December of 2016 with a degree in recreation and sport management.

Prior to joining the Catamounts, Church spent the first two years of his collegiate career playing at Kent State (2012-13). The Pennsauken, N.J., native graduated from Timber Creek High.

CODY BOOTH

Graduate Assistant - Offense
Temple '14
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Booof38

Cody Booth, a former Temple Owl, was hired as a graduate assistant in January 2017. He works with the offense.

Booth recently finished up a three year stint in the NFL, where he played with three different teams. He began his career as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Chicago Bears (2014). He then joined the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-15), and most recently the Washington Redskins. Booth was an offensive tackle during his playing career.

The Lancaster, Pa., native enjoyed a four-year playing career with the Owls from 2010-13 after joining the squad as a walk-on. He converted to offensive line his senior year after previously serving as a tight end. Booth was a four-year letterwinner and graduated in 2014 with a degree in kinesiology.

THOMAS NILES

Graduate Assistant - Defense
UCF '16
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Coach_Niles1

Thomas Niles joined the Temple football staff in February, 2018, as a defensive graduate assistant.

He held the same position last year for Georgia Southern. While with the Eagles, he mentored Logan Hunt, who was selected second-team all-conference and led the team in TFLs (11.0) and sacks (5.0) and Raymond Johnson who was honorable mention all-conference as a freshman and had 6.5 TFLs and 4.0 sacks. From 2016-17, he coached at Oviedo high school in Oviedo, Fla., where he was the defensive line coach for the football team and the head coach for the lacrosse team.

A graduate of UCF, Niles played defensive line for the Knights from 2012-15. He earned the team's Outstanding Defensive Lineman award three years in a row (2013-15), and was named All-American Athletic Conference Second Team as well as Phil Steele's Postseason All-Conference Second Team during the 2014 season.

STAFF - OPERATIONS

VINCE SINAGRA

Chief of Staff
Rhode Island '75
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachSinagra

Vince Sinagra joined the football staff in April, 2017, as Chief of Staff and is responsible for assisting head coach Geoff Collins with all aspects of the football program; working as a liaison to the equipment, training and other staffs within the university.

"I've known Coach Sinagra for over 20 years," said Collins. "I have a great amount of respect and trust in him. He is someone who means a lot to me and my family and I know the people in the Philadelphia community and at Temple University are really going to love and respect him. He will make sure things are being run exactly the way a Top 25, Championship program should be run."

Sinagra was the head coach at Anna Maria College for five seasons, after two seasons as a defensive coordinator for the Amcats. He stepped down from his post following the 2016 campaign at the Division III school in Paxton, Mass.

Prior to his time at Anna Maria, the 41-year coaching veteran had two-year stays at Stony Brook (defensive coordinator, 2004-05), VMI (defensive coordinator, 2006-07) and Norfolk State (linebackers, 2008-09).

Sinagra arrived at Stony Brook after spending five seasons at Holy Cross where he was the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. In that role, Sinagra was responsible for game and practice planning, as well as recruiting in Southern California, Southern and Central Florida, New York City and Long Island.

From 1994 to 1998, Sinagra was the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Patriot League member Fordham, where he first met Temple head coach Geoff Collins. While with the Rams, he was responsible for supervising assistant coaches and graduate assistants, recruiting and travel planning, as well as assisting with day-to-day football operations.

Sinagra also spent six seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Bloomsburg University. While at Bloomsburg, he assisted with recruiting and was as an academic advisor for the football team, while also serving as the director of summer football camp.

Sinagra earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and health from the University of Rhode Island in 1975 before completing his master's in physical education, health and recreation from the school in 1983. As an undergraduate at URI, Sinagra was a three-year starter at defensive tackle for the Rams. Following his senior season he had the opportunity to play against the Air Force All-Stars in the "Turkey Bowl" held in Frankfurt, Germany. He then had stints with the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League and the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

His first collegiate coaching job was at his alma mater, where he oversaw the defensive line from 1976-77. Sinagra went on to spend nine seasons at Milford Academy in Connecticut, serving as defensive coordinator for three seasons and head coach and athletic director for his final six years.

The Brooklyn, N.Y., native was a standout offensive and defensive tackle at New Utrecht High School receiving numerous honors including being selected to the Schoolboy All-American Team.

SCOTT WALLACE

Director of Football Operations
California (Pa.) University '11
5th Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Swallace_DFO

Scott Wallace was promoted to director of football operations in August 2015 following one year as coordinator of internal operations for Temple University's football program.

In his role he oversees all team meals and lodging both on and off campus and on the road. He is responsible for budgeting, scheduling, and building and field maintenance. He serves as liaison for the football team to internal departments such as the academic and compliance staffs.

As coordinator of internal operations he was the primary contact for all community service activities, NFL scouts, class scheduling, and team travel, three areas he will continue to oversee.

Wallace arrived at Temple from the University of Delaware where he was the assistant to the director of football operations for parts of two seasons. In that role, he had responsibilities in operations, recruiting, and travel & lodging. Wallace is credited with playing a major role in recruiting visits, maintaining a team and recruiting database, and implementing successful youth camps and a preseason training camp manual.

Prior to his time at Delaware, Wallace worked in the development department at California (PA) University from 2010-11. He also held roles with the minor league Washington Wild Things and served as an assistant high school basketball coach.

The Kennett Square, Pa., native earned a B.S. degree in sports management from California (Pa.) University in 2011. Wallace was a defensive back and quarterback for the Vulcans from 2009-11, after beginning his collegiate career at University of Massachusetts.

PAT BOYLE

Strategic Specialist - Operations
Temple '12
3rd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Pat_BoyleTU

After volunteering in the weight room in 2014, and serving as a graduate assistant from 2015-16, Pat Boyle was hired in a full-time capacity being named strategic specialist in May, 2017.

Boyle was a highly decorated member of the Owls' football team from 2008-11 and parlayed that into a brief NFL career. He was a member of the Detroit Lions from 2012-13.

At Temple, where he played alongside his twin brother Sean, Pat Boyle was an All-MAC selection as a four-time letterwinner and two-year starter on the offensive line. He was invited to play in the 2012 AstroTurf NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. Academically, he earned 2012 PNC Male Student-Athlete of the Year, the 2012 Owl Club Academic Award, and was cited on the 2012, 2011, and 2010 Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

The Towson, Md., native played at Calvert Hall College HS where he was team captain. He was named to the Maryland Varsity Dream Team and selected as an All-Star by the Baltimore Touchdown Club. He earned All-MIAA Conference accolades in the shot put where he helped the team to a conference indoor championship in 2008.

TOM PAJIC

Senior Offensive Advisor
Bloomsburg '91
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachPajic

Tom Pajic was named Temple's director of player personnel on May 3, 2017, and hit the ground running, quickly developing a strategic plan for recruiting operations. In his role, Pajic organized and supervised all recruiting efforts, worked with Collins on roster management, and oversaw all details for camps and official visits.

Under his direction, the 2018 recruiting class, the first full one under Geoff Collins, saw 25 players sign their NLI on December 20. The first time that the NCAA allowed for an early football signing period, Temple had two recruits sign at 1:00 a.m. EST (offensive linemen Oskar Andersson and Isaac Moore from Sweden) giving the Owls a jumpstart on other schools, an international flavor, and some much needed depth on the offensive line. Early reports from Scout.com graded Temple 71st in the country (up 48 spots from 2017) and fifth in the American (up from 12th a year ago).

On January 15, 2018, he was promoted to senior offensive advisor and will work with offensive coordinator Dave Patenaude assisting in all facets of the offense.

Pajic spent five seasons (2012-16) as the head coach at Quincy University, leading the program from the NAIA ranks to NCAA Division II and the Great Lakes Valley Conference. He compiled a 20-34 record at Quincy, including the Hawks' first winning season in six years when he led them to a 6-5 mark in 2015. The Hawks won five of their first seven games in 2016, including a season-opening win over FCS program Drake and Quincy's first-ever win over four-time defending GLVC champion Indianapolis.

Under Pajic, the Hawks broke 26 school records and four GLVC records, many on the offensive side of the ball as Quincy routinely boasted among the most prolific offenses in the GLVC. Pajic coached Justin Dickens and Eric Poindexter, who went on to become the two most decorated wide receivers in school history. In just three seasons, Poindexter held every receiving mark in QU's record book and had a career-high 20 receptions for 317 yards in a game in 2016.

Pajic coached 50 All-GLVC selections, including running back Chris Harris who won GLVC Freshman of the Year in 2014. Defensive end Tyler Reidl was a two-time Capital One Academic All-American under Pajic. In 2016, 70 players earned a GPA of at least 2.75, including 52 achieving a 3.0. Four players garnered perfect 4.0 GPAs and earned GLVC Council of Presidents Academic Excellence Awards under Pajic.

Under Pajic, the Hawks won the Ortwerth Team Community Service Award, given to the QU team that best represents the University in the community. The Hawks created the Big Hawk/Little Hawk reading program in local elementary schools and hosted their own annual Red Cross Blood Drive. The QU football team was also involved with the Salvation Army, Special Olympics and the Horizons Soup Kitchen & Food Pantry.

Prior to his time at Quincy, Pajic spent eight years (2004-11) as the offensive coordinator at his alma mater Bloomsburg University in Pennsylvania. During his tenure the Huskies offense was among the best in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) and ranked among the top teams in Division II. His offenses led the PSAC in scoring, total yards, rushing yards, rushing TD's, passing efficiency and red zone offense several times and were nationally ranked in the top 10 of Division II in rushing yards per game six times, including number one in 2005. During his time at Bloomsburg, the Huskies offense produced 10 All-Americans, five All-Region selections, three Harlon Hill finalists, two PSAC East Player of the Year awards, three PSAC East Rookie of the Year awards, 40 PSAC East All-Conference selections, and set 30 school and conference records.

Prior to Bloomsburg, Pajic spent four years (2000-03) as the wide receivers coach at the University of South Florida. While under his leadership 29 school records in receiving, all-purpose yards and return yards were established. He had two players earn All-American and one player named an Academic All-American.

Prior to working at USF, Pajic spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Wilkes University (1999), one season at Hofstra University (1998), four years at Fordham University (1994-97), and one year at Gettysburg College (1993).

While a player at Bloomsburg, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1991, Pajic set a school record for most receptions in a game with 17 against Lock Haven. He and his wife, Julie, have two children, Grace and Tommy.

JASON SEMORE

Senior Defensive Advisor
Adams State '05
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachJSemore

He came to Temple after three seasons at Montana. Semore served as Montana's special teams coordinator and secondary coach under head coach Bob Stitt in 2015, and became the defensive coordinator in 2016-17.

In his first season as the Grizzlies' defensive coordinator in 2016, his defense finished second in the nation in third down conversion defense, fifth in red zone defense and ninth in team tackles for loss. The 2016 Griz produced the Big Sky's top total defense, allowing teams just 349 yards per game.

In Semore's defensive setup, Montana linebacker Josh Buss finished his team defensive MVP sophomore season with the most tackles-for-loss in the league, averaging 1.82 per game for a total of 20 on the season, 15 of which were solo.

Semore joined the Grizzly football staff in December of 2014 after a one-year stint with Stitt at the Colorado School of Mines where he served as the defensive coordinator. That season the Orediggers went 10-2 overall and tied for the league title with an 8-1 record.

Prior to his position at Mines, he had a two-year stint (2012-13) as a defensive assistant at Oklahoma State University where the Cowboys were ranked among the top 25 teams in the nation in five defensive categories, including 14th in scoring defense. OSU competed in the 2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl and the 2014 Cotton Bowl, finishing 10-3 overall and ending the season ranked #17.

Prior to his time at OSU, he spent two-and-a-half years at Tulsa as an outside linebackers coach. His Golden Hurricane defensive unit led the country in interceptions and in turnover margin, also advancing to the 2010 Hawai'i Bowl and the 2011 Armed Forces Bowl.

Semore served as the co-defensive coordinator, secondary coach and special teams coordinator at his alma mater, Adams State, for three seasons.

He got his collegiate coaching start at Mines where he served as a secondary coach with the Orediggers in 2007. His first coaching berth was in 2006 when he served as the defensive coordinator for Round Valley High School in Springerville, Ariz. His defense led Arizona's Class 3A in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense.

He played linebacker at Adams State from 2001-05, and earned a degree in history, government and philosophy in 2005. He earned his masters in criminal justice administration from the University of Phoenix in 2007. He later received a masters in educational methods from Tulsa in 2012.

He has two daughters, Paityn and Palmer.

TIM CONNER

Offensive Analyst - Operations
Maryville '12
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Coach_Conner

Tim Conner joined the Temple football staff in February, 2017, as the offensive analyst/operations assistant.

He spent the previous two seasons with Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., where he coached running backs and H-backs during his first season before taking over as the Hawks' receivers coach in 2016. During his first season, the running backs and H-backs played a key role in the Hawks' USA South Athletic Conference championship. Huntingdon's ground game set a program record with 2,936 rushing yards and tied the school record with 33 rushing touchdowns. Two of Conner's backs earned All-Conference honors and five were named Academic All-Conference.

Before Huntingdon, Conner spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Marietta (Ohio) College. He coached receivers and was the assistant recruiting coordinator in 2014 and coached the running backs and fullbacks in 2013.

Before Marietta, Conner spent one season as the running backs and fullbacks coach at Centre College in Danville, Kent. Conner was the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Tavares (Fla.) High School in the winter and spring of 2012.

A graduate of Maryville in Knoxville, Tenn., Conner played quarterback for the Scots and earned his bachelors degree in physical education. Conner was a team captain as a senior and ranked in the top six in six of Maryville's passing categories when he graduated.

REGGIE GARRETT

Director of Player Personnel
Norfolk State '12
3rd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachG_18

Reggie Garrett joined Temple in January, 2016, as a graduate assistant working with the defense. He was hired into the full-time role of defensive analyst in January, 2018, and quickly promoted one month later to director of player personnel.

Garrett arrived in Philadelphia after two seasons with Pace University as defensive backs coach. At Pace, he worked with the corners and safeties and also served as punt return coordinator. His responsibilities included film breakdown, formulating game-plans, teaching schemes and concepts, and running meetings and drills. Prior to his time with the Setters, he spent the 2013 season with the University of Rhode Island assisting with the cornerbacks.

A 2012 graduate of Norfolk State University, Garrett was originally a walk-on to the football team but earned a scholarship along the way to being named a senior captain. He was part of the Spartans' 2011 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Championship team and was vice president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Garrett earned his bachelor's degree in building construction technology.

The Chesapeake, Va., native, started at quarterback and won numerous academic awards, including the Alonzo Mourning Student-Athlete Award, while attending Indian River High.

RONELL WILLIAMS

Defensive Analyst - Operations
West Chester '14
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Coach_RWilliams

Ronell Williams was hired as a graduate assistant in January, 2017, to work with the defense. One year later, Williams was promoted to the role of defensive analyst - operations.

Williams spent the 2016 season at Widener College as an assistant coach, specifically in training and developing the team's linebacker core. Under Williams' tutoring, the senior duo of Steve Gozur (89) and Tyrone Bundy (48) finished the season as the top-two tacklers on the team. Gozur went on to earn first-team All-Middle-Atlantic Conference (MAC) honors and rank first in the conference and 11th in Division III in solo tackles (69), while Bundy was a second-team All-MAC selection.

The former linebacker was a four-year letterman at Division II West Chester University, where he led the team in tackles for three straight seasons (2011-13). He became the first sophomore and third defensive player in school history to earn first-team All-America honors by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) in 2012.

He was also a three-time first team All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) and two-time first team All-Super Region 1 recipient at the middle linebacker position. As a junior, Williams was a finalist for the Cliff Harris Award, which is given to the top defensive player in all of small college football.

Away from the gridiron, the Chester native has given back to his community as a mentor and counselor for the Chester Panthers (Chester PAL) and Kevin Jones and John Mobley Football camps, to go along with the Glen Mills' school system.

Williams earned a bachelor's degree in exercise sciences with a concentration in pre-occupational therapy in 2014. The Golden Rams' standout currently ranks third in school history in total tackles (376) and second in assisted tackles (223).

TOM BRADWAY

Operations/Recruiting Assistant
Temple '17
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @TomBradway

Tom Bradway began as an operations/recruiting assistant in January 2018. He is no stranger to Temple Football having lettered twice before working as a volunteer in the 2017 season.

In his role, Bradway works with both the recruiting and operations departments. Among his varied responsibilities, he helps coordinate on-campus recruiting and official visits.

Bradway originally came to Temple in 2014 after transferring from Lafayette where he played baseball. After redshirting one season, he played in all 28 games in 2015-16 when the Owls won 10 games and played for the American Athletic Conference Championship each year. A trained wide receiver, he was also the holder as both place kickers, Austin Jones and Aaron Boumerhi, had record setting seasons.

He graduated with a degree in business management in 2016 and is working towards his graduate degree in innovative management and entrepreneurship.

Bradway attended Mainland (N.J.) Regional High where he was a four-year starter at quarterback and earned All-Cape Atlantic League honors as a junior and senior. His father, Terry, is the senior personnel executive of the Miami Dolphins and his brother, Michael, is a scout for the Philadelphia Eagles.

STAFF - STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

DAVID FEELEY

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach
Plymouth State '04
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Coach_DFeeley

David Feeley was hired on December 28, 2016, as the head strength and conditioning coach, becoming head coach Geoff Collins' first hire.

Feeley came to Temple from the University of South Carolina where he was the assistant strength and conditioning coach for one season. He helped guide the 2016 Gamecocks to a 6-6 record and reach the Birmingham Bowl, while mentoring senior DL Darius English to reach SEC second-team all-conference honors.

Before that he worked as the director of football strength and conditioning at Ball State from 2011-15. During that time, he helped the Cardinals earn two bowl appearances - the 2012 Beef O' Brady Bowl and the 2013 GoDaddy.com Bowl. He also assisted with the women's basketball team that made three-straight NIT appearances.

Feeley got his first full-time position at Florida International, serving as the assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2008-10. This is where he met current Owls' head coach Geoff Collins who served as the Panthers' defensive coordinator during the 2010 season. Feeley helped guide the Panthers to a 7-6 record that season, and a win in the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl, which was the first bowl win in program history. He also assisted with women's tennis, softball and baseball during his three years at FIU.

Feeley began his professional career as an intern at Rutgers and South Florida before becoming the strength and conditioning graduate assistant for football, women's track, softball and baseball at UNLV from 2006-07.

A South Jersey native, Feeley grew up in Brick, N.J. He is a 2004 graduate of Plymouth State University, where he was a member of the football team for four years, including serving as the team captain during his senior season.

In 2018, Feeley was inducted into the Brick Memorial High School Wall of Fame.

Feeley is married to the former Ann Marie DeGiglio, and they have a daughter, Laura Marie, and son, John Francis.

RYAN HORTON

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
Otterbein '07
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachRyanHorton

Ryan Horton was hired as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for Temple in January, 2017.

Horton came to Temple from Elon University where he oversaw the strength and conditioning department for the schools 17 NCAA Division I sports, while personally designing plans for the football, track and field, and cross country programs in his two years.

Prior to his time at Elon, he spent six years at Florida International University serving as the assistant coordinator for strength and conditioning for the football, women's volleyball, women's basketball, and men and women's track and field programs.

It was at FIU that Horton first worked with Temple head coach Geoff Collins and Temple strength and conditioning coach Dave Feeley.

During the six-year stretch, he assisted in an incredible run of improvement by each program. First it was the women's volleyball team capturing back-to-back Sun Belt conference titles and NCAA appearances (2008-09), capped off by a school record 32 wins (32-4) in 2009. Then the Panther's football program joined the fray, capturing the programs' first Sun Belt title in 2010.

The track and field team also shined during his tenure, which included two conference championships, five school records, seven freshman school records, two conference records, two National qualifiers, one All-American, and a conference freshman of the year.

Before entering the Sun Belt, Horton gained valuable experience in the South Eastern Conference as a part of the University of Tennessee football staff in 2004. That year, the Volunteers went 10-3 (7-1 in the SEC East) with a SEC championship appearance. He would assist the team toward another SEC championship appearance after going 10-4 (6-2 in the SEC East) in 2007.

Horton was not foreign to Knoxville as he previously trained high school and collegiate athletes in the local DI Sports Training facility.

Horton was a four-year letterman at Division III Otterbein College where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and fitness promotions in 2007. He has also earned his certification in strength and conditioning (SCCC) and USA Weightlifting Sports Performance Coach (USAW-SPC), while being an active member of both associations.

He and his wife Jennifer reside in the Philadelphia area.

JORDAN BARBER

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
Towson '16
2nd Season at Temple

TWITTER: @JbarberStrength

Jordan Barber was hired as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for Temple in January, 2017.

Barber came from the University of Maryland, where he served as an intern on the strength and conditioning staff for the football team. He helped a Terrapin squad that made an appearance in the Quick Lane Bowl. Barber assisted strength coaches with in-season lifts as well as leading lifts for specialist, freshman, walk-ons, and development athletes on the team. While at Maryland, he also worked with the baseball, softball, volleyball, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, field hockey, gymnastics, wrestling and track & field teams.

Prior to his stint at Maryland, Barber interned at his alma mater Towson from 2015-16. He worked specifically with the men's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, cheerleading, and women's golf teams. While working for Towson, Barber also interned at SMARTER Team Training, a company that trains youth, professional, Olympic and Paralympic level athletes.

The Baltimore, Md., native graduated from Towson in 2016 with a bachelor of science degree in exercise science.

AL BELLAMY

Director of Athletic Training
Michigan State '84
6th Season at Temple

TWITTER: @BigAlATC

Al Bellamy is now in his sixth season as Temple's director of athletic training.

He oversees all 19 of Temple's intercollegiate sports, while working directly with the football team and managing the sports medicine staff. He brings 25 years of NFL athletic training experience to Temple, including 12 seasons with the Detroit Lions.

With Detroit, Bellamy helped manage the team's athletic training staff and worked closely with the team's physicians.

Bellamy arrived in Detroit following 13 years as assistant trainer with the Washington Redskins. He began working with the Redskins in 1988 and was a member of the team's medical staff when Washington won Super Bowl XXVI. In 2009, Bellamy also served on the Gatorade Advisory Board.

Prior to joining the Redskins, he served a two-year stint as an assistant athletic trainer with the University of Miami (FL) football team (1986-87). During this span, he worked with the Hurricanes' program that claimed the 1987 National Championship. That assignment was his first full-time job and came after he had earned his master's degree in physical education (emphasis on sports medicine) from Syracuse.

Before obtaining his master's from Syracuse, Bellamy attended Michigan State as an undergraduate and received his bachelor's degree in health education in 1984. While at MSU, he began working in the NFL when he served training camp internships with both the St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers.

Throughout his career, Bellamy has worked with 14 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame: Fred Dean, Joe Gibbs, Darrell Green, Russ Grimm, Charles Haley, Michael Irvin, Ronnie Lott, Art Monk, Joe Montana, Andre Reed, Jerry Rice, Deion Sanders, Bruce Smith, and Bill Walsh.

Prior to attending Michigan State, Bellamy attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, DC. In recognition of Bellamy's career in athletic training, the school's annual Student Athletic Trainer and Manager of the Year Award is named in his honor.

Bellamy and his wife Sharon have two children-- son Chase, and daughter Ashley.

Miller is responsible for providing leadership for the Resnick Center staff, which consists of seven academic advisors, two learning specialists, three graduate externs, and over 80 tutors.

Reporting to the Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies, the mission of the Resnick Center is to provide superior academic, personal, and professional guidance to support all Temple University student-athletes. Through core values of diversity, integrity and collaboration across the University, the Center strives to inspire student-athletes to learn and succeed to their greatest academic and professional potential.

Under Miller's leadership, Temple's student-athletes earned their first academic year combined GPA over a 3.0 in 2012-13, highlighted by a 3.08 in the spring semester. Also in the spring, 61% of student-athletes earned individual GPAs of 3.0 or greater, including 28% over 3.5, both of which are the highest percentages on record.

Miller came to Temple from the University of South Florida, where he served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Academics & Student-Athlete Development since 2005. He was responsible for overseeing the academic support services for USF's student-athletes, as well as the day-to-day operations of the Academic Enrichment Center (AEC).

A native of Buffalo, NY, Miller attended Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pa. Upon completion of his undergraduate degree in 2001, he worked with the National Consortium for Academics and Sports in Orlando, Fla., and subsequently enrolled in the DeVos Sport Business Management Program at the University of Central Florida.

While pursuing his master of business administration and master of sport business management degrees, Miller served as the Research Coordinator for the 2004-05 Racial Gender Report Card and worked with the National Football League's Players' Association in Washington, D.C. Miller has also worked with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Cleveland Cavaliers and Emmanuel College in Boston, Mass.

DA'MON MERKERSON

Asst. Director - Academic Support
Syracuse '10
5th Season at Temple

TWITTER: @d_merkerson

Da'Mon Merkerson is now in his fifth year with Temple where he is an academic advisor for the football team.

Merkerson arrived at Temple from Lindenwood University where he provided transitional academic support services for Lindenwood's football student-athlete. A dual-sport student-athlete, Merkerson earned his bachelor's degree from Syracuse University while competing for the Orange on the football field, as well as the track.

Upon graduation from Syracuse, he joined the Arizona Cardinals for training camp and ultimately signed with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League. While in Arizona, Merkerson enrolled at Arizona State University where he completed his master's degree in higher education while working as a mentor for the Sun Devil's football team.

A native of Passaic, N.J., Merkerson works with the Temple football freshmen student-athletes, focusing on their successful assimilation to university life.

Irie Dennis joined the Nancy & Donald Resnick Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes at Temple as an associate academic advisor in September, 2015, and was promoted to academic advisor in September, 2017. Dennis came to Temple from the University of South Florida, where she most recently served as a counselor in student support services.

At USF, Dennis was responsible for counseling first-generation and low-income students on academic and personal matters. It was her responsibility to ensure these students acclimated to the college environment. In this role, Dennis developed and facilitated monthly seminars centered on career preparation, adjustment to the university experience, and academic success.

Prior to her experience with USF, Dennis completed an internship at another Florida-based American Athletic Conference institution, working in academic services for student-athletes at UCF. While with the Knights, she compiled academic progress rate and graduation success rate reports, trained students in NCAA eligibility and compliance, and also planned summer bridge activities for student-athletes.

Dennis is a 2010 graduate of Grand Valley State University, where she was a four-year member of the women's soccer team. The NCAA Division II National Player of the Year as a senior, she led her team to the NCAA Tournament in each of her four years, culminating in a national championship in 2009. Dennis was also honored for her work in the classroom, earning ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors in 2009, as well as being named to the GVSU Dean's List four times.

As an undergraduate, Dennis also completed internships with the Grand Valley athletic department, as well as with the Toldeo Mud Hens. She received her bachelor's degree in advertising and public relations, and is on track to receive her master's degree from USF in May of 2016.

Erika DeVaughn joined Temple Athletics as an Academic Advisor in the Nancy & Donald Resnick Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes in September, 2017.

DeVaughn came to Temple from Stony Brook University, where she spent two years as an Academic Advisor and Tutor Coordinator. Her primary responsibilities were with the softball and track & field teams at Stony Brook. From 2014-15, DeVaughn was an assistant for student-athlete support services at the University of Cincinnati, and she was a graduate assistant in athletics at Florida A&M University from 2013-14.

While working at Florida A&M, DeVaughn earned her master's degree in sport management. She also has a bachelor's in psychology from Samford University (2013). Outside of academics, DeVaughn has been a head volleyball coach for various club teams since 2010, and played Division I volleyball for Samford and the University of South Florida.

Kristy Bannon Sromovsky, who has worked in compliance and student services for Temple Athletics since 2008, was promoted to Senior Associate AD/Compliance & Student-Athlete Affairs in June, 2017. It was the third promotion and fourth title change for Bannon Sromovsky since joining the department 10 years ago.

In her role, Bannon Sromovsky oversees all aspects of the department's compliance efforts with conference and NCAA rules and regulations. She continues to work to educate coaches, administrators and student-athletes in regards to new rules and regulations as well as the processing of NCAA and conference waivers on behalf of student-athletes. Bannon Sromovsky also oversees all student-athlete welfare and life skill development programming which includes the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program.

Bannon Sromovsky was promoted to Associate Athletic Director/Compliance & Student-Athlete Affairs in July, 2015. She earned her first promotion to assistant director in 2013 after serving as the Compliance & Student Services Coordinator for the department since January, 2010. She had formerly served as the department's graduate extern while pursuing a master's degree in sport and recreation administration. The Golden Key National Honor Society member received her master's degree in sports administration from Temple in May 2010.

Bannon Sromovsky is a 2008 graduate of Rosemont College with a bachelor's degree in history.

Reid Vanderlinden joined the Nancy & Donald Resnick Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes at Temple, as an academic advisor for football in June of 2015. Vanderlinden came to the university after completing his master's degree and working in a similar role at Penn State.

At Penn State, Vanderlinden served as a graduate assistant at the Morgan Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes, where he assisted with academic advising and counseling. He assisted the director with academic eligibility under university, Big Ten conference, and NCAA regulations, and also worked as a student-enrichment and community service liaison between academic support and the football team.

Earning a master's degree in higher education, Vanderlinden also served as a teaching assistant for two semesters at Penn State. In that role, he assisted the instructor with a first-year transition seminar class. He also spent three summers working at the Penn State Sport Camps.

Vanderlinden is a 2013 graduate of Johns Hopkins University, with a degree in political science. While at Johns Hopkins, he was a four-year letterwinner for the football team, helping the Blue Jays to four-straight Centennial Conference championships.

KIM SILVA

Director of Compliance & S-A Affairs
UConn '13
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @silvakimberlya

Kim Silva, who recently served as assistant director of compliance for financial aid at Appalachian State University, joined the athletic department as the director of compliance and student-athlete affairs at Temple in March of 2018.

Silva is the primary admissions contact for the compliance and student-athlete affairs office as well as serving as the liaison for the Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC). She will also oversee compliance for several of the University's sports.

In her two years at Appalachian State, Silva was charged with monitoring and administering all athletics financial aid, ensuring that the University was compliant with all applicable NCAA legislation. She also administered National Letters of Intent and assisted coaches in managing scholarship budgets throughout the year.

Prior to her arrival at ASU, Silva worked as an intern in the compliance office at her alma mater, the University of Connecticut, while completing her master's degree in sport management (2016). In her role, she handled all student-athlete services, including housing, student-athlete employment and vehicle registration. She also assisted staff with monitoring eligibility, admissions status and financial aid limitations.

A standout student-athlete, Silva was a four-year starter for the UConn softball team, where she earned a bachelors degree in communications sciences (2013). She was named All-Big East First Team at third base during her junior year and All-Big East Second Team as an outfielder her senior year. During her final season with the Huskies she started in 52 games finishing second on the team and eighth in the Big East with a .364 batting average. She led the team with seven home runs and a .605 slugging percentage and finished her career ninth in school history with 18 home runs. She was named to the Big East Academic All-Star Team from 2009 through 2013. Silva was named an NFCA All-American Scholar-Athlete and a UConn Club Outstanding Senior Scholar-Athlete in 2013.

HISTORY

The Temple University football program will play its 120th season in 2018. For more than 35 years, the Owls have been the only major college football team in the Philadelphia region. That was not the case at the turn of the century.

The Early Years

Football at Temple first planted its roots in 1894, a decade after Russell Conwell founded the night school on North Broad Street. Nearly every college in and around Philadelphia had some sort of football squad at that time, though it may be a stretch to call them organized. The serious football powers of the east included Pennsylvania, Princeton, Harvard and Yale.

Temple's 11-man squad was technically a part of the school's Physical Education Department. The 1894 team was organized by physical education instructor Charles M. Williams, who also coached the basketball team. The Owls won their first game that fall against Philadelphia Dental College, 14-6.
There is almost no record of the first two decades of Temple football. The games were rarely reported in the newspapers, and the opposition usually consisted of small schools such as Pratt Institute or Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University). After the turn of the century, the Owls began playing regularly against city schools La Salle and Saint Joseph's.

The school mascot had already been established though, along with the school colors—Cherry and White. For many years, the football team had no official home field. Eventually it settled into Vernon Park, a spacious green located on the city limits beyond Germantown.

The most notable person associated with the Temple football program prior to World War I was Elwood Geiges, who was supposed to coach the varsity team in 1917. But the Owls forfeited every regular game on the schedule that season because of the war. Late that fall, the varsity squad matched up with the freshman squad in a game to benefit the war effort. The contest finished in a 6-6 tie.

Geiges began his career as a college football official the following season. He officiated games for 27 years, advancing to the head of the profession. Geiges is credited with inventing the signals for holding, offsides, illegal shift and timeout. He was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1984.

The Temple football program was administered by the Physical Education Department until well into the 20th century. For many years, the department was headed by Dr. Charles Prohaska, who was largely responsible for the expansion of the intercollegiate athletic program following World War I.

The Owls did not field a varsity football team between 1918 and 1921 due to the war. In the years that followed, Temple grew to have the second largest enrollment in the Philadelphia area. University President Charles F. Beury made a strong commitment at that time to greater success in intercollegiate athletics.

The Modern Era

What might be called the modern era of Temple football began in 1925 with the hiring of Henry J. Miller as head coach. "Heinie" Miller had been a star player at Penn, earning All-America honors in 1917. His much-hailed arrival promised great success against a much tougher level of competition.

Miller's Owls did well in 1925 and 1926, compiling a record of 10-5-2, the best two-year stretch in the school's short history. Things were about to get much better. Several outstanding players joined the roster in 1927, including future Temple Hall of Famers Tucker "Swede" Hanson, Grover Wearshing and Jack Bonner.

The Owls opened the season with a home game against Blue Ridge College, a small school located in New Windsor, Md. The mismatch was apparent from the opening kickoff. Temple held a 27-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and then scored eight touchdowns in the second quarter to establish a 78-0 lead at the half. Unable to move the ball on offense, Blue Ridge actually began punting on first down. The coaches agreed at halftime to shorten the third quarter to eight minutes and later shortened the fourth quarter to six minutes. By the end of the game, three Temple players had switched jerseys to fill in for Blue Ridge. The Owls won by a final score of 110-0. Hanson scored five touchdowns and Wearshing scored three.

Several other one-sided results from the 1927 campaign, against Juniata (58-0), Gallaudet (62-0) and Washington College (75-0), indicated that the Owls were ready for a new level of competition. That competition came from Dartmouth, Brown and Bucknell.

Temple finished 7-1 that season, losing only to Dartmouth, while posting notable victories against Brown (7-0) and Bucknell (19-13). The Bucknell game marked the beginning of a long rivalry with the school located in Lewisburg, Pa. The Owls and the Bison played every year for the next 44 years, often in the last game of the season. Some years later, "The Old Shoe" was dedicated as a prize for the winner of the Temple-Bucknell contest. The bronze statue of a football shoe was awarded to the winning school, which held it until the following year's game.

The 1927 season finale against Bucknell was played at Franklin Field, marking Temple's first appearance on the home field of the Pennsylvania Quakers. The Owls would not need to borrow the facility the following season.

In December of 1927, President Beury announced that the University had received a gift of $100,000 from Philadelphia land developer Charles G. Erny for the construction of a football stadium at Vernon Park. The stadium was to seat between 20,000 and 25,000 and was to be completed in time for the 1928 football season.

Temple Stadium was first referred to as Beury Stadium, and for many years was known as Owl Stadium. The structure was designed by Philadelphia architect Clarence E. Wunder and was built by Erny's development firm. The total cost of construction was $350,000, with a seating capacity of 34,200, including mobile field seats.

The Owls made their debut in the new stadium on Sept. 29, 1928, against St. Thomas College of Scranton. Team captain Howard "Barney" Gugel made it a successful debut, scoring on a 66-yard fumble recovery and a 38-yard interception return for a 12-0 Temple victory witnessed by 10,000 fans.

The stadium's official dedication game came two weeks later against Eastern power Western Maryland. The Owls won that game, 7-0, thanks to a touchdown pass from Wearshing to Hanson. The contest drew 25,000 fans, including several dignitaries from the city of Philadelphia.

The 1928 campaign was another great success, as the Owls finished 7-1-2, losing only to Schuylkill College and posting ties against Bucknell and Villanova. Temple was dominant in the new stadium, winning its first six games by shutout. The only team to score against the Owls was Washington College, which managed a single touchdown in a 73-7 rout. Wearshing and Hanson scored three times apiece in that contest.

The battle against Villanova—a scoreless tie—also marked the beginning of a long rivalry (though the teams had played one another in 1908). The Owls and the Wildcats were both developing strong national reputations, and this was the big game on their schedules for the next 15 years.

Miller continued to field successful teams through the Depression Era, tutoring a new set of future Hall of Famers in Hank Reese, Tony Dougal and Leon Whittock. All three played key roles in 1931, another milestone year for the program.

The Owls finished with a record of 8-1-1 that season, setting a school record for wins that stood for 42 years. Along the way, Temple recorded a 12-0 victory over developing regional power Penn State. It was considered the school's most notable victory to date. The Owls also scored their first-ever victory over Villanova by the score of 13-7. Reese had an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown and Cornelius Bonner scored on a five-yard run to secure the victory. The Wildcats were coached by Harry Stuhldreher, who had gained fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Temple closed the 1931 campaign with its first extended road trip, traveling by train across the Midwest and the Plains to face Denver College and the University of Missouri. The Owls built their national reputation with an 18-0 victory over Denver and a 38-6 triumph over Missouri.

TEMPLE FALLS TO IRISH IN COLLINS' DEBUT

SOUTH BEND, Ind. – Temple could not start the Geoff Collins era in the win column Saturday afternoon as the Owls lost, 49-16, at Notre Dame Stadium against the Fighting Irish. This completes the three-game series between the schools.

Keys to the Game
> Notre Dame jumped out to an early 14-0 lead on the Owls and scored touchdowns on four of their first five drives to increase the lead to 28-3.
> Redshirt freshman QB Logan Marchi, who started and played the entire game, found redshirt senior WR Keith Kirkwood for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the margin to 28-10 prior to halftime.
> Following Kirkwood's TD, Temple held Notre Dame scoreless until Tony Jones, Jr. rushed in from seven-yards out to make it 35-10.
> Marchi then connected with redshirt junior WR Brodrick Yancy for an 11-yard score to cut the margin to 35-16, early in the fourth quarter, but two late Irish scores sealed the win.
> Notre Dame QB Brandon Wimbush was impressive in his first start, throwing for 184 yards and two TDs while also rushing for 104 yards and a touchdown.
> On the day, Marchi went 19 of 35 for 245 yards and two touchdowns, while distributing the ball to nine different receivers.

Game Notes
> Five Temple players made their first career starts – linebacker Isaiah Graham-Mobley, center Matt Hennessy, Marchi, defensive tackle Dan Archibong, and linebacker Sam Franklin.
> Three Owls saw their first game action of their careers – Graham-Mobley, wide receiver Branden Mack, and defensive lineman Quincy Roche.
> In his first game at Temple, Jones also made his first interception as an Owl.
> Marchi's TD pass to Kirkwood was the first of his career.

Quotable
"I love them, I'm proud of the way they competed, the way they fought, they never quit," said Collins.

"Logan [Marchi] came in and played admirably and moved the offense really well at times, threw some really nice balls and threw some balls that not a lot of kids in the country can make. And I thought the rest of the offense kind of rallied around him," said Collins.

TEMPLE BREAKS TIE WITH LAST MINUTE FG TO WIN

PHILADELPHIA – Sophomore Aaron Boumheri connected on a career long 49-yard field goal with one minute remaining to lift Temple to a hard-fought 16-13 win over Villanova in front of 35,117 Saturday at Lincoln Financial. The win was the first for Owls (1-1) and new head coach Geoff Collins.

Keys to the Game

> The first half was a defensive battle as the only score on the board was a 22-yard field goal from senior kicker Austin Jones, until redshirt senior fullback Nick Sharga plowed forward for a one-yard touchdown run with one second remaining in the half to give the Owls a 10-0 lead.

> The Temple defense held Villanova to 31 rushing yards and 98 passing yards in the first half.

> On their first drive of the second half, the Owls marched into field goal range and sophomore kicker Aaron Boumerhi nailed a 44-yard field goal to extend the Owls' lead to 13-0.

> In the third quarter, the Temple defense buckled down and forced a Villanova change of possession as the Wildcats were threatening in the redzone.

> Villanova then scored 13 straight points, tying the game on a 34-yard Drew Kresge field goal with 3:29 remaining.

> Sophomore LB Shaun Bradley forced a Villanova fumble with senior DE Sharif Finch recovering to seal the win.

Game Notes

> Redshirt sophomore QB Logan Marchi had a strong game, completing 20 of 34 passes for 274 yards

> Bryant made seven catches for 79 yards, while senior WR Adonis Jennings had three catches for 75 yards. Bryant's seventh reception of the game was the 100th of his career.

TEMPLE SACKS UMASS 29-21

PHILADELPHIA – Temple (2-1) took down the UMass Minutemen (0-4) under the Friday night lights, 29-21. Quarterback Logan Marchi finished the day 22 of 37 for 248 yards and three touchdowns, completing passed to 11 different receivers. On the ground, junior RB Ryquell Armstead saw his best game of the season, rushing for 91 yards on 17 carries, averaging 5.4 yards per carry. The defense amassed nine sacks with redshirt freshman DE Quincy Roche accounting for a career-high three solos.

Keys to the Game

> Temple started off fast out of the gate with Armstead picking up 60 yards on the first drive, including a 56-yard rush up the right sideline. The drive ended with an Austin Jones 24-yard field goal to put the Owls on the board, 3-0.

> The Minutemen looked to get on the board, but kicker Michael Schreiner missed a 23-yard field goal on their opening drive.

> The Owls were looking to extend their lead to 6-0, but an Aaron Boumerhi 43-yard field goal was blocked by Isaiah Rodgers.

> Schreiner attempted a 39-yard field goal to tie up the game at three, however kicked it wide left.

> UMass bounced back after QB Andrew Ford found RB Nick Orehoya for a 10-yard score to go ahead 7-6.

> It wasn't long before Temple struck again. Marchi found WR Adonis Jennings for a 30-yard touchdown on a fly route. The Owls took the lead 10-7.

> Quincy Roche sacked Ford, forcing a fumble. The Randallstown, Md. native would end up recovering the fumble which would lead to a Marchi 12-yard TD pass to Keith Kirkwood to make it 16-7.

> The Owls continued their unanswered scoring run as Boumerhi booted a 52-yard career long field goal to put Temple up 19-7.

> The Minutemen answered four minutes later as Ford found Jessie Britt for a 20-yard touchdown to cut the deficit to five, 19-14.

> The Owls would add another 10 straight points with another field goal by Jones and a touchdown from Marchi to Isaiah Wright.

> In the waning minutes of the game, UMass marched down the field to cut the Temple lead to 29-21.

> The Minutemen had one final chance after holding the Owls to a three-and-out, but Sharif Finch's second sack of the game ended the threat.

Game Notes

> Roche's three sacks is the first time a Temple player had a multi-sack game since DL Praise Martin-Oguike against ECU on Oct. 21, 2016. It is also the first time a Temple player had three sacks in a game since Tyler Matakevich against Penn State on Sept. 5, 2015.

> For the second week in a row, Boumerhi made his career long field goal. This was the longest by a Temple kicker since Brandon McManus hit a 53-yard field goal against Villanova on Sept. 3, 2010.

> Linebackers Sam Franklin and Isaiah Graham-Mobley both registered their first career sacks.

> Kirkwood and Marshall Ellick both saw season highs in receptions and receiving yards. Kirkwood caught four passes for 64 yards, while Ellick had four catches for 33 yards.

> The nine sacks today are the most by Temple since recording 10 vs. Penn State on Sept. 5, 2015.

#21 USF'S DEFENSE SMOTHERS TEMPLE

TAMPA – #21 USF (4-0, 1-0) proved to be too much for the visiting Temple Owls (2-2, 0-1) Thursday night at Raymond James Stadium. Noted for their high-powered offense, it was the Bulls' defense that led the way in the lopsided 43-7 win in the conference opener for both teams.

Keys to the Game
> Temple struggled offensively all game, amassing just 85 total yards while turning the ball over six times.
> Temple's defense was tough, especially in the first quarter, holding the explosive USF offense to just 36 yards and an Emilio Nadelman 44-yard field goal. That score came after Logan Marchi's first interception of the season at the Owls' 26.
> Darius Tice exploded up the middle for a 47-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second quarter to give the Bulls a 10-0 lead.
> The Owls defense again came up big following Marchi's second interception, holding USF off the scoreboard on four plays from the TU six-yard line. Delvon Randall had the big stop on third down with a solo tackle of Mitch Wilcox at the two. The defensive front then stuffed the Bulls fourth down rush.
> USF quarterback Quinton Flowers broke free for a 22-yard touchdown following a short punt from Temple's end zone to make it 17-0.
> Redshirt junior QB Frank Nutile, seeing his first action of the season, completed his first pass to Adonis Jennings, but the Owls' wide receiver fumbled for TU's third turnover of the half.
> That fumble led to another Nadelman field goal (28 yds) to increase the Bulls lead to 20-0.
> Senior DL Jacob Martin gave the Owls life in the final minutes of the first half, stripping Flowers and then returning the fumble 44 yards for the touchdown.
> Temple's defense forced a three-and-out on the first USF possession of the second half, but Nutile was picked off on the Owls' opening drive. That led to a Tice three-yard touchdown to make it 27-7.
> Turnovers on consecutive drives led to two more Nadelman field goals, making it 33-7.
> Nadelman added a fifth field goal, coming from 44 yards out, on the Bulls first drive of the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 36-7.

Game Notes
> Marchi's streak of pass attempts without an interception ended at 108 attempts with USF cornerback Deatrick Nichols' first quarter pick.
> The Owls utilized three QBs during the contest with Marchi starting, freshman Todd Centeio playing a series in the first quarter, and Nutile making his first appearance of the season.
> USF accumulated 408 total yards of total offense with Tice (117 yds, 2 TDs) and D'Ernest Johnson (106 yds) each eclipsing the century mark on the ground.

TEMPLE'S SECOND HALF COMEBACK FALLS SHORT

PHILADELPHIA – After struggling through a tough first half, laced with close calls and no points, Temple (2-3, 0-2 AAC) battled back throughout the remainder of the game, coming up short, 20-13, to visiting American Athletic Conference foe Houston (3-1, 1-0 AAC) on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls defense competed spectacularly, holding the high-powered Cougar offense to just 388 total yards on the day. Meanwhile, the Temple rushing attack got back on its feet, racking up 142 yards on 37 carries.

Keys to the Game
> Following a string of scoreless possessions to kickoff the game, Houston found the endzone on a 13-yard misdirection rush up the left sideline midway through the first quarter. The touchdown came one play after a Temple interception was reversed in lieu of a pass interference call, setting up the Cougars deep in the red zone.
> As the second quarter began, Houston extended its lead to 10-0 off a 25-yard field goal from Caden Novikoff, capping a 10-play, 55-yard drive.
> Novikoff returned less than five minutes later to knock through another attempt, this time from 35-yards out, pushing the Cougars to an eventual 13-0 halftime advantage.
> Houston continued the second half just as they had the first: with a scoring drive. The Cougars maneuvered their way 85 yards on nine plays, sealing the possession with a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Kyle Postma to WR Linell Bonner III.
> The ensuing Temple drive proved fruitful for the first time in the matchup, as the Owls moved the ball 41 yards before K Aaron Boumerhi drilled a 41-yard field goal, cutting the lead down to a 20-3 Houston edge.
> One unsuccessful Cougar possession later, Temple managed an 11-play, 85-yard drive all the way into the endzone. Following a touchdown overturned on second down and a stuffed run on third, QB Logan Marchi shoveled the ball to RB David Hood for the one-yard score, moving the Owls within striking distance.
> The Temple defense proceed to come alive, dominating the Cougar offense for the remainder of the game. The excellent field position set up Boumerhi with a 29-yard chip shot, finally closing the gap to one possession, 20-13.
> Throughout the final minutes of the game, the Owls had two offensive opportunities to knot the score at 20, but came up short each time. With time expiring, Houston intercepted Marchi for the third time, sealing the 20-13 victory over Temple.

Game Notes
> The first half shutout composed by the Houston defense marked the first time in 51 games Temple was unable to find the scoreboard in the opening two periods. The stretch dates back to October 7, 2013, when the Owls fell to then-No. 7 Louisville.
> Boumerhi went perfect for the first time this season, going 2-of-2 on field goals (35, 29).
> Similarly, redshirt senior DB Mike Jones racked up a season-high in tackles, notching six on the game. Previously this year, Jones had two games (at Notre Dame & vs. UMass) with four total tackles.

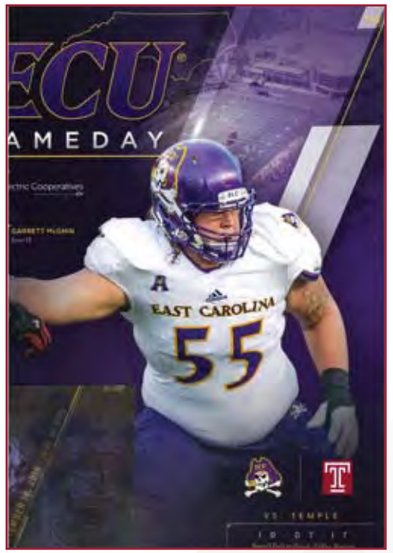
2017 GAME SUMMARIES

Temple 34, ECU 10
Saturday, October 7, 2017
Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, Greenville, N.C.

OWLS PLAY COMPLETE GAME ON ROAD, SHUT DOWN PIRATES FOR COLLINS' FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Highlighted by a much-improved offensive performance, Temple routed ECU in a 34-10 victory on the road, dominating throughout on both sides of the ball. The Owls revved their offensive engine early and often, balancing the unit via strong efforts from redshirt sophomore QB Logan Marchi, who finished the game 19-of-31 passing for 321 yards and two touchdowns, and redshirt junior RB David Hood, who powered his way for 106 rushing yards and one touchdown on 20 carries.



Keys to the Game
> Both the Temple and ECU offenses got to strong starts, as each set up field goal attempts on their opening possessions. After driving 41 yards on nine plays, Owl kicker Aaron Boumerhi missed a 52-yarder wide left, setting up the Pirates to march 57 yards back the opposite direction and chip shot in a 25-yard attempt for the early 3-0 lead.
> As the second quarter began, Temple was able to find the board behind a 29-yard field goal from Boumerhi, leveling the score at 3-3. Earlier that drive, the Owls converted on a crucial third-and-long with a 48-yard pass to redshirt junior Brodrick Yancy, setting up the eventual short kicking attempt.
> After the Owls' defense forced a punt deep inside their own territory, Marchi orchestrated an eight-play, 91-yard touchdown drive, giving Temple its first lead of the day, 10-3. Marchi wrapped up the season's longest scoring drive with a five-yard connection to WR Adonis Jennings, his second TD catch of the year.
> A Delvon Randall interception on the ensuing Pirate possession gave Temple excellent field position on ECU's side of the 50, setting up a two-yard TD rush by Hood and a 17-3 Owls edge.
> Another defensive stand gifted the Temple offense with a short field, a position Marchi and company immediately sought to take advantage of. After a 45-yard bomb found sophomore WR Randle Jones inside the five-yard line, redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato powered his way into the end zone on a two-yard rush, surging Temple to a 24-3 lead heading into halftime.
> Following the halftime break, the ECU offense came out hitting on all cylinders, driving 11-plays and 75 yards for a touchdown and cutting the Temple lead down to 24-10.
> Two unsuccessful possessions later, Marchi and the Owls' offense returned looking to recapture their 21-point advantage. The redshirt sophomore quarterback was impressive, finding WR Isaiah Wright up the right sideline on a 32-yard touchdown pass late in the drive, securing Temple a 31-10 edge near the end of the third quarter.
> An ECU turnover-on-downs on their side of the 50-yard line set up yet another Boumerhi field goal attempt, this time from 39 yards out, for a 34-10 Temple lead.
> Under the supervision of back-up QB Frank Nutile, Temple finished the game with a drive inside the ECU red zone, running out the clock with a play to the Pirate four-yard line.

Game Notes
> For first-year Temple head coach Geoff Collins, the win marks his first road and conference victory with the Owls, his third try in both categories.
> Meanwhile, senior DE Jacob Martin racked up his fourth and fifth sacks of the season, forcing an ECU turnover-on-downs with his first bout into the Pirate backfield.
> After years playing power blocker in the Temple backfield, Ritrovato found the end zone for the first time in his career late in the first half, forcing his way in on a two-yard rush up the middle.
> Meanwhile, Hood racked up 106 yards rushing, a career-high, breaking the 100-yard plateau for his first time along the way.
> Throughout the game, Marchi completed a 25-yard or better pass to five different Owl receivers: Yancy (48), Jones (45), Keith Kirkwood (37 & 29), Isaiah Wright (32) and Adonis Jennings (25).
> Further, Marchi finished the game with 321 yards passing, topping the 300-yard mark for the first time in his short career with the Owls.

OWLS FALL TO UCONN IN HOMECOMING GAME

PHILADELPHIA – Despite admirable performances on both sides of the ball, Temple came up short in a comeback bid against division rival UConn, falling 28-24 Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls' defense competed particularly well, forcing two turnovers and slowing down the potent UConn passing attack throughout the game. Redshirt sophomore LB Chapelle Russell led the unit with 12 tackles, one for loss, while fellow junior S Delvon Randall picked up five tackles with one interception.

Keys to the Game
> The Temple defense went to work early against the high-powered UConn passing attack, as Randall picked off a pass up the left sideline midway through the Huskies' opening drive.
> Despite a slow start on their first drive, the Owls' offense hit on all cylinders following the turnover, driving 78 yards over 10 plays for a touchdown. Redshirt junior RB David Hood capped the possession with two impressive runs: an 11-yard bulldozer followed up by a one-yard surge into the end zone, giving Temple the 7-0 advantage.
> Even with a long field and its backs up against the goal line, the UConn offense managed an 88-yard scoring drive to knot the game at a touchdown apiece to start the second quarter, leaving the game a 7-7 tie.
> The Huskies followed up the score with a string of positive plays, beginning with a forced fumble on Owls' WR Brodrick Yancy that was returned to the Temple nine-yard line. The offense took advantage soon after, as QB Bryant Shirreffs found WR Hergy Mayala on a short six-yard fade into the right corner of the end zone, setting up UConn with its first lead of the game, 14-7.
> After holding the one-score edge through halftime, UConn kick-started the second half with an 11-play, 63-yard touchdown possession, jumping out to a 21-7 lead over the Owls. Shirreffs threw his third score of the game, this time a screen to RB Arkeel Newsome.
> The Temple offense rebounded immediately behind a few quick-strike tosses from QB Logan Marchi, cutting the lead back to one-score, 21-14. He initially found redshirt freshman TE Kenny Yeboah for 37 yards to set up the Owls inside the red zone, allowing Marchi to find sophomore WR Isaiah Wright wide open in the back of the end zone on a perfect nine-yard pass.
> Despite Temple holding UConn to a quick three-and-out, the tables quickly turned as Marchi's initial pass of the drive was intercepted and taken 34 yards for a pick-six by DB Tyler Coyle, re-extending the Huskies' lead back to two touchdowns, 28-14.
> Following a failed fourth-down conversion inside the UConn red zone, the Temple defense stepped up for the Owls, as senior DB Artrel Foster recovered a fumble on the Huskies' first play of the drive. The offense answered with haste, as junior RB Ryquell Armstead powered his way 10-yards for a touchdown, cutting the UConn lead, 28-21.
> Another quick possession from UConn set up the Temple offense with a chance to knot the game at 28 apiece. The Owls drove inside the five-yard line before finding a brick wall in the form of the Huskies' front seven, leading to sophomore K Aaron Boumerhi's first attempt and success from 21 yards out, leaving UConn up just 28-24.
> After UConn missed on a 36-yard FG attempt, Marchi worked to lead Temple down the field in the final minute of the matchup. The redshirt sophomore came up just short on a fourth down hail mary.

Game Notes
> As UConn moved the ball into Temple territory on its initial drive, Randall interrupted the Huskies' progress with his third INT on the year. The timely turnover means he now has one pick in each of the past three games (Houston, ECU & UConn), and moves him into a tie for eighth all-time in career INTs at Temple (7).
> Down two scores, Marchi found a wide-open Yeboah for 37-yards up the right sideline, setting up an eventual touchdown later in the possession. The catch-and-run surpassed Yeboah's previous long (15 yards vs. Charlotte) by an impressive 22 yards.

ARMY OUTLASTS TEMPLE IN OVERTIME THRILLER

WEST POINT, N.Y. – In a matchup that showcased two squads unwilling to back down, Temple failed to convert on an overtime field goal, falling to Army in a tight 31-28 OT contest Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium. The Owls performed well despite a slew of injuries and first-time starters on both sides of the ball, ultimately coming up short on the road against a relentless Black Knights unit.

Keys to the Game

> Army kicked off the scoring on the Black Knights' second possession of the game, taking the ball 68 yards over 12 plays before wrapping up the drive with an 11-yard touchdown rush by Darnell Woolfolk.

> The Black Knights' special teams came through to set up their following offensive drive, as a blocked punt placed Army at the Owls' 28-yard line. Two plays later, including a 24-yard pass, Army extended its lead out to 14-0 early in the second quarter.

> Temple took over its next possession with purpose, responding behind WR Isaiah Wright's 50-yard touchdown run. The sophomore broke away under the guise of a unique formation, drifting between defenders en route to the end zone.

> After the Temple defense shut down Army near midfield, the Owls' took over deep in their own territory. First-time starter QB Frank Nutile then proceeded to orchestrate an 83-yard touchdown drive to knot the game at 14 apiece, culminating with a 37-yard bomb to senior WR Adonis Jennings for the score.

> The third quarter proved nearly as uneventful as the first, as the only highlight came as Temple K Aaron Boumerhi clanged a 32-yard field goal off the right upright.

> Near the start of the final period, the Owls were finally able to earn their first lead of the day. Nutile kickstarted the drive with a 36-yard toss to redshirt junior RB David Hood before junior RB Ryquell Armstead broke loose on a 43-yard scamper for the Temple touchdown and the 21-14 edge.

> Late in the fourth quarter, the Black Knights found a response of their own, as Woolfolk sprinted 44 yards for a game-tying score, 21-21.

> The ensuing Temple possession saw a very methodical offensive drive by the Owls, as Nutile guided his unit down the field for their fourth touchdown of the game. Armstead again showed his toughness, breaking multiple tackles on a 21-yard push into the end zone, giving Temple a 28-21 advantage with less than two minutes to play.

> With just one second remaining, Army once again closed the gap on the Owls, scoring on a 16-yard touchdown pass from back-up QB Hopkins to WR Adams. With the late score tying the game 28 all, Temple advances to its first overtime matchup since 2012.

> With the Owls winning the coin toss, they elected to play defense to kickoff OT. Army took advantage of the opening possession, drilling a 29-yard field goal for the three-point lead.

> Despite the Temple offense performing similar to their counterpart, Boumerhi failed to convert on a 27-yard attempt, ending the game in Army's favor, 31-28.

> On the game, the Owls saw five new players make their first career starts: redshirt junior Frank Nutile at QB, redshirt junior James McHale at LT, redshirt junior Jaelin Robinson at LG, redshirt junior Gordon Thomas at C and redshirt sophomore DeAndre Kelly at DE.

> Senior S Sean Chandler, a four-year veteran in the Temple secondary, grabbed his first interception of the year on the final play of the opening half. With the pick, Chandler jumps up another spot to seventh all-time in career interceptions (8) with Temple.

> Do-it-all sophomore Isaiah Wright compiled two 50-yard plus plays on the day, as he picked up a 50-yard rush in the second quarter and a 51-yard reception in the third.

> The joint sack on the Black Knights' final drive by Temple seniors DE Jacob Martin and DE Sharif Finch marked the first Army has given up all year.

> Temple advanced to an overtime matchup for the first time since 2012, when the Owls dropped UConn in a 17-14 victory on the road.

TEMPLE KNOCKS OFF NAVY IN REMATCH OF 2016 AAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

PHILADELPHIA – In a dominant performance reminiscent of last season's conference title game, QB Frank Nutile and the Temple offense took care of business in a 34-26 victory over Navy in front of a nationally-televised audience Thursday night at Lincoln Financial Field. The redshirt junior signal-caller guided the Owls' offense on six consecutive scoring drives throughout the win, including four for touchdowns, ending just two on negative plays (interception & punt).

Keys to the Game

> After receiving the opening kickoff, the Owls offense went to work immediately, driving the field behind a methodical composition of air attack and ground game. The possession would sizzle out inside the Navy five-yard line, setting up K Aaron Boumerhi for a 22-yard field goal and an early 3-0 edge.

> The Naval Academy took advantage on the ensuing kickoff, as the return team set up the Midshipmen offense on the Temple 36-yard line. The Owls' defense proved stout, however, forcing a 48-yard field goal as Navy knotted the game at 3-3.

> Under the guidance of Nutile, Temple responded on its next possession in quick-strike fashion. On a short third-and-three, Nutile dropped a 40-yard dime to senior WR Adonis Jennings as he streaked up the left sideline, recapturing the lead, 10-3.

> Following a defensive stand, Nutile and the Owls' offense once again put on a clinic against the Midshipmen defense. The senior quarterback went 5-for-5 throughout the drive, finishing off the possession with two straight to senior WR Keith Kirkwood for the TD and a 17-3 advantage.

> With one second remaining in the first half, Navy was forced into a short field goal after the Temple defense made a stand inside the five-yard line, ending the initial two periods up 17-6.

> The Temple offense continued its scoring streak on its opening possession of the second half, as the Nutile-to-Jennings connection remained in-sync. This time around, the signal-caller found his fellow senior on a 34-yard pass in the end zone, jumping Temple out to a 24-6 lead.

> On the ensuing Navy drive, the Midshipmen finally found some traction as they drove 75 yards over 10 plays for their first touchdown of the day, cutting their deficit to a 24-13 difference.

> Nutile's career night continued one possession later as he once again led the Owls on a scoring drive, their fifth consecutive of the night. After once again finding Jennings on a 33-yard pass, this time down to the one-yard line, Nutile tossed a three-yard gem to redshirt sophomore TE Jake Robinson for the score, both the first catch and TD of his career.

> Midway through the final period, Boumerhi drilled a field goal attempt from 33 yards out, extending Temple's streak of scoring drives to six and its lead over Navy to 34-13.

> The Navy offense was able to generate some points after an INT of Nutile snapped Temple's streak of scoring possessions, finding the end zone on a 16-yard pass. The touchdown would cut the Owls' lead down to 34-19 with just under six minutes to play.

> Under guidance of a back-up quarterback, the Midshipmen would cut the lead one more time with a late touchdown pass, finalizing the score at 34-26 in Temple's favor.

Game Notes

> Nutile carried a streak of 10 consecutive completions from midway through the first quarter all the way to his first attempt of the third, the longest of his career.

> For the game, Jennings grabbed five receptions for 127 yards and two touchdowns. The 127 yards marks Jennings' third career 100-yard receiving game.

> Late in the final period, junior S Delvon Randall grabbed his fourth pick of the season and eighth overall, tying him once again with fellow safety and senior Sean Chandler on the all-time Temple leaderboards at 11th in program history.

> Redshirt sophomore Dana Levine broke through the Navy offensive front to earn Temple's first blocked kick of the year, helping the team hold onto title as the NCAA leader in the category over the past four seasons.

CINCINNATI, Ohio – Battling a cold front rolling in from the north and a Cincinnati squad fighting for postseason survival, Temple methodically took care of the Bearcats, 35-24, for its second consecutive conference victory under the night lights. Making just his third career start, redshirt junior QB Frank Nutile guided the Owls' offense as he surgically took apart the Cincinnati secondary, compiling 224 yards through the air on 19-of-30 passing for one touchdown.

Keys to the Game

> Wlth less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Temple K Aaron Boumerhi started off the scoring with a short 27-yard field goal, moving the Owls into an early 3-0 lead.

> The Owls called Boumerhi's number again one possession later, watching as the sophomore kicker sliced through an attempt from 22-yards out, extending Temple's early edge to 6-0.

> Midway through the second quarter, RB David Hood flipped his way into the end zone on a one-yard rush, pushing Temple out to a commanding 13-0 advantage. On the play, a stretch run to the right side, the redshirt junior was up-ended by a Cincinnati defender, landing just past the goal line for the the game's opening touchdown.

> After a scoreless first half, the Bearcats responded on their opening possession of the third quarter, driving 68 yards over nine plays for a touchdown, cutting Temple's lead down to 13-7.

> Nutile and the Owls' offense quickly matched their counterparts with a scoring drive of their own, as the redshirt junior signal-caller dropped in a 34-yard gem up the right sideline to redshirt senior WR Keith Kirkwood for the touchdown and a 20-7 edge.

> Cincinnati cut into the Temple lead yet again soon after taking over, driving for its second consecutive TD and moving within one possession of the Owls.

> The Temple special teams saw fit for the Owls' offense to never touch the field on their ensuing possession, as WR Isaiah Wright ran back a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The sophomore wasn't done, however, as he took the direct snap on the two-point attempt and found Nutile wide open in the flat for the successful conversion, putting Temple up 28-14.

> The Bearcats' offense continued to rumble on their next drive, taking the Owls deep into their own territory. A few stops inside the red zone, though, and Cincinnati was forced into a 26-yard field goal, going down 28-17 to kickoff the fourth quarter.

> Temple's offensive consistency continued without issue as Nutile and company took over deep in their own territory. The redshirt junior quarterback capped the possession himself as he scooted into the end zone on a three-yard rush around the right edge of the O-Line, vaulting the Owls into a commanding 35-17 advantage.

Game Notes

> Up just six after Cincinnati compiled back-to-back scoring drives, Wright shifted the momentum back in the Owls' favor as he sprinted untouched 98 yards for Temple's first special teams touchdown of the year. Coincidentally, the last time Temple notched a kickoff return TD came early during the 2015 season at Cincinnati, as Jahad Thomas took back a 100-yard return to open the second half in the 34-16 victory.

> For the second time this season, Hood surpassed his career high on the ground, surging to 108 total yards for the game to pair with his lone score. The total also marks the redshirt junior's second career 100-yard rushing game, as he picked up his first earlier this year against ECU (106).

> Earlier this season, redshirt sophomore QB Logan Marchi put together the best three-game statistical passing start in school history, compiling 767 yards through the air. Following an injury sidelining Marchi midway through the season, Nutile took over under center and has proceeded to break his predecessor's record, tossing 803 yards through his initial three starts (Army, Navy & Cincinnati).

PHILADELPHIA – Despite playing host to Senior Day and opening the game with serious energy, Temple failed to overcome No. 15 UCF and its undefeated streak, falling to the Knights 45-19 in the Owls' home finale. Led by QB McKenzie Milton, UCF dominated the turnover battle throughout the game, gifting the nation's top scoring offense with consistent short fields due to the five Temple turnovers (four interceptions, one fumble).

Keys to the Game

> After missing a 29-yarder on the opening possession, sophomore K Aaron Boumerhi redeemed himself with a successful 35-yard field goal to grant Temple an early 3-0 lead, putting the Knights in a trailing position for the just the fourth time this year.

> The UCF offense quickly responded on its ensuing possession, driving 60 yards over seven plays to tack on their first touchdown of the game. Milton took care of the scoring himself, rushing the final four yards for the TD.

> Early in the second quarter, the Owls marched their way down the field for the unit's first touchdown, ending the drive on an eight-yard TD catch by senior WR Keith Kirkwood. With the score, Temple reestablished its lead over UCF, 10-7.

> Determined to match the Owls, Milton and the Knights' offense compiled a second straight scoring drive, this time watching Dredrick Snelson rush two yards into the end zone after receiving a pitch from Milton on the right edge for the 14-10 advantage.

> Following an interception of Nutile, the UCF offense went to work with a short field, scoring this time on a nine-yard toss from Milton to Otis Anderson for a 21-10 lead midway through the second period.

> The Temple offense continued to struggle as RB Ryquell Armstead fumbled deep in Owls' territory, once again granting the Knights with excellent field position. A defensive stand kept UCF out of the end zone, though, as Matthew Wright drilled a 33-yarder for a 24-10 edge.

> Offensive issues continued to plague Temple, as Nutile threw his second pick of the game following a pair of back-to-back punts by both teams. The Knights went to work on the Owls' five-yard line after the return, scoring on one play for a 31-10 lead.

> With just over two minutes to play in the half, QB Frank Nutile was able to orchestrate an 11-play drive deep into UCF territory, setting up Boumerhi for his second field goal on the day as time expired, nailing a 41-yarder for a 31-13 halftime deficit.

> The Knights' offense picked up the second half right where they left off, taking their second possession of the third quarter 49 yards for a touchdown. Milton once again involved himself on the score, tossing a 21-yarder to Tre'Quan Smith for the TD and 38-13 advantage.

> After yet another Temple interception, Milton guided his offense back down inside the red zone, finding Marlon Williams for an eight-yard TD up the left sideline and a commanding 45-13 edge.

> Temple was able to find the scoreboard once in the second half behind a season-best 74-yard touchdown pass from Nutile to redshirt junior Adonis Jennings, cutting the lead down to what would serve as the final score, 45-19.

Game Notes

> Playing into the spirit of a Senior Day that sent off 21 players and a class that is tied for the winningest in school history (31 victories), head coach Geoff Collins put in redshirt senior DE Chris Smith for the first time this season.

> Midway through the fourth quarter, Jennings grabbed a 74-yard touchdown pass from Nutile, a play that would serve as both the Owls' season-long from scrimmage and the redshirt junior's career-long reception. Jennings continued his trend of only catching touchdowns over 30 yards, earning his fifth on the year and his fourth from Nutile.

> Playing for the final time at Lincoln Financial Field, redshirt senior DL Jullian Taylor compiled his best game to date, racking up a career-high 10 tackles with 4.5 tackles-for-loss. Similarly, fellow redshirt senior DE Sharif Finch continued to harass opposing quarterbacks as he put together yet another two-sack game, not to mention his three TFLs.

TEMPLE OUTPACES TULSA TO GAIN BOWL-ELIGIBILITY

TULSA, Okla. – With Bowl eligibility on the line and facing an underrated Tulsa squad in hostile territory, Temple put together a signature performance across all three facets of the game, weathering the Golden Hurricane in a 43-22 victory. Following an abnormally quiet game last week against unbeaten UCF, the Owls' offense returned to its usual potency behind the efforts of QB Frank Nutile and his receiving corps, dialing up 262 passing yards and three touchdowns.

Keys to the Game

> After shutting down the Temple offense to open the game, Tulsa took over deep in its own territory. The Golden Hurricane proceeded to drive the field behind a combination of power rushing and pinpoint passing, concluding the possession with a 35-yard pass over the top for the game's opening touchdown and a 7-0 lead.

> The Owls' offense responded on their ensuing possession, putting together a nine-play, 52-yard drive to set up K Aaron Boumerhi for a 39-yard FG.

> After exchanging punts, the Temple offense went to work again, this time driving 90 yards via a slew of big plays that culminated with Nutile connecting with WR Adonis Jennings for a 28-yard TD.

> Following another stop from the defense, Temple was able to take advantage. Two plays after Nutile dropped a gem into WR Keith Kirkwood up the left sideline to set up the Owls in the red zone, junior RB Ryquell Armstead outpaced nearly the entire Tulsa defense as he sprinted the width of the field for Temple's second TD.

> The Golden Hurricane found a spark on offense during its ensuing drive, pushing down inside the Owls' red zone. After a few close calls, Temple forced Tulsa to settle for a FG, closing the scoring gap down to 17-10.

> The Owls refused to allow Tulsa to threaten their first half lead, compiling a third-consecutive TD possession highlighted, once again, by a Nutile-to-Jennings pass. This time around, the redshirt junior wideout caught a 65-yarder down to the one-yard line, allowing RB David Hood to punch it in for the TD the following play.

> Tulsa was able to put together a second consecutive scoring drive, kicking a 47-yard FG to pull within 11.

> After forcing a Temple punt with just over a minute remaining in the first half, Tulsa was looking to close the gap before heading into halftime. The Owls' defense had other plans, though, as redshirt junior DB Derrek Thomas intercepted a pass and ran the ball back 83 yards to the Tulsa two-yard line. Temple only needed one play to cover the last two yards, as Nutile found Kirkwood wide open for the score and a 31-13 lead.

> Aided by a pair of 15-yard personal fouls, the Tulsa offense opened the second half with a TD drive, capping the possession with a 14-yard rush into the end zone and slicing the deficit down to a 31-20 margin.

> The fourth quarter proved scoreless until, with just over three minutes remaining, Nutile found Kirkwood for the pair's second touchdown of the day, this time a short six-yard catch to the end zone's front right pylon. On the ensuing PAT, though, Tulsa would put up the final points of the game, blocking the attempt and returning it the length of the field for two points.

Game Notes

> The Nutile-to-Jennings duo racked up 89 yards with one touchdown on the day. Since Week 8 against Army, the two have compiled 382 yards with five scores, best on the team during that span.

> On the day, Nutile consistently found his receivers for big gains, as Jennings pulled down a 65-yarder and Kirkwood brought in one for 51 yards. Although each possession would eventually end in a rushing score, the two receptions serve as Temple's longest pass plays not for touchdowns.

> Wright's third quarter punt return for a touchdown marks the first of its kind for Temple since 2014, when Khalif Herbin did the same against Delaware State. Further,

TEMPLE MOWS OVER FIU IN 2017 BAD BOY MOWERS GASPARILLA BOWL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - Battling a resilient FIU squad in a defensive slugfest, Temple managed to never surrender its early lead as the Owls fought their way to a 28-3 victory over the Panthers at the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl in St. Petersburg, Fla. The group effort from Temple's defense paved the way for late offensive success, as the former compiled a bowl-record seven sacks and season-high three turnovers in the win.

Keys to the Game

> Following both offenses suffering through rough starts, Temple QB Frank Nutile and company put together the game's initial scoring drive to open the second quarter. After driving 64 yards over six plays, the redshirt junior decided the conclude the possession himself, fighting his way four yards into the end zone for the 7-0 advantage.

> Neither offense would manage a score for nearly another full quarter until FIU compiled a 12-play, 62-yard drive that concluded with a 27-yard field goal, cutting Temple's lead to 7-3.

> The Owls' offense saw fit to immediately respond to the Panthers' threat on their ensuing possession, putting together a 75-yard drive that culminated with a one-yard rushing score from redshirt junior David Hood for the 14-3 edge. The touchdown would never had happened without elite efforts from Nutile and his receiving corps, as the redshirt junior signal-caller effortlessly helped claw Temple out of a first-and-30 situation behind a pair of pinpoint throws. The true setup, though, came from redshirt senior Adonis Jennings, who despite being tackled to the ground at the one-yard line, managed to reel in a 39-yard reception all while lying nearly prone on his back.

> Following FIU's third turnover of the game - fumble recovery by redshirt junior Freddie Booth-Lloyd - the Owls' offense went to work with excellent field position. Unsurprisingly, Temple quickly took advantage as junior RB Ryquell Armstead powered his way five yards for the touchdown and the game's final score, lifting the Owls to the 28-3 victory.

Game Notes

> The victory serves as the program's first postseason win since the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl where Temple topped Wyoming 37-15.

> Both sides of the ball saw first-time starters, as redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato got the nod at fullback while sophomore William Kwenkeu filled in at middle linebacker.

> Midway through the first quarter with the Owls' offense reeling from a tough turnover (backwards pass ruled a fumble), S Sean Chandler saw fit to grab his third interception of the year on a deep pass deflection. The senior registered the 10th pick of his distinguished career, vaulting him into a tie for seventh all-time in the Temple record books.

> Kwenkeu, who received the first start of his career in place of Bradley, earned his keep at middle linebacker behind some consistent play. The true sophomore recorded the first two sacks of his career and assisted the defense with six tackles on the game.

> The pair of picks from Chandler and Bradley marked Temple's second consecutive game with two interceptions, as Chandler and redshirt junior Derrek Thomas grabbed two in the regular season finale win at Tulsa.

> Redshirt senior WR Keith Kirkwood has grinded with the Owls for the past four years, earning him recognition as team captain and a prestigious single-digit. With the his six receptions against the Panthers, Kirkwood surpassed the 100-catch career milestone up to 103 total, good for 12th on the all-time school leaderboards.

> Following Nutile's solid performance under center, as he threw for 254 yards and one touchdown on 18-of-28 passing, the redshirt junior was awarded Most Valuable Player (MVP) honors.

> As for head coach Geoff Collins, the win serves as just the second time in Gasparilla bowl history that a first-year head coach brought home a victory, joining then-Louisville head coach Charlie Strong who did the same in 2010.

> The Temple defense put together seven sacks for the game, good for second-best by the unit this season (9.0 in win over UMass) and a bowl-record.

By this time, the University's athletic programs had grown out of their Physical Education Department beginnings. The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College By this time, the University's athletic programs had grown out of their Physical Education Department beginnings. The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College football continued to grow by leaps and bounds despite the Depression.

The 1930s saw the establishment of several bowl games and the first Associated Press national poll to determine the best teams in the country. The Temple football program continued to grow as well, making a huge national splash with the hiring of college coaching legend Glenn S. Warner.

The Pop Warner Years

"Pop" Warner was one of football's great innovators. He pioneered the use of several offensive formations (the single wing, the double wing, the unbalanced line) while building powerful programs at Pittsburgh and Stanford. After carrying his legend from the East Coast to the West Coast, Warner was lured away from Stanford by Temple in December 1932.

"The Old Fox"—another one of Warner's many nicknames—had a successful 1933 debut at Owl Stadium against South Carolina, a dangerous opponent from the south. Edward Zukas had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter to send the Owls on their way to a 26-6 triumph.

Another round of Hall of Famers took their place under Warner's guidance, most notably Pete Stevens, Dave Smukler, Stan Grayson and Chet Messervey. Stevens joined the team in 1933 and was named team captain in 1934. Smukler was a game-breaking running back who made an immediate impact on the team in 1934.

The Owls won their first two games that season against Virginia Tech (34-0) and Texas A&M (40-6). After a 6-6 tie against Indiana, Warner's squad won five straight against tough competition that included West Virginia, Holy Cross and Carnegie Tech. Temple finished the run with a 22-0 rout of Villanova, and then played Bucknell to a scoreless tie in the regular season finale.

The 1934 backfield quartet of Smukler, quarterback Glenn Frey and running backs Danny Testa and Wilfred H. Longsderff was one of the best in the nation. Their exploits (and the team's 7-0-2 record) drew the attention of the Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans, which was busy planning the first Sugar Bowl. Warner's Owls were invited to play unbeaten Tulane in that contest on Jan. 1, 1935.

Smukler was a one-man show in the first half of the Sugar Bowl, tossing a touchdown pass to Danny Testa and running the ball in for another score. He also converted both extra points to give the Owls a 14-0 lead. Tulane responded to the second touchdown with a huge play from its star, Claude "Monk" Simons, who took a lateral on the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. The Green Wave knotted the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and it seemed for a while that the game would end in a tie. With less than three minutes remaining, though, Tulane scored on a pass that had been deflected by a Temple defender. The Owls blocked the extra point and mounted one last offensive drive, but they could not put the ball in the end zone. They lost, 20-14.

Warner guided the Temple program for the next four years against the nation's toughest competition. The Owls beat tough southern schools Texas A&M and Vanderbilt in 1935 and began a series of games against Michigan State. The 1938 squad played three teams that finished the season in the nation's Top 10 (Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and eventual national champion, Texas Christian).

Temple was a heavy underdog in what would turn out to be Warner's finale, a contest at Florida on Dec. 3, 1938. Florida was coached by Josh Cody, who was just a couple years away from beginning a 15-year career at Temple. Playing in 80-degree heat, the Owls upset the Gators, 20-12, thanks in large part to a 102-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Powers. After missing the entire 1939 season due to injury, Powers returned the opening kickoff against Michigan State 105 yards for a touchdown in 1940. The returns remain the two longest plays in Temple football history.

The Post-Warner Years

Warner's top assistant, Fred H. Swan, took over as head coach in 1939. His tenure may have been doomed from the start. The Owls lost his debut game against Georgetown, 3-2, on a field goal with 25 seconds to go. The field goal had been preceded by a controversial pass interference penalty against the Owls.
The following season, Temple hired Ray Morrison as head coach. Morrison had gained fame as an All-American player at Vanderbilt and head coach at Southern Methodist University. One of Morrison's top assistants was Josh Cody. The new coach promised a wide-open offensive attack that he had developed in the south.

The high-scoring offense was on display in the first game of the 1940 season, a 64-7 victory over Muhlenberg. The Owls jumped to a 45-0 halftime lead in the contest and never looked back. Running back "Handy" Andy Tomasic had a 73-yard touchdown run. Tomasic, nicknamed "The Hokendauqua Hurricane" for his hometown near Allentown, Pa., was one of several Temple Hall of Famers that maintained the program's level of national success in the 1940s.

Tackles Chuck Drulis and Bucko Kilroy were All-East selections and Kilroy was Temple's first Honorable Mention All-American. Running back Phil Slosburg was an All-East pick and was chosen to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Other stars for the Cherry and White included Mike Jarmoluk, Joe Nejman and John Rogers.

The Owls fielded particularly strong teams in 1941 and 1945. The team got off to a 6-1 start in 1941, beating rivals Penn State, Bucknell and Villanova. That marks the only time in school history that all three foes were beaten in the same season. Hopes for a bowl bid were dashed though, with a 46-0 loss at Michigan State in the next-to-last game of the season. The following week, the Owls were heavy underdogs on a trip to Eastern power Holy Cross. They responded with a 31-13 upset victory to finish the season at 7-2.

The 1945 campaign held similar promise as Temple defeated Eastern powers Syracuse (7-6) and Pittsburgh (6-0) on the way to a 6-0 start. The Owls were among the favorites to receive an Orange Bowl bid until suffering a 27-0 loss at Penn State. History repeated itself with a visit to heavily favored Holy Cross the following week. Holy Cross was undefeated at the time and had become the Orange Bowl favorite. Temple pulled off one of the greatest upsets in school history, winning 14-6 thanks to touchdown runs by quarterback Jack Burns and running back Gene Zawolski. Holy Cross received the Orange Bowl bid anyway, though the Owls received strong consideration for the Cotton Bowl—partially thanks to Morrison's ties with SMU. Temple's 7-1 squad of 1945 ranks as one of its best ever.

Morrison coached the Owls through 1948, and was followed by Albert P. Kawal. The new coach's first team featured a hard-nosed running back who nearly became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Temple Hall of Famer, Bill Bernardo, gained 994 yards on the ground in 1949, a school record that stood until 1973. The roster also included Hall of Famer Gavin White, who would later enjoy a successful coaching career and would serve as Temple's director of athletics in the 1980s.

Cody replaced Yeomans as Temple's athletic director in 1952, as the University was entering the first few years of an "administrative de-emphasis" of intercollegiate athletics. By the mid-1950s, the Owls were no longer playing a national schedule, replacing the likes of Michigan State and West Virginia with Lafayette and Gettysburg. Bucknell remained a yearly foe, though Villanova had been dropped from the schedule in 1944.

Kawal coached the Owls through 1954, and then Cody took over for the 1955 campaign. The Owls went 0-8 that season, their first winless mark since 1923, and Cody hired 1934 team captain Pete Stevens to coach the team in 1956. Stevens remains the only former Temple player to have coached the team in the modern era.

Temple went 3-5 in 1956 and opened the 1957 season with two losses. The Owls then beat Lafayette, 13-12, at Temple Stadium. They would not win another game for nearly three years. The Owls lost their final four games of the 1957 campaign and finished 0-8 in 1958 and 0-9 in 1959. The 21-game losing streak is the longest in school history.

Ernie Casale took over as Temple's athletic director in 1959. Years later, he recalled a 12-8 loss that season against Drexel that attracted just 200 fans on a rainy Halloween night in Philadelphia. The Owls had just 24 players in uniform for their 1959 season finale at Gettysburg.

The following year brought a new head coach, George Makris, to North Broad Street. Makris had established a fine coaching reputation at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C. The 21-game losing streak came to an end in the 1960 season opener against Kings Point.

The Owls trailed 13-0 in the first half of the contest, but then started their comeback, eventually taking an 18-13 lead on Charlie Lotson's 86-yard interception return for a touchdown. Lotson later recovered a fumble that set up the game-clinching touchdown. Running back Ernie Wayland scored two touchdowns as the Cherry and White posted a 26-13 victory. Many of the 10,000 fans in attendance stormed the field and tore down the goalposts in celebration.

Middle Atlantic Conference

Temple continued to re-establish itself in the 1960s, playing in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic States Conference. The other losing streak that had to be brought to an end was a long skid against conference rival Bucknell. While the Owls dominated the series from 1938 to 1949, compiling a record of 9-1-2 during that stretch, they had not beaten the Bison since 1953. The losing streak had reached eight by 1962.

The game was up for grabs that year. Bucknell took a 7-0 lead, but the Owls responded with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Bill Cosby (who would eventually gain greater fame). The Owls then jumped ahead, 14-7, on a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Joe Morelli. Late in the contest, Bucknell went ahead again, 15-14, scoring a TD and converting a two-point play. The Owls came back with a drive to the Bucknell one-yard line, but fumbled the ball away. Temple got one last chance on offense and advanced the ball deep into Bucknell territory. With 15 seconds left, the Owls lined up for a game-winning field goal attempt. It missed, and the Bison kept possession of "The Old Shoe."

Things got significantly better for the Cherry and White though, as the team posted a 5-3-1 mark in 1963, the school's first winning record since 1951. The Owls finished second in the league standings in 1964 and challenged for the Middle Atlantic title in 1965 and 1966. The 1966 campaign also brought "The Old Shoe" back to North Broad Street.

That season's battle with Bucknell was a blowout from the beginning. Temple held a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and it was 41-7 by halftime. Late in the first half, sophomore quarterback John Waller was substituted in place of starter Tom DeFelice. Waller connected with wide receiver Jim Callahan for a couple of touchdowns, and then a couple more. Entering the fourth quarter, the Owls held a 75-14 lead and Waller had thrown five touchdowns, four of them to Callahan. One more Waller-to-Callahan TD pass set the school's single-game record for touchdown passes and receptions. The Owls won, 82-28, posting the second-highest point total in school history.

"The Old Shoe" stayed in Philadelphia the next season as the Owls beat Bucknell and every other Middle Atlantic Conference foe to win the 1967 league title. Another school record was broken against the Bison, this time as running back Mike Busch carried the ball a record 38 times for a record 176 yards in a 13-8 victory that clinched a tie for the league title. DeFelice guided the squad to a 45-27 victory over Gettysburg the following week to clinch the crown outright. Temple received strong consideration for the Tangerine Bowl that year but was not selected.

Records continued to fall in 1968, especially passing records, as Waller-to-Callahan became one of the most dangerous pass-and-catch duos in the country. Waller set school marks with 35 completions, 62 attempts and 440 yards passing in a 50-40 loss to Buffalo. He finished the year as the first 2,000-yard passer in Temple history and set just about every other single-season and career passing record for the Owls. Callahan's total of 14 TD receptions in 1968 went unmatched until 2008 [by Bruce Francis]. Amazingly, Callahan's first 10 receptions were all for TDs.

The Owls left the Middle Atlantic Conference after the 1969 season so they could return to playing a full Division I-A schedule. Makris was replaced by Wayne Hardin, a well-known coach who had six successful seasons at Navy. Hardin's Midshipmen had beaten Army in five of their six meetings. His tenure on North Broad Street did not have such an auspicious beginning.

The Hardin Years

The opponent was Akron in the 1970 season opener. The Zips scored on their first three possessions and never looked back in a 21-0 victory over the Owls. Hardin's team bounced back the following week and beat Bucknell, 10-3, in the last meeting between the two schools. Temple now had possession of "The Old Shoe" trophy for good. The winning ways continued through the 1970 campaign, though the Owls lost their season finale against Villanova, 31-26. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1943, and it was closely contested from start to finish. Temple-Villanova was the closing game of the regular season every year from 1970 to 1980.

The Owls compiled a record of 18-9-1 during Hardin's first three years as head coach and rolled on from there. Temple beat Villanova, 12-10, in the 1972 season finale. Temple Hall of Fame kicker Nick Mike-Mayer booted two field goals and the game-clinching touchdown was set up on a fumble recovery by Bob Bernardo, the son of Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo. Wide receiver Clint Graves set a school record in 1972 with 63 receptions, and he set the single-game mark with 15 catches against Rhode Island.

Hardin's first few teams featured several other stars, including quarterback Doug Shobert, an Honorable Mention All-American in 1971; tight end Randy Grossman, a Third Team All-American in 1972; and offensive guard Bill Singletary, a First Team All-American in 1972. Singletary is the only football player in Temple history to have his number (64) retired.

The Owls re-established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the East in 1973, finishing the season at 9-1 to set a school record for wins. The team won its final eight games of the season, including a 34-0 shutout of Villanova in which the defense forced 10 turnovers. Hardin's veer offense was almost impossible to stop, as the team surpassed the 30-point mark in eight of 10 games. The backfield tandem of Tom Sloan and Henry Hynoski keyed a powerful rushing attack, and the passing game was left in the capable hands of Steve Joachim. Sloan became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history, finishing the year with 1,036 yards. Hynoski surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 1974.

The Temple offense was just as tough to stop that season, and the defense was downright stingy. The Owls won their first six games of 1974, running their win streak to 14 games. It was the longest streak in the nation and it still stands as the longest in school history. In a nine-game stretch that spanned two seasons, Temple outscored its opponents, 361-58. The 14th victim of Hardin's Owls was Delaware, which battled hard before losing a 21-17 contest at Veterans Stadium. That marked Temple's first game at the South Philadelphia venue. The win streak was snapped the following week by Cincinnati, 22-20. The Owls finished the season with a record of 8-2, winning their finale against Villanova, 17-7, in another game played at The Vet.

The awards came piling in after the season. Joachim received numerous All-American honors, offensive guard Pat Staub was an All-East choice and defensive tackle Joe Klecko was an Honorable Mention All-American. The accolades culminated in Joachim being selected the Maxwell Award winner as National Player of the Year.

The 1975 season opener provided another milestone for the Owls, as the team faced Penn State for the first time since 1952. Running back Bob Harris shocked the Nittany Lions by breaking through the middle for a 76-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. The up-and-back contest tilted toward the Owls in the fourth quarter when Anthony Anderson ran for a touchdown that gave Temple a 23-18 lead. But Penn State would score the last touchdown after a long punt return and win the game, 26-25.

The teams played another one-point game the following year at Veterans Stadium. Beginning in 1976, The Vet became the new home of the Temple football team. Early in the season, the stadium hosted the first meeting between Temple and Grambling, which was coached by the legendary Eddie Robinson. The Owls won the contest, 31-30. That score was reversed when Penn State returned to town in October. Temple scored on the last play of the game to make the score 31-30, and Hardin opted for a two-point conversion attempt to beat the Nittany Lions. The conversion attempt failed.

#13 Tulane 20, #3 Temple 14
January 1, 1935
Tulane Stadium, New Orleans, La.

Tulane (10-1)	0	7	7	6	20

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

1979 GARDEN STATE BOWL

Temple 28, California 17
December 15, 1979
Giants Stadium, East Rutherford, N.J.

Temple (10-2)	21	0	0	7	28
California (6-6)	0	14	0	3	17

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.

Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Temple Notables
> Team captains— Brian Broomell, Mike Curcio, Casey Murphy

> Temple was ranked No. 17 in the United Press International and the Associated Press final polls.

> Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.

> After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

2009 EAGLE BANK BOWL

UCLA 30, Temple 21
December 29, 2009
RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.

UCLA (7-6)	7	3	7	13	30
Temple (9-4)	7	14	0	0	21

WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.

After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

2011 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL

Temple 37, Wyoming 15
UNM Stadium, Albuquerque, N.M.

Temple (9-4)	7	21	3	6	37
Wyoming (8-5)	0	7	0	8	15

ALBUQUERQUE-- Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.

Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals. Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock. when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

Temple Notables

> The win was Temple's second bowl win in school history. The Owls won the 1979 bowl, 28-17 over California.

> The win was the ninth win under first-year head coach Steve Addazio. He has the most wins in school history by a first-year head coach. He surpassed Wayne Hardin [1970-82] who had seven wins in 1970.

> Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall. This is the third consecutive season the Owls have posted at least eight victories and the second time in three seasons TU has won nine games.

> The win extended the school record for most wins (31) by any Senior Class in school history. The previous record was 28 wins from 1928-31. The 19 members of the Senior Class concluded their collegiate careers today.

> Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin's interception in the second quarter was the fifth of his career and the third of his career. R-freshman Anthony Robey's interception in the second quarter was the first of his collegiate career.

> With 255 rushing yards on the day, Temple set the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,335). The previous record was 2,884 from 2009.

> Temple extended the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season. With three rushing TDs in the game, the Owls finished with 38 rushing TDs this season. The previous record was 29 rushing TDs, set by the 2009 team.

> Pierce added to his career records and finished with 324 career points, 53 career rushing touchdowns, and 54 total career touchdowns. He extended his season records to 27 touchdowns and 162 points.

> With four extra points, junior PK Brandon McManus has made 50 consecutive extra points (PAT), a new season record. He surpassed Ron Fioravanti (1979) who made 48 straight.

> Sophomore QB Chris Coyer (8-12-0, 169 yds 1ytd, 12 carries, 71 yds) was named the game's Offensive MVP, while senior LB Tahir Whitehead (11 tackles) earned Defensive MVP honors.

BOCA RATON, Fla. – #24 Temple couldn't complete a fourth-quarter comeback, as the Owls fell to Toledo, 32-17, in a steady downpour at the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl.

Temple's offense was sluggish in the first half, as the Owls were held to just 67 net yards. Toledo racked up 199 yards of offense, 168 in the air, using a safety, two field goals and a touchdown to lead 12-3 at the break.

The Owls were without the services of leading rusher Jahad Thomas, CB Tavon Young and LB Avery Williams, who exited the game at the half. They entered the game without Alex Wells as the first team all-conference safety suffered a hamstring injury earlier in the week.

After the teams traded punts to open up the game, Temple pinned Toledo to their own 1-yard line, giving the Owls good field position after forcing yet another Rockets' punt. Starting at their own 48-yard line, Temple used a 13-play 40-yard drive, ending with a 29-yard Austin Jones field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 1:13 left in the quarter.

Temple forced a three-and-out on Toledo's next possession, but the Rockets got on the board after a fumble from RB Jahad Thomas squirted out of the back of the end zone for a safety.

Leading 3-2, Toledo took the free kick out to their own 45, and took the lead after a five-play 55-yard drive. The score came on a 26-yard touchdown from Phillip Ely to Corey Jones, giving Toledo a 9-3 lead with 12:16 remaining in the second quarter.

Toledo tacked on a field goal as time expired to take a 12-3 lead into halftime. The Rockets forced a three-and-out from Temple, taking over at their own 42-yard line. Two big plays, including a 26-yard pass from Ely to Michael Roberts put Toledo in field goal range, where Jameson Vest made it a nine-point lead with a 38-yard field goal.

Temple opened the second half with an eight-play 67-yard drive, capped by an Austin Jones field goal, cutting the lead to 12-6. A 40-yard pass from QB Phillip Walker to WR Ventell Bryant and a 13-yard rush from Brandon Shippen, set up Jones for a 25-yard FG, his 22nd of the year, setting a new single-season school record. Jones passed Don Bitterlich's 1975 total.

The Owls forced a three-and-out on Toledo's next possession, and then set up yet another Jones field goal. Sean Chandler started the Owls at midfield with a 12-yard punt return and Walker added a 14-yard rush to set up Jones' score, which put Temple within a field goal (12-9) with 6:11 remaining in the third.

The teams traded punts to open the fourth quarter, with Alex Starzyk booting a career-best 71-yarder for Temple. However, the kick was out of the reach of the Temple defense, trickling into the end zone for a touchback. On the next play, Toledo's Ely found Cody Thompson for an 80-yard touchdown, making it 19-9 Rockets with 12:41 to play.

Temple got down to the Toledo 34 on its next possession, but Walker was intercepted by the Rockets' Juwan Haynes at the 26-yard line. From there, Toledo put together a 74-yard drive that took 5:31 off the clock, ending with a 1-yard TD run from Kareem Hunt. The Owls blocked the extra point, setting the score to 25-9 with 5:46 to play.

After the Toledo score, Temple recorded its first touchdown of the game, capping an 11-play, 68-yard drive with a two-yard run from TE Kip Patton. Shippen had two big catches on the drive, and was thrown to as Toledo was flagged for pass interference in the end zone, setting up the touchdown. Temple elected to go for two, and Walker scrambled out of pressure and somehow found Anderson in the end zone, making it an eight-point game, 25-17, with 2:50 on the clock.

Temple went for the onside kick, but the referees signaled that Toledo came up with the ball under a pile of players at midfield. Hunt then tacked on an insurance score for the Rockets, scoring from 41-yards out to put the game out of reach at 32-17 with just 2:29 on the clock.

The Owls had one more possession before the clock ran out, but the drive stalled at the Toledo 27-yard line, ending the game 32-17 in Toledo's favor.

ANNAPOLIS — Facing off in the program's first ever back-to-back postseason appearance, No. 24 Temple came up short, 34-26, against ACC opponent Wake Forest in the Military Bowl Tuesday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Following the loss, the Owls fell to 10-4 (7-1 American) on the season, failing to reach the record 11th win Temple has been chasing these past two seasons. Despite falling behind 31-7 in the first half, Temple came surging back in the second, scoring two touchdowns and three field goals before coming up short on the final drive.

Right out of the gate, Temple showed its resolve on both sides of the ball, initially forcing an interception on the third play from scrimmage to set up the offense in ideal field position. Senior QB Phillip Walker and Co. took advantage one snap later, dropping in a 48-yard dime to junior WR Adonis Jennings, who carried his defender into the end zone.

Unfortunately, the Wake Forest offense woke up two possessions later, scoring on each of their next five drives up to the end of the first half. First, Demon Deacon QB John Wolford found his tight end on a 41-yard pass up the centerline to even the score at seven apiece. Next, after an Owls' three-and-out, Wake Forest drove 54 yards to another end zone appearance, this time a 20-yard pass from Wolford.

A muffed punt by Temple DB Sean Chandler set up the Demon Deacons inside the Owls' 10-yard line, leading to an 8-yard rush for yet-another touchdown. During the second quarter, the Wake Forest onslaught continued, as Wolford led his unit to, first, a field goal before wrapping up the half with a three-yard touchdown rush.

Temple responded in its final possession of the first half, knocking in a 45-yard field goal by freshman Aaron Boumerhi after an 11-play, 54-yard drive.

Similar to how the game began, the Owls' offense saw a spark from Jennings as the second half kicked off, this time watching the junior weave his way through the Demon Deacon defense for a 58-yard score just three snaps in.

The defense held its ground on the ensuing possession, as sophomore DB Delvon Randall intercepted Wake Forest in the end zone to squash any Demon Deacon response. Behind the efforts of Walker and multiple downfield connections, including two perfectly placed darts to sophomore WR Ventell Bryant and junior WR Keith Kirkwood, the Owls set up Boumerhi for his second field goal attempt.

On the following two possessions, after two punts from Wake Forest, Temple looked to Boumerhi yet again, watching the freshman all-conference selection drill his third and fourth field goals of the day from 32 and 38 yards out, cutting the score to under one possession.

Wake Forest extended its lead back to eight points after a field goal of their own, ensuring the Owls would need both a touchdown and two-point conversion to force overtime. Unfortunately for Temple, the offense was unable to convert a first down as the Demon Deacons took over on downs and were able to kneel the ball to secure their victory.

2017 GASPARILLA BOWL

Temple 28, FIU 3
Tropicana Field, St. Petersburg, Fla.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - Battling a resilient FIU squad in a defensive slugfest, Temple managed to never surrender its early lead as the Owls fought their way to a 28-3 victory over the Panthers at the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl in St. Petersburg, Fla. The group effort from Temple's defense paved the way for late offensive success, as the former compiled a bowl-record seven sacks and season-high three turnovers in the win.

Keys to the Game

> Following both offenses suffering through rough starts, Temple QB Frank Nutile and company put together the game's initial scoring drive to open the second quarter. After driving 64 yards over six plays, the redshirt junior decided the conclude the possession himself, fighting his way four yards into the end zone for the 7-0 advantage.

> Neither offense would manage a score for nearly another full quarter until FIU compiled a 12-play, 62-yard drive that concluded with a 27-yard field goal, cutting Temple's lead to 7-3.

> The Owls' offense saw fit to immediately respond to the Panthers' threat on their ensuing possession, putting together a 75-yard drive that culminated with a one-yard rushing score from redshirt junior David Hood for the 14-3 edge. The touchdown would never had happened without elite efforts from Nutile and his receiving corps, as the redshirt junior signal-caller effortlessly helped claw Temple out of a first-and-30 situation behind a pair of pinpoint throws. The true setup, though, came from redshirt senior Adonis Jennings, who despite being tackled to the ground at the one-yard line, managed to reel in a 39-yard reception all while lying nearly prone on his back.

> Following FIU's third turnover of the game - fumble recovery by redshirt junior Freddie Booth-Lloyd - the Owls' offense went to work with excellent field position. Unsurprisingly, Temple quickly took advantage as junior RB Ryquell Armstead powered his way five yards for the touchdown and the game's final score, lifting the Owls to the 28-3 victory.

Game Notes

> The victory serves as the program's first postseason win since the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl where Temple topped Wyoming 37-15.

> Midway through the first quarter with the Owls' offense reeling from a tough turnover (backwards pass ruled a fumble), S Sean Chandler saw fit to grab his third interception of the year on a deep pass deflection. The senior registered the 10th pick of his distinguished career, vaulting him into a tie for seventh all-time in the Temple record books.

> Kwenkeu, who received the first start of his career in place of Bradley, earned his keep at middle linebacker behind some consistent play. The true sophomore recorded the first two sacks of his career and assisted the defense with six tackles on the game.

> Following Nutile's solid performance under center, as he threw for 254 yards and one touchdown on 18-of-28 passing, the redshirt junior was awarded Most Valuable Player (MVP) honors.

> As for head coach Geoff Collins, the win serves as just the second time in Gasparilla Bowl history that a first-year head coach brought home a victory, joining then-Louisville head coach Charlie Strong who did the same in 2010.

> The Temple defense put together seven sacks for the game, good for second-best by the unit this season (9.0 in win over UMass) and a bowl-record.

Klecko ranked as the top tackler in school history following the 1976 season. Another group of stars then arrived on campus that would eventually produce the most successful season in school history. Temple Hall of Famers Anthony Anderson and Steve Watson built that success in 1977 and 1978. The Owls wrapped up both years with a trip to Japan to play in the Mirage Bowl. Tokyo's Korakeun Stadium hosted Temple-Grambling in 1977 and Temple-Boston College in 1978. Running back Zachary Dixon set a single-season school rushing record in the BC game. He finished the year with 1,153 yards on the ground, and the Owls finished with a record of 7-3-1.

The 1979 Season

The 1979 campaign opened with three straight victories before Hardin's squad lost to Pittsburgh, 10-9. The Owls bounced back to rout Rutgers and Syracuse on the way to five straight wins. The 8-1 start had the Owls thinking about a postseason bowl bid in November. A loss to Penn State was followed by a 42-10 rout of Villanova, giving the team a record of 9-2 and securing a berth in the Garden State Bowl. Temple's offense was led by quarterback Brian Broomell, and his top receiving target was Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear, who set several records that year. The defense featured record-setting linebacker Steve Conjar, who had 163 tackles that season and surpassed that mark with 174 stops in 1980.

The Garden State Bowl opponent was California and the matchup painted Temple as the defender of Eastern football. The Owls jumped on the Golden Bears for three touchdowns in the first quarter, with running back Kevin Duckett scoring a pair of touchdowns. California chipped away at the 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns to make it 21-14 at the half. A field goal early in the fourth quarter cut the lead to 21-17. Broomell then led the Owls on a 14-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard TD pass to Lucear. Significant credit for Temple's offensive success went to running back Mark Bright, who totaled 112 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Owls won the game, 28-17, and Bright was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Temple's 10-2 finish to the 1979 season marks the highest single-season win total in school history.

Hardin coached the Owls through the 1982 season, compiling 80 wins in his 13 seasons on North Broad Street. He had the most wins and the longest tenure of any Temple football coach. Bruce Arians took over as head coach in 1983. Arians had been tutored by Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant.

The 1980s and Bruce Arians

The Owls produced some notable wins and notable players in the 1980s. They beat Pittsburgh three times in a four-year span, including one year (1987) in which the Panthers were invited to a bowl game. They also scored victories against bowl-bound squads West Virginia (1984) and Virginia Tech (1986).

Arians also coached Paul Palmer, the most prolific running back in school history. Palmer broke onto the national scene with a 206-yard rushing effort against Penn State in his junior year and continued to break records throughout the season. He holds virtually every Temple rushing record, including those for career rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21) and rushing touchdowns (39).

Palmer couldn't have set all those records without a solid group of teammates. Temple players who earned All-American mention during the 1980s included fellow running back Todd McNair, wide receiver Willie Marshall, tight end Mike Hinnant, defensive back Todd Bowles, linebacker Loranzo Square and offensive linemen Kevin Jones and John Rienstra, who garnered First Team All-America honors in 1985.

The Big East

Jerry Berndt followed Arians as head coach, taking over in 1989. The Owls struggled to a 1-10 finish that season, but then recorded the biggest turnaround in college football and went 7-4 in 1990. Berndt's squad received consideration for the Independence Bowl while putting together the school's best record since the Garden State Bowl season. The following year, Temple helped found the Big East Football Conference, putting the Owls in league competition for the second time in school history.

Ron Dickerson followed Berndt as head coach in 1993. At the time he was hired, Dickerson was the only African-American head football coach of a Division I-A school. Dickerson coached two of the leading tacklers-linebackers Lance Johnstone and Alshermond Singleton, along with the most prolific passer in school history. Henry Burris set more than a dozen records between 1993 and 1996, including a single-game-best 445 yards passing against Pittsburgh in 1996, and he holds nearly every single-season and career passing mark.

On December 23, 1997, Temple University named Bobby Wallace its 23rd head football coach. The Mississippi native arrived on North Broad Street as the winningest coach in NCAA Division II playoff history after capturing three consecutive national titles at the University of North Alabama from 1993-95. In his first season, Wallace assembled a staff collectively holding 18 national championship rings and persevered through an injury-plagued season with 25 first-year players in the lineup en route to a 2-9 finish.

One of those victories occurred on October 17, 1998, and is arguably one of the greatest upsets in college football history. Before a homecoming crowd the 0-6 Owls traveled to No. 10/14 Virginia Tech to take on the Hokies' top ranked defense. Substituting for 12 defensive players who exited the game due to injury and with 20 first-year players on the field, Temple overcame a 17-0 deficit en route to a 28-24 win. The victory marked the Owls' first-ever Big East road win and first triumph over a ranked opponent in 11 years. Two games later the Owls proved the win was not an aberration. Trailing 20-0 at Pittsburgh, Temple ground out a 34-33 victory to ensure the program's largest comeback win in the modern era.

With a new, pass-oriented offense, the 1999 team posted a 2-9 record and finished tied for sixth in the Big East. The Owls struggled early with a schedule that allowed only two home dates in the first seven games and ranked 13th in difficulty. A come-from-behind, 17-14, homecoming win against then undefeated Boston College and a 56-28 offensive explosion over Rutgers were the highlights. Devin Scott completed 36 of 45 passes versus Rutgers to set both school and Big East records for completions in a game. Defensively, true freshman Dan Klecko earned All-America honors from various publications while linebackers Taylor Suman and LeVar Talley ranked second and fifth, respectively, in the conference in tackles.

The 2000 season began with much anticipation. With its new state-of-the-art practice facility under construction, Temple began the campaign with a 3-1 mark, its best start in 10 years. For the first time in a long time, the Owls had something to play for in November. Unfortunately, Temple lost many tight contests and could muster only one conference victory. Although the goal of a bowl game was not reached, the Owls finished with a 4-7 mark, the program's best since 1990. Sophomore running back Tanardo Sharps became the first Owl since 1987 to rush for over 1,000 yards, accumulating 1,038.

In 2001, Temple battled through a tough schedule en route to its second straight 4-7 record and a 2-5 Big East mark to finish in sixth place. All seven of the Owls' losses were to teams that ended their respective seasons bowl eligible, with a combined .750 (63-21) winning percentage. The strength of the 2001 squad was on defense, where Temple limited opponents to 312.64 yards per game to finish 19th nationally in total defense. The Owls concluded the season with two consecutive wins, including a 17-14 win in Morgantown, W.V., to break a 10-game drought against the Mountaineers. Juniors Dan Klecko and Sean Dillard earned first and second team All-Big East honors, respectively. Klecko was a unanimous choice, becoming Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree since the school joined the league as a charter member in 1991.

The 2002 Temple football team was composed entirely of players recruited during Wallace's tenure at Temple University. The Owls concluded the campaign with a 4-8 record, including a 2-5 mark in Big East play to finish tied for sixth place. Seven of Temple's eight losses were against opponents that concluded their respective seasons by playing in bowl games.

Once again, the defense paved the way, leading the Big East and placing 15th nationally in run defense, allowing just 108.3 yards on the ground per game. Temple also made its mark in total defense, placing 18th among all Division I programs by allowing just 315.67 yards per contest. Defensive tackle Dan Klecko was a major cog in TU's defensive machine and capped his senior campaign by being named the Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an AP Second Team All-American.

Tanardo Sharps gained 1,267 yards on the ground to conclude his career ranked second to Paul Palmer in virtually every Temple rushing category while Sean Dillard exited Owl Country as the team's all-time reception leader.

FACILITIES

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

Lincoln Financial Field

Lincoln Financial Field, home to the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles, is a prime destination for world-class entertainment, providing the highest quality sports and entertainment experiences for fans in a safe, clean and friendly environment. In addition to Temple Football's home games, Lincoln Financial Field hosts 10 Eagles games each year and continues to showcase high-profile sporting events and unique experiences year-round. Since opening in August 2003, Lincoln Financial Field has hosted nearly 20 sold-out concerts, has welcomed some of the world's most distinguished soccer clubs and also serves as the home to the historic Army-Navy game. Additionally, the stadium has hosted multiple NCAA Lacrosse Championships, as well as Monster Jam and many other marquee events.

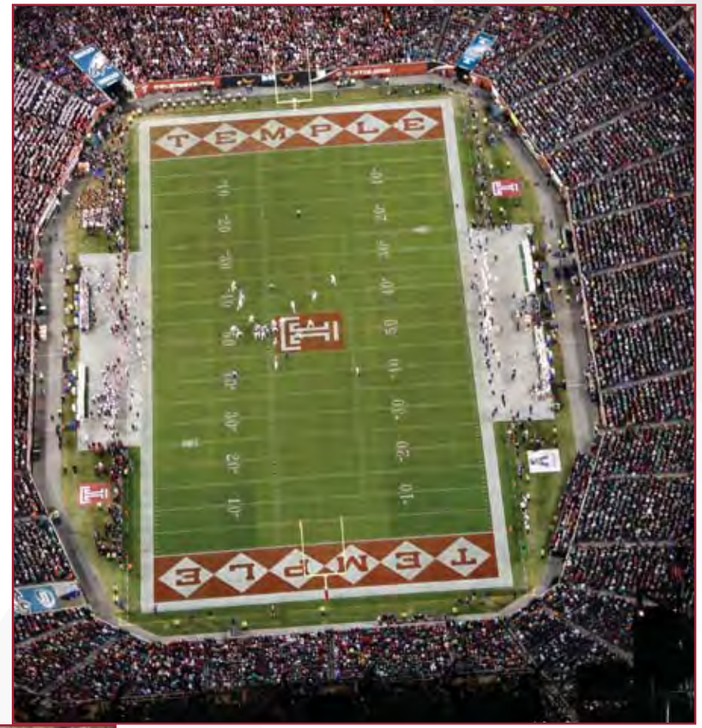
On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

In 2015, Temple set a record with an average of 44,158 spectators per game including a record home crowd of 69,280 on October 31 when the #21 Owls hosted #9 Notre Dame in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked game.

Familiarly known as The Linc, it has a seating capacity of 69,596. The stadium is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of on-site wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

In August 2014, the Eagles completed a $125 million revitalization project to ensure that guests of Lincoln Financial Field are enjoying their in-stadium experience through enhanced convenience, comfort and connectivity.



Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opened in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-square-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the length of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

In 2014, Edberg Olson received a facelift. As part of a $1.5 million capital project that upgraded the locker rooms for all 19 Temple varsity sports, the football facility installed 125 new lockers and flatscreen televisions. In addition, updated graphics adorn the walls throughout the hallways and in the weight room.

The S.T.A.R. Complex

Temple University's new $28.5 million, 110,000 square foot Student Training and Recreation (STAR) Complex, a multipurpose academic, athletics and recreation facility, has been named for dining-services partner Aramark.

The complex provides the football team with an indoor facility to use throughout the winter and when weather prevents outdoor practice during the season.

Construction on the complex, which began in May 2016, was completed in August 2017. The facility offers labs for the College of Public Health, a 10,000 square foot weight and cardio area, facilities and offices for the Athletics and Campus Recreation departments, an indoor 70-yard synthetic turf field, and a 2-lane track outside the building.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

RICHARD M. ENGLERT

President
41st Year at Temple

Accessible. High quality. Engaged with the community. Affordable. Diverse. Those are the pillars of Richard M. Englert's presidency. They are also the values he has championed at Temple University for more than 40 years.

After serving Temple with loyalty and distinction in 16 different roles since 1976, Englert became president on July 21, 2016. Under his leadership, the university welcomed its largest and most academically qualified class of new students and broke records for freshman applications. It also began major campus renovations, highlighted by a state-of-the-art library. At the same time, Temple's faculty gained unprecedented national recognition, and its student-athletes reached new levels of success on the field and off.

"I can say without reservation that there has never been a better time to be part of the Temple family, whether you are a student, faculty member, administrator or alumnus," Englert said. "We have a strong dedication to our mission and an unrelenting commitment to our students, our neighbors and our great city."

Englert arrived at Temple as an assistant to the dean of the College of Education. Over the years, he has been provost and interim senior vice president for academic affairs, dean of the College of Education and vice president for administration, among many other roles. Since 1985, he has served as a professor in the College of Education.

Throughout his career, Englert has always responded to Temple's call. In recognition of his lifelong dedication, the Board of Trustees appointed him to the honorific role of university chancellor in 2012.

"President Englert has devoted his life to Temple University," said Board of Trustees Chair Patrick J. O'Connor. "Over the course of his 40-year-plus career at Temple, he has earned a reputation as an outstanding teacher, administrator and leader who always puts the needs of our students first."

Englert earned a doctorate in educational administration from the University of California, Los Angeles. He also has a master's degree from Pepperdine University and a bachelor's degree from St. John's College.

As Temple's president, Englert has focused the university on its historic commitments: engaging with the city of Philadelphia; producing research that improves lives, including work on opioid abuse and traumatic brain injury; and energizing the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Most of all, as a lifelong educator, Englert takes every opportunity to empower Temple's inspiring students and faculty.

"Temple has proved that excellence in education, access, affordability, diversity and community engagement are not mutually exclusive," Englert said. "That's what we've done better than anyone else for more than 130 years. It is who we are and it is the dedication to our mission that will make Temple an even greater institution in the years to come."

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

DR. PATRICK KRAFT

Director of Athletics
5th Year at Temple

Since his appointment as Director of Athletics in May 2015, after serving two years as Deputy Director of Athletics, Dr. Patrick Kraft has led a transformation in Temple University's Department of Athletics. During his tenure, investments and enhancements in student-athlete welfare, in support of coaches and staff, in academic support and in facilities have provided deserved regional and national attention for the University.

In 2016, Kraft was recognized by the Sports Business Journal and by the Philadelphia Business Journal's Forty Under 40 for his work at Temple.

In 2018, Kraft was appointed to a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Strategic Vision and Planning Committee.

On the Field

Football won the 2016 American Athletic Conference Championship, marking its first Conference Championship since 1967 and first Conference Championship Game ever; won 20 games in a two-year span, was nationally-ranked for consecutive seasons and competed in a bowl game in consecutive seasons, all for first time in school history; and football is one of five FBS teams to win 10 or more games in each of the past two seasons and play in its conference championship game in each year. The Owls finished off the 2017 season with a win in the Gasparilla Bowl. It was the fourth consecutive season that Football was bowl eligible, and the third straight year for competing in a bowl game. Both are program records.
Men's Basketball won its first American Athletic Conference Regular Season title (2016), and first regular season title since 2012; defeated nationally ranked teams (#24 Florida State, #19 West Virginia) in consecutive days for the first time in school history to win the 2016 NIT Season Tip-Off and earned a berth in the 2016 NCAA Tournament, marking its seventh appearance in nine years.
Women's Basketball cracked the Top 25 in 2017 for the first time since the 2005-06 season and made its first NCAA appearance in five years.
Volleyball finished #47 in NCAA RPI in 2016, its best finish since the 2002 season and posted its third straight 20-win season. In 2017, Volleyball advanced to postseason play for the first time in 15 years with a bid to the WNIVC.
Men's Soccer cracked the Top 25 in 2015 for the first time since 1997 and posted its first road win over Penn State since 1989.
Women's Lacrosse made an appearance in the Top 20 in 2016 for the first time since 2005.
Women's Gymnastics posted its best 10 scores in program history during the 2016-17 season and sent its first individual qualifier since 2009, Daisy Todd, to NCAA Regionals. In 2018, the Owls reached theird highest national ranking (#13) in program history.
Women's Fencing set a school record for wins in 2017 and earned its' highest ever ranking (#6). In 2018, Malia Hee was named the NCAA's Elite 90 Award recipient for academic and athletic excellence.
Men's Crew won the Varsity Eight, the JV Eight and the Freshman Eight championships at the 2018 Dad Vail Regatta. It is believed to be the first sweep of the eights at the Dad Vail in 50 years. The Varsity Eight set a course record of 5:34.409 and won Dad Vail gold for the first time since 2004. With the victory, the V8 earned an invitation to participate in the Henley Royal Regatta in Henley-on-Thames, U.K., for the first time since 1994.
Women's Soccer posted consecutive double-digit win seasons (2014, 2015) for the first time in program history.
Blanca Fernandez became the first ever All-American in Temple Women's Cross Country history and first women's track All-American since 1988. Men's Cross Country won its first-ever IC4A Championship and placed third in the AAC Championships, the best AAC finish in program history.

In the Classroom

Student-athletes achieved a record seven consecutive semesters with a combined GPA of 3.10 or above and 13consecutive semesters above a 3.0. Sixteen programs earned a cumulative GPA greater than 3.0, led by women's volleyball (3.58) and men's tennis (3.46). Twelve of those programs combined for GPAs above a 3.40.
Men's Basketball, Men's Cross Country, Football, Men's Golf, Men's Soccer, Women's Cross Country, Fencing, Field Hockey, Lacrosse, Women's Rowing, Women's Soccer, Women's Tennis, Women's Track & Field and Volleyball (16 out of 19 sports) have achieved record team GPAs in the past six semesters.
Sixty-nine percent of student-athletes earned at least a 3.0 GPA in the spring of 2017, setting a Temple Athletics record. Another record was set with seven teams earning public recognition for their Academic Performance Rate (APR) data. In the spring of 2018, an all-time record 178 student-athletes earned a semester GPA of 3.5+ as well as a record number of 27 student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0 semester GPA.
With an average multi-year APR of 991, Temple ranked 12th in the nation among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions and led all full members of the American Athletic Conference in 2017. Temple also is one of just 17 FBS institutions with all sports having multi-year APR's of 970 or greater.
Student-athletes posted a record high 88% Graduation Success Rate (GSR), setting a school-record for the seventh consecutive year. Temple also posted its highest Federal Graduation Rate (71%) since 2010. Temple's overall GSR number is tied for 24th among all Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools. Football posted a GSR of 86, tied for 14th in the nation along with Nebraska and Miami (Fla.). Temple is one of 11 FBS schools in the country with all teams over 77 in GSR. The other 10 schools are Alabama, Duke, Michigan, Northwestern, Notre Dame, Stanford, Tulane, UCF, Vanderbilt and Virginia Tech.
Eight programs have earned record high GSRs in the last two years: Football, Men's Basketball, Men's Golf, Men's Soccer, Men's Tennis, Fencing, Women's Lacrosse, Women's Tennis.
Temple teams earned three conference Team Academic Excellence Awards in 2015-2016: Men's Basketball, Volleyball, Lacrosse (Big East).
The Graduating Class of 2016 was the largest in Temple Athletics history.

Student-Athlete Welfare

Facilitated the development of a number of initiatives aimed at improving the mental health of student-athletes, including the establishment of a partnership with Temple's Department of Clinical Psychology to deliver onsite behavioral health coaching for student-athletes. Partnered with the University's Student Health Services so its staff can be a resource for all student-athletes.
Hired the first full-time mental health professional dedicated solely to handling student-athlete needs.
Instituted a career program with more than 50 national and regional employers attending career development events, during which student-athletes have the opportunity to hone their networking skills and establish professional connections.
The Verified Program was developed in 2016 to provide student-athletes with access to high level professionals to assist in their professional growth. The Verified program is a product of a strong collaboration between the Resnick Center and the Temple Career Center, which provides regular programming and career coaching for student-athletes throughout the academic year and summer.
Students have served more than 9,000 community service hours in 65 projects since 2014-2015, four times more than in previous periods.

Enhancing Facilities

The newly restored East Park Canoe House, home to men's crew and women's rowing, opened in 2016.
New practice facility for Men's Golf opened in 2017.
New practice facilities for Men's Crew, Women's Rowing and Women's Fencing were opened in the Fall of 2018.
In the Winter of 2018, Temple opened the New York City Angels Student-Athlete Lounge, an on-campus location in which student-athletes can study, interact and relax.
Enhancements have been made to athletic training facilities, strength and conditioning facilities, and to the student-athlete academic support center while locker room renovations and upgrades were also completed for each varsity team, including new locker rooms for Temple's Olympic sports programs unveiled in 2015.
Temple Athletics opened the doors to the brand-new STAR (Student Training and Recreation) Complex in the fall of 2017. The Complex offers a 10,000 square foot weight and cardio area, facilities for the Athletics and Campus Recreation departments, an indoor turf field, and a two-lane track outside the building.

Enhancing Revenue and the Brand

Annual donations have increased 75% over the last three years and the development office has had three consecutive record-setting years in annual fund raising, including multiple six and seven-figure commitments in support of our football program, the new Temple Owls Sports Complex, and the Men's Crew and Women's Rowing programs.
Key partnerships with Learfield Sports Properties, Learfield Licensing Partners, and IMG/Learfield Ticket Solutions have been secured and enhanced as well as a lucrative rights deal with Under Armour.
Created Owls TV, a video services arm dedicated to athletics, and developed a broad-ranging digital and social media department to integrate video and engage the Temple fan base.
Prior to Temple, Kraft served two years (2011-13) as the Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director at Loyola University Chicago. He was also a member of the senior staff at his alma mater, Indiana University, serving as Senior Assistant Director from 2009-11.

Kraft played football as an undergraduate at Indiana and holds three degrees from the University. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports marketing/management (2000), a master's degree in athletic administration (2005), and a doctorate in sports management (2008).

Kraft and his wife, Betsy, reside in Haddonfield, N.J., with their daughter, Annabelle, and son, Joseph.

SENIOR ADMINISTRATORS

CRAIG ANGELOS

Deputy Director of Athletics
3rd Year at Temple

TWITTER: @cwangelos

Craig Angelos is in his third year as Temple University's Deputy Director of Athletics. Angelos joined the Owls staff in June of 2015.

At Temple, Angelos works with the Owls external team that includes the communications, corporate sales (Learfield), creative services, development, marketing and promotions, social and digital media, ticket operations, ticket sales (IMGL), video services, and strategic planning. He also serves as the sports supervisor for men's basketball, field hockey, men's soccer and golf.

Angelos, who has served on the athletics senior staff at five different Division I institutions as well as the NCAA national office, came to Temple from Florida International University where he served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Revenue Enhancement from 2014-15. While at FIU, he was responsible for finding new revenue sources for the athletic department and engaging in all aspects of development activities, while helping overall fundraising to a 20% increase.

Before his stint at FIU, Angelos was the number two person as the Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of South Florida, overseeing all external areas as well as having oversight of the football program.

Prior to USF, Angelos served nine years as the Director of Athletics at Florida Atlantic University from 2003-2012. At FAU, he led the effort to build a $70 million, 30,000 seat on campus football facility, which opened on campus in 2011.

Angelos also held number two positions as the Deputy Athletic Director and Chief Operating Officer at Indiana University overseeing all the external areas as well as the football program and was the Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of Miami (Fla.). Prior to his tenure at Miami, Angelos spent three years at the NCAA as a legislative assistant interpreting NCAA rules and regulations.

A graduate of the Creighton University School of Law, Angelos worked for a short time in a mid-sized litigation firm in Los Angeles, Calif. He earned his bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University where he was the starting first basemen on the baseball team, and later played in Buttrio, Italy for an Italian professional baseball league.

Angelos and his wife, Kristin, have six children.

MARY McELROY

Executive Sr. Assoc. AD / SWA

Mary McElroy is in her fourth year as Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator (SWA) at Temple.

At Temple she coordinates the overall administration of varsity sports and serves as the primary sport administrator for women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's track, fencing, and volleyball. She also oversees Temple's sports medicine, mental health, and strength and conditioning staffs.

McElroy joined the Owls' staff in July 2015 from the Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in Atlanta, Ga., where she served as the Director for Partner Services. A majority of her work saw her responsible for 65 of the 150 Division I member institutions served by the company.

Prior to her experience at CLC, McElroy served as the Associate Director of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship in 2013. Her duties at the NCAA included the management of a $6 million budget for the event, as well as directing the game day operations during the Women's Final Four.

McElroy has served on the staff of five different NCAA schools. She also served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director and SWA at Southern Methodist University in 2009, and was the Director of Athletics at Georgia State University from 2005 to 2008. McElroy served in various other roles at Georgia Tech from 1999 to 2005, including Senior Associate Athletic Director and Director of Compliance.

McElroy got her start in college athletics at her alma mater, the United States Naval Academy. She spent three years with the Naval Academy Athletic Association as SWA and Assistant Athletic Director, before a stint as the Academy's Director of Alumni Services.

A former Division I varsity basketball player, McElroy earned a degree with merit from the Naval Academy in 1987. After graduation, she served as a supply officer in the U.S. Marine Corps for five years, attaining the rank of Captain. McElroy completed her MBA at Georgia Tech in 2000.

VINNIE JAMES

Chief of Staff (Football Administrator)

TWITTER: @VinJames33

Vinnie James, who joined the Temple Athletics staff in July, 2014, was promoted to the position of Associate Athletics Director/Chief of Staff in June 2017. He previously held the position of Assistant Athletics Director for Business Operations.

In his new role, James will provide high-level support to the Director of Athletics by handling special projects, conducting research and facilitating comparative analyses. In addition, James will serve as the sport administrator for the football program and will continue monitoring operating budgets for the department's 19 sport programs and administrative areas.

James came to Temple from La Salle University where he spent two years as Athletics Business Manager for the Explorers. He was solely responsible for executing the daily business operations for La Salle's athletics department. James distributed monthly budget reports for all sports and departments, and assisted in the overall budget planning for the department.

Prior to his time at La Salle, James spent a year at Villanova University as an intern in the Athletic Director's office. His responsibilities at Villanova were widely varied, and included working with the business office as well as providing administrative support and serving as event manager for women's soccer.

James is a 2007 graduate of Bloomsburg University with a bachelor's degree in political science. He was a four-year varsity starter and two-year team captain for Bloomsburg's baseball team, and he went on to earn a master's in business administration from Bloomsburg in 2009. While completing the MBA program, James served as a graduate assistant baseball coach.

JEREMY JORDAN

Faculty Athletic Representative
10th Year at Temple (4th as FAR)

TWITTER: @Jeremy_S_Jordan

Dr. Jeremy S. Jordan, Associate Dean, in the School of Sport, Tourism and Hospitality Management, was appointed the university's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) in May, 2015.

Faculty Athletics Representatives help ensure academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics programs and enhance the student-athlete experience. Jordan serves as the representative of Temple and its faculty to the American Athletic Conference, NCAA and other stakeholder groups.

A former student athlete, coach and administrator, Jordan has conducted research on intercollegiate athletics and teaches courses on the topic at the undergraduate and graduate levels. His primary research focus is on sport engagement as he studies the individual and community level impact of sport participation and events. He has worked with a number of industry partners including the NCAA, NFL, PHL Sport and Under Armour Japan. He is currently the principal investigator on a study funded by the NCAA that examines the relative consistency of sanctions issued by its Committee on Infractions over the last 50 years.

In March of 2016, Jordan along with the other FARs of the American Conference hosted the first Academic Consortium Symposium on student-athlete well-being in Philadelphia. This American Academic Consortium, formed in 2015, is charged with creating collaborative research opportunities for faculty, staff, and students from all American member institutions.

The FAR reports directly to the president and is the president's senior advisor outside of the athletics department on matters related to intercollegiate athletics. The FAR also advises the athletics director.

In collaboration with Temple Athletic Director Dr. Patrick Kraft, Jordan developed a two-year experiential learning extern program in the athletics department for School of Sport, Tourism, and Hospitality Management graduate students.

Jordan has also served as a member of the Faculty Senate Athletics Oversight Committee and the Nancy and Donald Resnick Academic Support Center Faculty Advisory Committee. Starting in June of 2017, Jordan will serve as the FAR representative to American Conference SAAC group.

HARRY DONAHUE

Radio Play-By-Play
23rd Year at Temple

TWITTER: @harydona

The 2016 season marks Harry Donahue's 23rd consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979 before retiring in 2014. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor.

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles preseason games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, Pa., and have three sons and five grandchildren.

PAUL PALMER

Radio Color Analyst
5th Year at Temple

TWITTER: @PaulPalmer_6

In 2013, former Temple All-American running back Paul Palmer (1983-86) added the job of color analysis for the Temple Radio Network for all football game broadcasts to his list of accomplishments.

For Palmer it was a return to radio. He served as the Owls' sideline reporter for four seasons (2001-04). Palmer replaced 1974 Maxwell Award winner Steve Joachim, who had to step aside following 13 years as the color analyst for Temple Football due to increased work commitments with his full-time position.

A unanimous first-team All-American in 1986, his senior season, Palmer led the nation in rushing yards (1,866), rushing yards per game (169.6) and all-purpose yards (2,633) that season. Named 1986 ECAC Player of the Year, Palmer set 23 school records and remains the Owls' career leader in rushing attempts (935), rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21), and 200-yard rushing games (6).

Palmer finished second in the 1986 Heisman Trophy race to Miami QB Vinny Testaverde. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2018 and will be officially inducted in December of 2018.

A native of Potomac, Md., Palmer was a first round draft pick by the Kansas City Chiefs where he led the AFC in kickoff return average (24.3 yards per attempt) as a rookie and rushed for 607 yards in two seasons.

Palmer, who resides in Lawnside, N.J., has served as an assistant football coach at Haddon Heights High School for the last eight seasons.

MORGYN SEIGFRIED

OwlsTV
5th Year at Temple

TWITTER: @mlseigfried

Morgyn Seigfried, who has grown the Temple Athletics digital media presence exponentially in her four years at the University, currently serves as the Assistant Athletics Director for Digital Media.

In her role, Seigfried focuses on building and marketing the Temple Athletics brand through the power of social media. She manages and oversees all social platforms, creates graphics for digital channels, pushes relevant/timely content that highlights the achievements of all Temple teams, and most importantly, engages and grows the Temple fan base.

Since starting in 2014 as the first full-time digital media employee within the athletic department, Seigfried has worked diligently to increase the Temple social media accounts.

Along with her behind-the-scenes responsibilities for digital media at Temple, Seigfried is a frequent presence on camera for OwlsTV. Her broadcasting role includes interviews with coaches and student-athletes on Temple's football and basketball teams as well as introducing numerous features for the Owls' video department.

Seigfried was a four-year soccer player at Temple, and graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism in 2013. She left North Philadelphia after being hired at Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tenn., where she spent a year as the athletics content and marketing manager.

On the Airwaves
Temple University and its media rights holder, Temple Sports Properties, will produce a radio broadcast of all football games. This season, the broadcast can be heard on 97.5 The Fanatic. The Fanatic, a Greater Media station powered by ESPN, is Philadelphia's first FM sports station and is home to the Philadelphia Flyers and Philadelphia 76ers. For additional information about The Fanatic and to listen online, log on to the station's website at: www.975thefanatic.com

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Athletic Communications staff.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Geoff Collins and select players will be available for brief interviews following daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the last 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please visit www.OwlSports.com. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Press Conferences
Geoff Collins' weekly media gathering is held each Tuesday at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor). Please check the weekly gamenotes for schedule.

Game Day
Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Football Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by e-mail (rich.burg@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Rich Burg in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-0876 for availability.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

Media Will-Call / Entrance

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed across the lobby (to the right of the Touchdown Club). Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to the Temple Athletic Communications staff and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Despite one victory, there were many positives to the 2003 campaign under Wallace. First and foremost was the University's agreement with the Philadelphia Eagles for Temple to play its home games at Lincoln Financial Field. It marked the first time since 1991 the Owls played all their home games at the same site. Temple's first five games at the venue drew an average 24,147 fans, a 21 percent increase from the prior season's average.

After battling through a school-record three overtime defeats in the early season, the Owls concluded the year with three, hard-fought losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Highlighting the final trio of games was the performance of sophomore quarterback Walter Washington, who averaged 315 yards of total offense and was responsible for eight touchdowns.

Along the way, Washington tied the school record for rushing scores with four at West Virginia and also set the Big East mark for total plays with 69 against the Mountaineers. He also became the first Temple signal caller to rush for over 100 yards in a game, eclipsing the mark versus Virginia Tech and at WVU.

Among the postseason honors to come to North Broad Street was a Second Team All-America citation for sophomore linebacker Rian Wallace from CollegeFootballNews.com. The Pottstown, Pa., native had the sixth-best single-season tackle output in Temple history, posting 148 tackles (97 solo) while also registering 19.5 TFLs.

Wallace was also a Second Team All-Big East honoree and was joined by senior wide receiver Zamir Cobb, who was a first team selection. Cobb, the Owls' all-time reception leader with 165 career catches, set the school's single-season reception mark with 74 catches for 866 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Temple concluded its 2004 campaign with a 2-9 mark, including a 1-5 league record in its final season as a member of the Big East Conference. Final NCAA rankings rated the Owls' schedule the 16th toughest in major football (60-43, .583). Six of 11 opponents were nationally-ranked at some point during the season and 10 were at least in the “receiving votes” category. Eight opponents concluded their 2004 campaigns by playing in bowl games.

Despite a multitude of adversity, Temple gave its fans reason to cheer. Many of those cheers were in response to performances turned-in by QB Walter Washington. The junior was the top scorer among Division I-A QBs with an 8.36 scoring average and led the nation in rushing TDs by a signal-caller during the regular season with 15, setting the Big East record for a QB and tying the Temple mark for total scores in a season.

Washington led the Big East with a 281.5 total yards-per-game average (3,096 total), to become Temple's first 3,000-yard player. He set a Big East and Temple record for yards rushing by a QB in a season with 889 net yards (1,104 total) and was responsible for the Owls' final 16 TDs, while accounting for 25 of 29 (86%) overall. Washington led the Big East and ranked 11th nationally in total offense (281.5), 22nd in point responsibility (13.82) and 21st in scoring. He set the Big East and Temple record for total plays with 554.

Washington, the Big East 2004 Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com, was named to the All-Big East Second Team in a vote by the league's head coaches. He was joined on the all-conference squad by fellow juniors Rian “Goo” Wallace and Mike Mendenhall, who earned first and second team honors, respectively. After the season, Washington and Wallace both decided to forgo their senior seasons and enter the 2005 NFL Draft.

A Difficult Independence

Temple faced the 11th most difficult schedule in Division I-A in 2005, according to the NCAA statistical rankings, and was winless for the first time since 1959 (0-9) with a 0-11 record. It marked the final season at the helm for head coach Bobby Wallace, who concluded his eight-year Temple tenure with a 19-71 overall mark. The Owls played as a I-A independent.

Prior to the start of the season, the Owls' schedule was recognized for its degree of difficulty on a national scale in the pages of Sports Illustrated. A four-page spread penned by Franz Lidz deemed the docket as “arguably the most brutal in the country.” Unfortunately for the Cherry & White faithful, the proclamation held true. The combined record of Temple's 11 opponents was 83-46 and seven played in postseason bowls, with six earning victories. Ten opponents concluded their regular season bowl eligible. The only Temple foe to post a losing record was ACC member Maryland at 5-6.

The Golden Years

Temple named Al Golden the 24th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2005. A Colts Neck, N.J., native and Penn State gridiron alumnus, Golden arrived on North Broad Street after having spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Virginia. At age 37, he entered his first season on the Cherry & White sideline as the fourth-youngest head coach in Division I-A football.

The 2006 season was difficult but beneficial. The team played the most true freshmen in the nation, with 22 taking the field. In total, 39 players saw their first major college football action, including 27 freshmen overall. These rookies did so against an ambitious schedule that ranked as the third toughest in the nation, with eight foes earning bowl invitations.

The first win of the Golden Era happened on Saturday, October 28 against Bowling Green at Lincoln Financial Field. The 28-14 victory earned Temple runner-up for Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week honors behind Oregon State. The Owls snapped a 20-game game losing streak with a gutsy performance highlighted by a multitude of big plays.

The Mid-American Conference

In his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most freshmen while guiding the Owls to four wins on the season, all in conference play, during their inaugural season of Mid-American Conference play. Temple won four games, the most wins since the 2002 season and equal to the wins from the prior four seasons combined. The four league wins were the most for Temple in 40 years. The Owls finished the 2007 campaign at 4-8 overall and 4-4 in MAC play.

Led by All-MAC honorees Andre Neblett and Dominique Harris, the Temple defense ranked atop the MAC in five statistical categories, including total defense, and finished ranked No. 1 nationally in red zone defense.

In 2008, Golden led the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades, finishing at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC to tie for second in the East Division. Temple out-scored its opponents for the season for the first time since 1990 and was so close to eight wins, falling in three games on the very last play.

The Owls led the nation in kickoff returns as a team, and senior All-MAC KOR Travis Shelton was the national leader individually.

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Al Golden, Temple recorded one of the best seasons in school history in 2009. The Owls finished 9-4 overall while tying for first place in the Mid-American Conference East Division at 7-1. TU advanced to the 2009 EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

TU made school history with nine consecutive wins in a single season. Recording its first winning season since 1990 and becoming bowl eligible for the first time since 1990, Temple made its third bowl appearance in school history and first in 30 years.

The 2009 squad, featuring Golden's first recruiting class as seniors, set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 29, surpassing 26 rushing TDs by the 1973 and 1979 teams. In all, Temple re-wrote 18 school season records and 11 game records in 2009.

Rookie RB Bernard Pierce earned several All-America honors during his freshman campaign, including CollegeFootballNews.com Honorable Mention All-American and College FootballNews.com Freshman All-American.

2018 American Coaches Weekly Teleconference

The American Athletic Conference football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning Monday, August 27. The call will take place each Monday during the season. Each coach will be available for approximately 10 minutes. Media members who wish to access the teleconference should contact Chuck Sullivan to receive the dial-in number. The call begins promptly at 11:00am.

For those who are not able to participate during the live teleconference, an archive of Monday's call will be available on the conference website at www.TheAmerican.org.

Weekly Releases & Statistics

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chuck Sullivan.

Video Content

The American audio and video content — including game highlights and coaches' press conferences — is available to interested broadcast outlets through the XOS Digital XChange platform. Send an email request to Chuck Sullivan to receive access to the content.

Postseason Awards

All-American Athletic Conference First and Second Teams, Players of the Year on offense, defense and special teams, Rookie of the Year and Coach of the Year are selected by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced in December 2017. The American All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the past academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in July. The American Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.

Weekly Awards

The American names offensive, defensive and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by the conference school's sports information directors.

Conference Championship Game

On Saturday, December 1, 2018, the American Athletic Conference will hold its fourth Conference Championship Game. Kickoff will be at 12:00 noon and will be televised nationally by ABC or ESPN. The game will pit the divisional champions from the East and West divisions.

The divisional champions will be the teams from each division with the highest winning percentage in all conference games – both divisional and non-divisional. In the event of a two-team tie within a division, the head-to-head result between the tied teams will determine the divisional champion. The site of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship will be the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games.

Commissioner Mike Aresco

The Owls swept the Mid-American Conference honors as well. Pierce was named the Freshman of the Year, sophomore DE Adrian Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Year, and head coach Al Golden was named the Coach of the Year. A school record 15 Temple football players were named All-MAC, including a school record eight first-team honorees.

In his fifth and final season with the Owls, Al Golden guided Temple to an 8-4 overall record and 5-3 in the MAC in 2010. Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation.

The Owls' 10-game home win streak at Lincoln Financial Field was the longest since the stadium opened in 2003 and tied the longest home win streak in school history of 10 games from the 1972-74 seasons at Temple and Veterans Stadiums.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors.

The Addazio Era

On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio was named Temple University's 25th head football coach.

In his first season in 2011, Addazio guided the Owls to an 9-4 overall record and a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division en route to their second bowl appearance in three years. Temple defeated Wyoming, 37-15, in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The all-time winningest first-year coach in school history, Addazio mentored 10 All-MAC selections, including first-team honorees OL Pat Boyle, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, and TE Evan Rodriguez. The Owls' defense dominated the MAC, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense.

Addazio's offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324).

Off the field, the Temple football players were recognized as the 2011 Most Valuable Players by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure for their community service efforts.

A Return to the Big East

On March 7, 2012, the Big East Conference announced that Temple would begin play in the league beginning with the 2012 football season.

In his second season in 2012, Addazio led Temple to a 4-7 overall record and 2-5 (tie for 6th) record in Big East play. The Owls returned to the Big East Conference after a seven -year absence and won back-to-back league games for a 2-0 start in Big East play, both for the first time in school history. True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was named to the 2012 Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America Team.

Six Temple Owls earned 2012 All-Big East honors, including senior Matt Brown who was named the Special Teams Player of the Year, and true freshman LB Tyler Matakevich who took home Rookie of the Year honors. Earning first team All-Conference honors were senior RB Montel Harris, Brown at return specialist, and senior Brandon McManus at punter. Second-team accolades went to senior OL Martin Wallace, McManus at place-kicker, senior DL John Youboty, and Matakevich. A total of 31 Temple Owls were named to the 2012 Big East All-Academic Team.

The Owls made history in their final non-conference game. Senior RB Montel Harris had a career day, rushing for 351 yards and seven touchdowns — both Big East and school records — to lead the Owls to a 63-32 win at Army. The 63 points scored tied the Temple NCAA Division I-A record set back in 1973 in a win over Holy Cross. The Owls also established a new team record for rushing yards with 534, breaking the old mark set in 1977 against Drake (477 yards), just two yards shy of the Big East mark. The nine rushing touchdowns were a new Big East and school record.

Harris was not the only record-breaking Owl as senior PK Brandon McManus surpassed Bernard Pierce as the Owls' all-time scoring leader.

New Coach, New Conference, New Expectations

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule was named Temple University's 26th head football coach. No stranger to Temple after six seasons as an assistant under Golden and Addazio, Rhule returned to take the reins after eight months in the NFL coaching ranks.

In March 2013, the Big East formally announced a separation with its basketball schools. On September 6, 2013, when Temple hosted the University of Houston, the football schools began play under a new name, the American Athletic Conference.

The Rhule Era got off to a slow start getting out of the gates with a 0-6 record and finishing 2013 at 2-10. However, true freshman Phillip Walker took over at quarterback on October 11 at Cincinnati which started a streak of 47 straight starts for the Elizabeth, N.J. native who would go on to re-write the Temple record books.

Temple opened the 2014 season with a road win at Vanderbilt for its first win against an SEC opponent since 1938. Along the way Temple posted its largest margin of victory in nearly half a century beating Delaware State 59-0, but the season was highlighted by a 20-10 win against #21 ECU, the first Temple win over a ranked team in 16 seasons. A 6-6 overall record in 2014 left the Owls bowl eligible but out of the postseason.

The 2015 season was a record-setting year for Temple with many memorable moments along the way. Beginning with a 27-10 win over Penn State on opening day in front of a sellout crowd of 69,176 at Lincoln Financial Field. Three straight road victories (for the first time in 45 years) lifted the Owls to a 7-0 start and earned Temple a spot in the Top 25. That set the stage for one of the best moments in school history, an ABC nationally televised, primetime game against #9 Notre Dame that brought along ESPN's College Gameday to Philadelphia's Independence Mall. A nail-biting 24-20 loss to the Irish could not diminish that landmark moment. The Owls finished the regular season at 10-2, tying the 1979 team for the most wins in a season, and a berth in the American Athletic Conference's first-ever Championship Game. Temple fell at Houston, 24-13, and also lost to Toledo in the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl. While many Owls earned all-conference recognition, senior linebacker Tyler Matakevich, who finished with a school record 493 tackles including four seasons with 100+ stops, was named the nation's best defensive player earning both the Chuck Bednarik Award and Bronko Nagurski Trophy. Matakevich, defensive lineman Matt Ioannidis, and defensive back Tavon Young all were drafted into the NFL.

While 2016 ended with a similar 10-4 record, the season was much different from the 2015 version. Following a 3-3 start, the Owls turned a 7-0 record down the stretch, including back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925, into another Top 25 ranking and a spot in The American Championship Game. This time the results were different as Temple beat Navy in Annapolis, 34-10, for its first conference title since 1967 and its first-ever championship game victory. Quarterback Phillip Walker capped his record-setting career at Temple with the game's Most Outstanding Player Award. He became the first Temple quarterback to lead the Owls to multiple bowl games as Temple played in back-to-back bowl games for the first time ever. During the season, Haason Reddick was among the nation's best defenders with 10.5 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss. While he was under the radar most of the season, Reddick was rewarded by becoming the #13 overall selection in the NFL Draft going to the Arizona Cardinals. He became just the fourth Temple player selected in the NFL's first round. Offensive lineman Dion Dawkins (Buffalo) and defensive back Nate Hairston (Indianapolis) joined Reddick among the drafted but seven other 2016 seniors signed free agent contracts. The team's success didn't come without consequences as Matt Rhule took a job at Baylor. Temple hired former Florida defensive coordinator Geoff Collins to continue the rise of the Top 25, championship program.

Mayhem is Coming

Geoff Collins came to Philadelphia with the moniker "Minister of Mayhem" and showed Temple fans exactly why he earned that nickname. Never bashful, the Georgia native, who sharpened his coaching skills with nearly a decade as a defensive coordinator in the SEC, turned up the volume - literally and figuratively - of Temple's football program. With an added emphasis on social media graphics and videos, Temple's recruiting reach extended to new areas and resulted in the school's highest ranked and most diverse recruiting classes ever. Collins' first season on the sidelines resulted in a 7-6 record insuring that the 2017 senior class would become the winningest class in school history with a four-year total of 33 wins. After developing its offensive identity, the Owls won four of their final five games including a 28-3 manhandling of FIU in the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl.

TEMPLE FOOTBALL HISTORY IN AAC

Celebrating its fifth anniversary, the American Athletic Conference has become a force in college athletics taking on the "Power 6" narrative of Commissioner Mike Aresco. Over the first five season, the conference has boasted national champions in both men's and women's basketball and one of only two undefeated FBS football teams.

Temple Football has had a significant role in the AAC's spotlight playing and hosting the first conference game – Sept. 7, 2013 vs. Houston – and competing in the FIRST-EVER CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME – Dec. 5, 2015 at Houston. TEMPLE WON THE 2016 AAC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME with a 34-10 victory at Navy, and is the only team to compete for the title more than once.
